Listing Rule 4.10.3 requires an entity that is included in the official list as an ASX Listing to include in its annual report either a corporate governance statement that meets the requirements of that rule or the URL of the page on its website where such a statement is located. The corporate governance statement must disclose the extent to which the entity has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council during the reporting period. If the entity has not followed a recommendation for any part of the reporting period, its corporate governance statement must separately identify that recommendation and the period during which it was not followed and state its reasons for not following the recommendation and what (if any) alternative governance practices it adopted in lieu of the recommendation during that period.

Under Listing Rule 4.7.4, if an entity chooses to include its corporate governance statement on its website rather than in its annual report, it must lodge a copy of the corporate governance statement with ASX at the same time as it lodges its annual report with ASX. The corporate governance statement must be current as at the effective date specified in that statement for the purposes of rule 4.10.3.

² "Corporate governance statement" is defined in Listing Rule 19.12 to mean the statement referred to in Listing Rule 4.10.3 which discloses the extent to which an entity has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council during a particular reporting period.

³ Mark whichever option is correct and then complete the page number(s) of the annual report, or the URL of the web page, where the entity's corporate governance statement can be found.

Principle 1 – Lay solid foundations for management and oversight A listed entity should establish and disclose the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management and how their performance is monitored and evaluated.
1.1 A listed entity should disclose: (a) the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management; and (b) those matters expressly reserved to the board and those delegated to management.	Complying	The Board has adopted a charter (Board Charter) which establishes the role of the Board and its relationship with management. The Board Charter clearly articulates the division of responsibilities between the Board and management, in order to manage expectations and avoid misunderstandings about their respective roles and accountabilities. As detailed in the Board Charter, the primary role of the Board is the protection and enhancement of long term shareholder value, and its responsibilities include the overall strategic direction of the Group, establishing goals for management and monitoring the achievement of these goals. The Board is also responsible for the overall corporate governance of Burson. The Board Charter additionally sets out the role and responsibility of the Chairman, and outlines the Board's policy on when and how Directors may seek independent professional advice at the expense of the Company. The Board has delegated to the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) the authority and power to manage Burson and its businesses within levels of authority specified by the Board from time to time. The CEO may sub-delegate aspects of his authority and power but remains accountable to the Board for Burson's performance and is required to report regularly to the Board on the progress being made by Burson's business units. In accordance with the Board Charter, the Board will review the Board Charter at least annually, and in doing so will continually review the division of functions between the Board and management to ensure that it continues to be appropriate to the needs of the Group. A copy of the Board Charter is available on the Website.

1.2	A listed entity should: (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a person, or putting forward to security holders a candidate for election, as a director; and (b) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director.	Complying The Board has established and operates a Nomination and Remuneration Committee. The Nomination and Remuneration Committee's functions and powers are formalised in a Nomination and Remuneration Committee Charter, a copy of which is available on the Website. The nomination-related function of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee is to, where required: ▪ identify, suitable candidates with appropriate skills, experience, expertise and diversity to complement the existing Board, in order for the Board to discharge its mandate effectively and to maintain the necessary mix of expertise on the Board; and ▪ undertake appropriate checks on a candidate and seek confirmation from the candidate that he/she will have sufficient time to fulfil his or her responsibilities as a director; and ▪ subject to the results of such checks and confirmations, make recommendations to the Board on their appointment. Where appropriate, external consultants may be engaged to assist in searching for candidates and undertaking relevant checks. The Company will provide information to shareholders about Directors seeking re-election at a general meeting to enable them to make an informed decision on whether or not to re-elect the Director, including their relevant qualifications and experience and the skills they bring to the Board; details of any other listed directorships held by the Director in the preceding 3 years; the term of office already served by the Director; whether the Director is considered to be independent; and a recommendation by the Board in respect of the re-election of the Director. The Company will, in the case of a candidate standing for election as a director for the first time, provide information to shareholders about the candidate to enable them to make an informed decision on whether or not to elect the candidate, including material adverse information revealed by any checks the Nomination and Remuneration Committee has performed on the candidate; details of any interest, position, association or relationship that might influence, or reasonably be perceived to influence, in a material respect the candidate's capacity to exercise independent judgement on board matters or to act in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders generally; the Board's view on whether the candidate will be considered to be an independent Director; and a recommendation by the Board in respect of the election of the candidate.
1.3	A listed entity should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	Complying All Directors and senior executives have entered into written agreements with the Company. Specifically, each Non-Executive Director has been given a letter of appointment which outlines terms including the Director's duties, obligations, remuneration, expected time commitments and notification of the Company's policies. Similarly, senior executives including the CEO and Chief Financial Officer (CFO), have a formal job description and services agreement or employment agreement with the Company describing their term of office, duties, rights and responsibilities, and entitlements on termination.

