DIVIDEND POLICY

Dicker Data Limited (ASX: DDR) is pleased to announce that the Board of Directors has adopted a new dividend policy for the Company.

The new dividend policy provides for Dicker Data to pay dividends on a quarterly basis, with the aim to pay out dividends of up to 100% of underlying after tax profits from operations. Dividends will be declared in the last month of each quarter. These dividends will be fully franked.

In determining the amount of dividends, the Board will take into account –

- Historical earnings of the Company;
- Free cash flow from trading available for dividend payments;
- The projected capital expenditure requirements of the Company;
- The trading forecast for the Company.

The first dividend under the new policy was declared today.

The Board of Directors has taken into account the historic and projected trading of the Company and Dicker Data's current borrowing arrangements in establishing the new dividend policy.
