Nevada Lithium Project – Update

- Geos Mining Minerals Consultants appointed to Clayton Valley Lithium Project
- JORC Code 2012 Competent Person in lithium brines and VALMIN Code 2015 Specialist to prepare high level data review to determine lithium prospectivity and potential exploration targets and budget

Sovereign Gold Company Limited (ASX: SOC) advises the appointment of Geos Mining Minerals Consultants (GEOS) to conduct a high-level data review of the Clayton Valley Lithium Project.

The review will concentrate on lithium prospectivity and the potential to identify an exploration target (classified in accordance with the JORC Code 2012) based on the information provided by Sovereign Gold.

Lyle Sawyer of GEOS will be the project manager. He is a VALMIN Code 2015 specialist as well as a competent person under JORC 2012 for lithium brines as well as other minerals and metals. Lyle is also skilled in conducting hydrogeological project/studies reviews.