1.4 The company secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the board.	Complying	The Company Secretary is responsible for the day to day operations of the company secretary's office, including the administration of Board and committee meetings, overseeing Burson's relationship with its share registrar and lodgements with the ASX and other regulators. The Company Secretary is also responsible for communications with the ASX about listing rule matters, including making disclosures to the ASX in accordance with Burson's Disclosure Policy. The Company Secretary supports the effectiveness of the Board by monitoring compliance with Board policies and procedures, and co-ordinating the completion and despatch of Board agendas and briefing papers. The Company Secretary is accountable to the Board, and all Directors have access to the Company Secretary. The decision to appoint or remove the Company Secretary is made or approved by the Board.

To enumerate its commitment to diversity in its workforce, including but not limited to gender diversity, the Company has established a Diversity Policy, a copy of which is available on the Website. The overriding objective of the Diversity Policy is to align Burson's business operations with the positive outcomes that can be achieved through a diverse workforce that recognises and utilises the contribution of its diverse skills and talent. The Diversity Policy also seeks to ensure that Burson has a properly functioning workplace where discrimination, harassment and victimisation are not tolerated. The Board is tasked with responsibility for the Diversity Policy, including the responsibility to regularly review and monitor the effectiveness of the policy. The Board is also responsible, under the Diversity Policy, to annually set and review measurable objectives in relation to gender diversity (and where appropriate, other aspects of diversity including in respect of women in leadership, age diversity and cultural diversity), and annually assess Burson's progress in achieving these objectives. The Company will disclose these measurable objectives and report on its progress in achieving such objectives during each financial year in Burson's annual corporate governance statement. In respect of the 2015 financial year, Burson's measurable objectives for gender diversity were to maintain female representation at approximately one third of the total workforce, as well as to promote and provide opportunities to capable female employees internally. In the Board's view, these measurable objectives are appropriate given the circumstances of the Company and the sector in which Burson operates. Burson advises that as at 30 June 2015, female representation on Burson's workforce at various management levels were as follows: ▪ Female non-executive board members – 33% ▪ Female senior executives – 0% ▪ Female management – 6% ▪ Overall female employees – 33% For the purposes of determining the number of female senior executives in Burson, the Company has defined "senior executive" as the CEO and those who report directly to the CEO.

In accordance with the Workplace Gender Equality Act 2012, Burson has submitted a Workplace Gender Equality Report for the 2014/2015 reporting period. The submission includes details of Burson's Gender Equality Indicators, and is available on the Website.

