New Website

YPB is pleased to announce the launch of its fresh new website at www.ypbsystems.com

The new website is a central hub where customers, consumers and investors can view the latest technology innovations from YPB in its efforts to fight counterfeit.

Investors can access the latest announcements and keep up to date with industry and YPB news.

This is just the first step for YPB and its online presence, as we roll out greater plans to integrate with our mobile anti counterfeit strategy and allowing consumers to access information on counterfeit products.
