* During November, the Company withdrew $100,000 cash from the Portfolio for working capital purposes.

November saw the US stockmarket enjoy its traditional Thanksgiving rally, buoyed by strong economic data and further falls in energy prices (S&P & Dow up 3.5%). Positive manufacturing, productivity, durable goods and confidence numbers provided the impetus for a continuation of October's late month rally, while oil prices continued to fall as recovering US Gulf production boosted inventories and forecasters predicted a warm winter for the US.

Elsewhere European markets (France 3%, Germany 5.4%, UK 2%) also gained after some strong earnings results (Commerzbank, Tate & Lyle, Zurich) and the ECB easing concerns over interest rate rises. Asian markets (Korea 12%, Japan 9.3%, Taiwan 7.6%) rose very strongly with Japanese GDP surprising on the upside.

Most sectors enjoyed buoyant returns, led by IT, materials, industrials and financials. Vodafone's profit warning hit the telco sector, which fell more than 2% in $US.

As envisaged in the Investment Manager's address by Constellation to the AGM on 24 November, the weakening $A and an uplift in markets translated in to strong returns for the month. Currency changes (AUD/USD fell from 74.7c to 74c) increased portfolio returns by 1% adding to the returns from international stock markets. We are pleased to note that the portfolio return since 30 September 2004 is a strong 16.2%.