The purpose of the Board evaluation was to improve board and company performance and to allow the Board to identify areas where performance can be enhanced. In addition, during the financial year, the Board undertook assessment and review of the skillset and experience of each Director individually and the Board as a whole. The Nomination and Remuneration Committee and the Audit and Risk Management Committee are also required to evaluate their own performances at least once every two years to determine whether each committee is functioning effectively by reference to current best practice. 2.1	The board of a listed entity should: (a) have a nomination committee which: (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the members of the committee; and (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a nomination committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs to address board succession issues and to ensure that the board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.	Complying The Board has established a Nomination and Remuneration Committee comprising three members, Ms Therese Ryan, Mr Robert McEniry and Mr Andrew Harrison. The Nomination and Remuneration Committee's functions and powers are formalised in a Charter, a copy of which is available on the Website. All Nomination and Remuneration Committee members, including the Committee Chair, Ms Therese Ryan, are considered by the Board to be independent Directors. The nomination-related function of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee is, in summary, to review and make recommendations in relation to the composition and performance of the Board and its committees and ensuring that adequate succession plans are in place (including for the recruitment and appointment of Directors and senior management). The Nomination and Remuneration Committee will meet as often as is required by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee Charter or other policy approved by the Board to govern the operation of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee. Following each meeting, the Nomination and Remuneration Committee will report to the Board on any matter that should be brought to the Board's attention and on any recommendation of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee that requires Board approval. The number of times that the Nomination and Remuneration Committee met throughout the financial year and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings are disclosed in the Company's Annual Report. The Company will disclose in future annual reports the number of times the Nomination and Remuneration Committee meets throughout each financial year and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings.
2.2	A listed entity should have and disclose a board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills and diversity that the board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership.	Complying The Board aims to be comprised of Directors which have, at all times, the appropriate mix of skills, experience, expertise and diversity relevant to Burson's businesses and the Board's responsibilities. This objective is enumerated in the Board Charter. The Board regularly evaluates the mix of skills, experience and diversity at the Board level, and has developed and adopted a Board skills matrix which has been tailored to the circumstances and requirements of Burson. The objectives of the skills matrix adopted by the Board are to: - Identify the skills, knowledge, experience and capabilities that are considered to be desired of the Board of Burson as a whole, in order for the Board to fulfil its role and in light of Burson's strategic direction; - Ascertain the current skills, knowledge, experience and capabilities of the Board, and provide the incumbent Directors with an opportunity to reflect upon and discuss the current composition of the Board; and - Identify any gaps in skills or competencies that can be addressed in future director appointments. During the 2015 financial year, Board assessed each Director's skill level against the following key skills set out in the matrix which the Board considered to be desired of the Board of Burson: - Accounting and financial reporting; - Corporate governance and compliance; - Health and safety; - Diversity issues; - Board of director experience; - Digital strategy; - Corporate finance/investment banking; - Human resources management; - Automotive industry knowledge; - Sales, branding and marketing; - Legal; - Business and organisational management; - Executive remuneration; - Risk management; - Investor relations/stakeholder engagement; - Nominations and succession planning; and - Business intelligence. The Board has considered the circumstances of each Director and determined that all Non-Executive Directors are independent Directors, on the basis that they are free from any interest, position, association or relationship that might influence, or reasonably be perceived to influence the independent exercise of their judgement. In reaching this conclusion, the Board considered the guidelines of materiality for the purpose of determining Director independence set out in the Board Charter and Box 2.3 of the Recommendations.

The Corporations Act and monthly Board meeting processes require Directors to advise the Board of any interest they have that has the potential to conflict with the interests of the Group, including any development that may impact their perceived or actual independence. If the Board determines that a Director's status as an independent Director has changed, that determination will be disclosed and explained in a timely manner to the market. The length of service of each Director is set out in the Company's 2015 Annual Report.
2.4	A majority of the board of a listed entity should be independent directors. In addition, the Nomination and Remuneration Committee is responsible for ensuring that incumbent Directors are provided with appropriate professional development opportunities to develop and maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as a director effectively. As Directors join the Board, they undertake a comprehensive induction program, which includes the provision of information on the Company's core values, key strategies, objectives, as well as its governance framework and operations. New Directors also meet with key senior management to gain a better appreciation of the Group's services and capabilities. The Board receives ongoing governance updates as required, including in relation to recent legislative and regulatory changes and developments in corporate governance. All Directors have ongoing access to information on the Company's operations and to the Group's senior management. Each Director, at any time, is able to seek reasonable independent professional advice on any business-related matter at the expense of the Company. Directors also have access to adequate internal resources to seek any information from any officer or employee of the Group, or to require the attendance of management at meetings to enable them as Directors to fulfil their duties.

Principle 5 – Make timely and balanced disclosure A listed entity should make timely and balanced disclosure of all matters concerning it that a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or value of its securities.
5.1	A listed entity should: (a) have a written policy for complying with its continuous disclosure obligations under the Listing Rules; and (b) disclose that policy or a summary of it.	Complying The Board has adopted a Disclosure Policy which has established procedures designed to ensure compliance with ASX Listing Rule disclosure requirements and to ensure accountability at a senior management level for that compliance. The focus of these procedures is on continuous disclosure of any information concerning the Group that a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price of the Company's securities and improving access to information for all investors. The Board has established a Disclosure Committee comprising two members; (i) the CEO and (ii) the CFO and Company Secretary, who also acts as the Disclosure Officer. The Disclosure Committee is responsible for determining what information will be disclosed by Burson to the ASX; implementing procedures to ensure that, if required, disclosures to the ASX can be made immediately; and trading halt requests can be lodged with the ASX immediately. In accordance with the Disclosure Policy, the Disclosure Officer is responsible for ensuring that all Board decisions that must be disclosed to the ASX are dealt with by an appropriate company announcement. The purpose of these procedures is to ensure timely and accurate information is provided equally to all shareholders and market participants. A copy of the Disclosure Policy is available on the Website.
Principle 6 – Respect the rights of security holders A listed entity should respect the rights of its security holders by providing them with appropriate information and facilities to allow them to exercise those rights effectively.
6.1	A listed entity should provide information about itself and its governance to investors via its website.	Complying The investor relations section of Burson's Website is the primary medium of providing information to all shareholders and stakeholders. It has been designed to enable information to be accessed in a clear and readily accessible manner. The investor relations section of the Website contains information relevant to shareholders and stakeholders including: - all relevant announcements made to the market, including annual and half yearly reports; - all corporate governance policies and charters adopted by the Board; - information provided to analysts or media during briefings; and - the full text of notices of meeting and explanatory material.

