Item 4—Amending the Company’s constitution

Background information

In April this year, the Corporations Act was amended to allow mutual companies (including the Company) to issue mutual capital instruments (or MCIs). MCIs are a new permanent capital instrument that can only be issued by eligible mutual entities.

These amendments are the result of a process that started in March 2015, when the Senate Economics References Committee was asked to review and report on the role, importance and operations of cooperative and mutual entities in the Australian economy. The Committee tabled its report in March 2016.

Then, in March 2017, Mr Greg Hammond OAM was appointed to look further into the recommendations made in the Senate Report and assist in developing a Government response. Mr Hammond provided his Report on Reforms for Cooperatives, Mutuals and Member-owned Firms (the Hammond Report) in July 2017. The recommendations in the Hammond Report were aimed at improving access to specialised capital, removing uncertainties faced by the mutual sector, and reducing barriers to enable cooperatives and mutuals to invest, innovate, grow and compete.

A key issue identified in the Hammond Report and the Government Response was that mutual entities had historically been constrained in their flexibility and speed of growth. This is because they have generally only been able to access capital through retained earnings. The result was that many mutual entities were at risk of demutualising if they sought to raise permanent capital from external sources.

The amendments to the Corporations Act are based on a number of the recommendations contained in the Hammond Report, in particular those allowing mutual entities to raise permanent capital without demutualising. These changes will remove a significant barrier to investment and growth, and provide mutual entities with access to a broader range of capital-raising options. The amendments to the Corporations Act include:

- a) Introducing a definition of ‘mutual entity’ into the Corporations Act;
- b) Allowing the issue of MCIs as a specialised capital instrument for mutual entities; and
- c) Introducing a standard process of member approval to allow eligible mutual entities to amend their constitutions to allow the issue and operation of MCIs without causing a demutualisation, or requiring special compliance measures.

The Company meets the requirements of a mutual entity (as defined in the Corporations Act) because it is registered as a company under the Corporations Act, and the constitution provides that a person has no more than one vote at a general meeting for each capacity in which they are a Member.

Rule 5.6(a)(1) of the constitution states that “Each Member entitled to vote at any general meeting shall have one vote only.” These voting arrangements will not change as a result of the proposed amendments to the constitution. Existing Members of the Company that are Non MCI Members (ie existing ‘mutual’ members) will continue to have one vote per membership. Those holding MCIs will also have one vote, regardless of how many MCIs they hold. Non MCI Members who also hold an MCI will still only have one vote (i.e. they will not have a vote as a Non MCI Member and a vote as an MCI Member).

Neither amendments to the constitution providing for issue of MCIs nor the actual issue of MCIs will cause a demutualisation of the Company.

Following the amendments to the Corporations Act mentioned here, the Board has decided to seek Member approval for the proposed amendments to the constitution.

The benefits of MCIs

The legislation will allow mutual companies such as Australian Unity, for the first time, to raise new permanent capital rather than debt. This will allow the Company to manage the funding arrangements and capital position of the Company effectively and invest in our services, enhance existing programs and develop our organisational systems including customer service and technology systems. MCIs will provide additional flexibilities and capacity to increase our positive impact and fully realise our potential as a community-driven organisation, without losing our status as a mutual.

An overview of the amendments

The amendments we propose here will allow the Board to issue MCIs, determine the number of MCIs issued, and decide the terms of those MCIs – including the voting rights (within the set requirements) and the dividend rights. Here are some of the key points:

- MCI holders will have no right to vote on winding up the organisation or propose or vote on any demutualisation measures. In the unlikely event that the organisation was wound up, MCI holders will only be entitled to dividends that have been accrued but not paid, and any additional amount specified in the terms of the MCI (limited to the issue price).
- Anyone who holds an MCI will be considered a Member of the Company, and will therefore be eligible for the role of Director after three years of membership. They will also be allowed to attend and speak at general meetings in the same way Non MCI Members do.
- MCIs can be transferred and may be able to be quoted on a securities exchange.
- The Board will have the power to issue different series of MCIs, with different terms.
- MCIs will be subject to the capital reduction and share buy-back rules of the Corporations Act (which have been modified to accommodate MCIs).
- The Corporations Act contains a standardised member approval process. This allows the Company to amend its constitution to provide for the issue of MCIs, and to set out the rights and obligations of MCIs, without needing to comply with the Member approval process and quorum requirements outlined in Rule 3.3 of the constitution. The Corporations Act dictates that the amendments necessary to provide for MCIs (along with their rights and obligations) must be passed at a meeting of the Company’s members – with at least 75% of votes cast in favour of the changes.

The proposed amendments

The proposed amendments to the Company's constitution are summarised in the table below.

You can obtain a marked-up version of the Company's constitution on Australian Unity's website (australianunity.com.au/companyperformance), or from our office at Level 1, 271 Spring Street, Melbourne VIC 3000 during normal business hours. Copies of the proposed amended constitution will also be available at the 2019 AGM.