			shareholders and investors by posting information on the Website, and by encouraging attendance and participation of shareholders at general meetings. Following the release of Burson's half-year and full-year results, Burson conducts a results announcement open briefing which the public, including the media, all shareholders, stakeholders and new investors, are invited to attend. In addition, Burson also conducts investor and analyst briefings at which institutional investors and stockbroking analysts are briefed. At both meetings, attendees will be given an opportunity to ask questions of the CEO and CFO.
6.3	A listed entity should disclose the policies and processes it has in place to facilitate and encourage participation at meetings of security holders.	Complying	Shareholders are encouraged to attend the Company's general meetings, and notice of such meetings will be given in accordance with the Company's Constitution, the Corporations Act, and the ASX Listing Rules. The Company's annual general meeting in particular is an opportunity for shareholders to receive updates from the CEO and Chairman on Group performance, ask questions of the Board and vote on the various resolutions affecting the Company's business. Shareholders are also given an opportunity at annual general meetings to ask questions of the Company's auditors regarding the conduct of the audit and preparation and content of the auditor's report. The date, time and location of the Company's general meetings will be provided in the notices of meetings, and on the Website. Whilst shareholders are encouraged to attend meetings in person, in the event that they are unable to do so, they are encouraged to participate in the meeting by appointing a proxy, attorney or representative to vote on their behalf.
6.4	A listed entity should give security holders the option to receive communications from, and send communications to, the entity and its security registry electronically.	Complying	Investors are able to communicate with the Company electronically by emailing the Company Secretary. Investors are also able to communicate with the Company's registry electronically by emailing the registry or via the registry's website. Burson encourages its shareholders to receive company information electronically by registering their email addresses online with Burson's share registry.

Principle 7 – Recognise and manage risk

A listed entity should establish a sound risk management framework and periodically review the effectiveness of that framework.

7.1	The board of a listed entity should: (a) have a committee or committees to oversee risk, each of which: (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the members of the committee; and (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a risk committee or committees that satisfy (a) above, disclose that fact and the processes it employs for overseeing the entity's risk management framework.	Complying	The Board has established an Audit and Risk Management Committee comprising three members, Mr Andrew Harrison, Mr Robert McEniry and Ms Therese Ryan. The risk-related role of the Audit and Risk Management Committee is to oversee Burson's internal control structure and risk management systems, to provide advice to the Board and to report on the status and management of the risks to Burson. The purpose of the Committee's risk management process is to assist the Board in relation to risk management policies, procedures and systems and ensure that risks are identified, assessed and appropriately managed. All Audit and Risk Management Committee members, including the Chair of the Committee Mr Andrew Harrison, are considered to be independent Directors. The Audit and Risk Management Committee's functions and powers are formalised in a Charter, a copy of which is available on the Website. The Audit and Risk Management Committee will meet as often as is required by the Audit and Risk Management Committee Charter or other policy approved by the Board to govern the operations of the Audit and Risk Management Committee. The number of times that the Audit and Risk Management Committee met throughout the financial year and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings, and the relevant qualifications and experience of the Audit and Risk Management Committee members are disclosed in the Company's Annual Report.
7.2	The board or a committee of the board should: (a) review the entity's risk management framework at least annually to satisfy itself that it continues to be sound; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether such a review has taken place.	Complying	The Group operates various policies and procedures to identify, assess and manage business and operational risks. Responsibility for risk management is shared across the organisation. The Board is responsible for overseeing the establishment of and approving risk management strategy, policies, procedures and systems of Burson. Burson management is responsible for establishing Burson's risk management framework. The Board has delegated to the Audit and Risk Management Committee responsibility for reviewing and monitoring Burson's risk management framework to provide assurance that major business risks are identified, consistently assessed and appropriately addressed. In addition, the Audit and Risk Management Committee is required, under its charter, to undertake a review of Burson's risk management framework with management, at least once annually. A review of the Group's risk management framework and risk register was undertaken during the 2015 financial year, in conjunction with an external risk consultant.