Rule	Amendment
1.2	It is proposed to amend Rule 1.2 to include new definitions of: • MCI – referring to the definition contained in the Corporations Act; and • MCI Member – being a registered holder of an MCI. It is proposed to amend the definitions of Financial Member and Shareholder Member outlined in Rule 1.2, to include both MCI Members and MCI holders respectively. It is proposed to amend Rule 1.2 to include a new definition of Transmission Event, which is required to facilitate the transfer of MCIs upon the death or bankruptcy of an individual holder, or in the case of an MCI holder becoming of unsound mind. Where a body corporate that holds an MCI is being dissolved or passing on its assets and liabilities, there will be a Transmission Event.
1.3(a)	It is proposed to amend Rule 1.3 to include MCI holders as Financial Members of the Company. All MCIs will be fully paid securities of the Company, with no further amounts owed by the MCI holder to the Company.
3.1(b) and (c)	It is proposed to amend Rule 3.1(b) to differentiate the issue of MCIs from the issue of any other share in the Company. The issue of MCIs will be specifically authorised by, and undertaken in accordance with, the proposed new Rule 3.4 (see below), and not covered by the processes and requirements of Rule 3.1(b). It is proposed to insert a new Rule 3.1(c) to allow the establishment of an MCI share capital and the issue of MCIs as a consequential amendment regarding the amendment to Rule 3.1(b) to exclude MCIs from the operation of Rule 3.1(b).
3.3(e)	It is proposed to amend the definition of 'Demutualisation' outlined in Rule 3.3(e) to exclude the following actions: • The issue of MCIs • The Company agreeing to issue MCIs • The Company varying, transferring, exhausting, surrendering, cancelling or terminating the rights of Members by the issue of MCIs, or in accordance with the terms of MCIs and amending Rule 3.3 as permitted under the Corporations Act's standardised procedure for amending the constitution of a mutual entity to provide for the issue of MCIs and the rights and obligations attached to MCIs. This means that the amendments to the constitution relating to MCIs do not need to be approved by Members in accordance with the process and quorum requirements of Rule 3.3. Such amendments will need to be approved by Members, as set out in this notice of meeting. It is proposed to amend the definition of 'Members of the Company' (used for the quorum provision of Rule 3.3) to exclude a person who holds an MCI but is not otherwise a Member. This is consistent with the proposed new Rule 3.4(h), which will state that an MCI does not entitle its holder to vote on a Demutualisation.
3.4	It is proposed to insert a new Rule 3.4, which will allow the Board to issue MCIs and outlines the rights and obligations associated with those MCIs.
3.4(a)	It is proposed to insert a new Rule 3.4(a) which specifies that the Company is intended to be an MCI mutual entity for the purposes of the Act. Including this statement is necessary for the Company to meet the requirements of an MCI mutual entity, and be entitled to issue MCIs.
3.4(b)	It is proposed to insert a new Rule 3.4(b) to allow the Board to issue MCIs, and decide the terms of issue for those MCIs, including their transfer and voting rights (subject to Rule 3.4).
3.4(c)	It is proposed to insert a new Rule 3.4(c) that states MCIs can only be issued as fully paid shares. This is a specific requirement of the Act.
3.4(d)	It is proposed to insert a new Rule 3.4(d), which states that the Board will determine what dividend arrangements will apply to an MCI – for example, whether the dividend will be fixed or floating, and if floating, what the reference rate will be. The dividend rate and basis determined by the Board will be set out in the terms of the MCI. All dividends on an MCI must be non-cumulative.
3.4(e)	It is proposed to insert a new Rule 3.4(e), which will authorise the Board to pay any dividends required under the terms of an MCI without confirmation from a general meeting of Members.

Rule	Amendment
3.4(f)	It is proposed to insert a new Rule 3.4(f), which will allow the Board to decide that, upon the winding up of the Company, MCI holders will receive a dividend payment that takes priority over ordinary shareholders and Non MCI Members. This amount will be limited to the amount of any dividends accrued but not paid to the MCI, and any additional amount specified in the terms of the MCI (limited to the issue price).
3.4(g)	It is proposed to insert a new Rule 3.4(g), which will state that an MCI does not participate in the profits or assets of the Company (including on winding up), except as set out in Rule 3.4 (f).
3.4(h)	It is proposed to insert a new Rule 3.4(h), which will state that an MCI does not entitle its holder to vote on a Demutualisation, winding up the Company or on a special resolution to amend Rule 3.4(g) or 3.4(h).
3.4(i)	It is proposed to insert a new Rule 3.4(i), which will state that the rights attached to an MCI may be varied or cancelled by passing a special resolution at a meeting of the class of MCIs, or with the written consent of at least 75% of votes in the class of MCIs.
3.4(j)	It is proposed to insert a new Rule 3.4(j), which states that at a class meeting of MCI holders (or for the purpose of a written resolution of MCI class members referred to in Rule 3.4(i)), each MCI holder has one vote per MCI. MCI holders only have one vote at a general meeting of the Company.
3.4(k)	It is proposed to insert a new Rule 3.4(k), which states that the Company may treat the registered holder of an MCI as the absolute owner of that MCI. This means the Company does not need to recognise a person holding as trustee, or other equitable, contingent, future or partial claims of ownership.
3.4(l)	It is proposed to insert a new Rule 3.4(l), which will state that none of the Rules 3.4(g), 3.4(h) or 3.4(i) can be modified or repealed without the prior authority of a special resolution from Members. This resolution must comply with the terms of Rule 3.3, which outlines that such a modification or repeal is to be treated as a Demutualisation for the purposes of this rule. MCI holders will not be entitled to vote on such a resolution.
3.5	It is proposed to insert a new Rule 3.5 that will allow the transfer and transmission of MCIs.
3.5(a)	It is proposed to insert a new Rule 3.5(a), which will allow for MCIs to be transferred in a manner approved by the Board. Transferring MCIs will be subject to any rights or restrictions attached to the MCI.
3.5(b)	It is proposed to insert a new Rule 3.5(b), which will allow the Board to decline a transfer of an MCI, or suspend the registration of a transfer. The discretion of the Board is subject to any rights or restrictions attached to the MCI, and the rules and requirements of any securities exchange on which the Company is listed and MCIs are quoted.
3.5(c)	It is proposed to insert a new Rule 3.5(c), which will state that if a Shareholder Member dies, the only person that the Company will need to recognise as having any claim to that Member's MCIs (or the benefits accrued to those MCIs) is: • The legal personal representative of the deceased, where the deceased was a sole shareholder • The survivor or survivors, where the deceased was a joint shareholder.
3.5(d)	It is proposed to insert a new Rule 3.5(d), which will state that Rule 3.5(c) does not release the estate of a deceased Member from any liability on an MCI – whether that MCI was held by the deceased solely or jointly.
3.5(e)	It is proposed to insert a new Rule 3.5(e), which will state that a person who becomes entitled to an MCI because of a Transmission Event (see the new definition proposed in Rule 1.2) may, after producing any evidence the Board requires to prove their entitlement, choose to be registered as the holder of the MCI by signing and giving the Company a written notice. They can also nominate another person by executing a transfer to that person.
3.5(f)	It is proposed to insert a new Rule 3.5(f), which will state that the rules concerning the right to transfer MCIs will apply to any transfer under Rule 3.5(e) as if the relevant Transmission Event had not occurred, and the transfer were signed by the registered holder of the MCI.
3.5(g)	It is proposed to insert a new Rule 3.5(g), which will state that the person transferring an MCI will hold that MCI until the transfer is registered and the name of the transferee is entered as the holder in the register of members.
3.5(h)	It is proposed to insert a new Rule 3.5(h), which will state that for the purpose of the constitution, where two or more people are jointly entitled to an MCI because of a Transmission Event (see the new definition proposed in Rule 1.2) they will be registered to hold the MCI as joint tenants.
3.5(i)	It is proposed to insert a new Rule 3.5(i), which will state that despite Rule 3.5(c), the Directors may register a transfer that's signed by a Member before a Transmission Event (see the new definition in Rule 1.2), even though the company has notice of the Transmission Event.
3.5(j)	It is proposed to insert a new Rule 3.5(j), which will state that the Board can do anything that is necessary or desirable for the Company to participate in any computerised, electronic or other system for facilitating MCI transfers – or the operation of registers that may be owned, operated or sponsored by the Exchange, or a related body corporate of the Exchange.

Rule	Amendment
3.5(k)	It is proposed to insert a new Rule 3.5(k), which will state that the Board may, to the extent the law permits, waive or vary any of the requirements of Rule 3.5, and prescribe alternative requirements instead – to give effect to rule 3.5(j), or for another purpose.
4.4(f)	It is proposed to amend Rule 4.4(f) by replacing the term ‘mental health’ with ‘mental incapacity’. The collective understanding of ‘mental health’ has evolved, and the Board’s intention is that a Director should only be vacated from office when they become incapable.
4.6(e)	It is proposed to insert a new Rule 4.6(e) which will state that the Board will, subject to the Company complying with its obligations under the terms of issue of MCIs, give preference to the interests of Non MCI Members over the interests of MCI Members. In applying that Rule, where a Member is both a Non MCI Member and an MCI Member, the Board will consider that Member’s interests solely as a Non MCI Member.
5.1	It is proposed to amend Rule 5.1 by deleting the words ‘.of the Company.’ after Financial Member. This is intended to clarify that all Financial Members defined in Rule 1.2 are entitled to attend and speak at general meetings of the Company, including MCI Members.

If Members pass Item 4, the amendments summarised above will take effect at the conclusion of the 2019 AGM.

Note: This resolution is proposed as a special resolution. In accordance with section 167AJ of the Corporations Act, it will only be passed if at least 75% of the votes cast by or on behalf of Members who are present at the AGM (including those who have appointed proxies who are present at the meeting) and who are entitled to vote are cast in favour of the resolution.