7.3	A listed entity should disclose: (a) if it has an internal audit function, how the function is structured and what role it performs; or (b) if it does not have an internal audit function, that fact and the processes it employs for evaluating and continually improving the effectiveness of its risk management and internal control processes.	Complying	Burson does not at this time, have an internal audit function. However, as set out in the Audit and Risk Management Committee Charter, the Committee has responsibility to ensure that Burson has appropriate internal audit systems and controls in place, and for overseeing the effectiveness of these internal controls. The Committee is also responsible for conducting investigations of breaches or potential breaches of these internal controls. Burson's external auditors also provide recommendations to the Board where internal control weaknesses have been identified. The Audit and Risk Committee is responsible for overseeing the implementation of recommendations to improve internal control weaknesses made by Burson's auditors, as well as to generally oversee reviews and improvements to risk management and internal control processes.
7.4	A listed entity should disclose whether it has any material exposure to economic, environmental and social sustainability risks and, if it does, how it manages or intends to manage those risks.	Complying	The Group's operations are not subject to any significant environmental regulations under the Commonwealth or State legislation. Whilst the Company has exposure to elements of risks relevant to the industry in which Burson operates, the Company does not consider, given the nature of its business, that it has any specific extraordinary exposure to economic, environmental and social sustainability risks.

Principle 8 – Remunerate fairly and responsibly

A listed entity should pay director remuneration sufficient to attract and retain high quality directors and design its executive remuneration to attract, retain and motivate high quality senior executives and to align their interests with the creation of value for security holders.

8.1	The board of a listed entity should: (a) have a remuneration committee which: (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the members of the committee; and (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those	Complying	The Board has established a Nomination and Remuneration Committee comprising three members, Ms Therese Ryan, Mr Robert McEniry and Mr Andrew Harrison. The Nomination and Remuneration Committee's functions and powers are formalised in a Nomination and Remuneration Committee Charter, a copy of which is available on the Website. The remuneration-related role of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee is to review and make recommendations to the Board on remuneration packages and policies relating to the Directors, CEO and senior executives and to ensure that the remuneration policies and practices are consistent with Burson's strategic goals and human resources objectives. The Nomination and Remuneration Committee engaged external remuneration consultants during the 2015 financial year to undertake a review and make appropriate recommendations as to the suitability of existing remuneration practices for senior executives. The Committee is also responsible for administering short term and long term incentive plans (including any equity plans) and reviewing Burson's claw back policy in respect of performance-based remuneration. Following each meeting, the Nomination and Remuneration Committee will report to the Board on any matter that should be brought to the Board's attention and on any recommendation of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee that requires Board approval. The number of times that the Nomination and Remuneration Committee met throughout the financial year and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings are disclosed in the Company's Annual Report. The Company will disclose in future annual reports the number of times the Nomination and Remuneration Committee meets throughout each financial year and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings.
8.2	A listed entity should separately disclose its policies and practices regarding the remuneration of non-executive directors and the remuneration of executive directors and other senior executives.	Complying	Details of the Directors' and key senior executives' remuneration are set out in the Remuneration Report section of the Company's 2015 Annual Report. The structure of Non-Executive Directors' remuneration is distinct from that of executives and is further detailed in the Remuneration Report section of the Company's 2015 Annual Report.
8.3	A listed entity which has an equity-based remuneration scheme should: (a) have a policy on whether participants are permitted to enter into transactions (whether through the use of derivatives or otherwise) which limit the economic risk of participating in the scheme; and (b) disclose that policy or a summary of it.	Complying	Burson has adopted a Long Term Incentive Plan (LTIP) to assist in the motivation, retention and reward of the CEO and certain senior executives. The LTIP is designed to align the interests of the CEO and senior executives more closely with the interests of shareholders by providing an opportunity for senior executives to receive an equity interest in Burson through the granting of performance rights, the vesting of which is subject to satisfaction of certain performance conditions. A summary of the LTIP was provided in the Company's prospectus dated 7 April 2014 and its 2015 Annual Report. Participants in the LTIP are not permitted to hedge or otherwise limit the economic risk of participating in the LTIP. In addition, the Company has adopted a Securities Trading Policy which prohibits Directors, the CEO and senior executives and other key management personnel and their closely related parties from entering into any arrangement that would have the effect of, directly or indirectly, granting any form of security (whether by way of charge, mortgage, pledge or otherwise) over any Burson securities which are unvested or subject to a holding lock, to secure any obligation or enter into any margin lending arrangement involving Burson securities. A copy of Burson's Securities Trading Policy is available on the Website.
