

ASX Release

22 February 2021

DUG's supercomputer 'Bubba' back online

High performance computing technology company DUG Technology Ltd (ASX: DUG) (DUG or the Company) is pleased to advise that power in Houston Texas has been restored. After some repairs to the cooling systems, DUG's supercomputer 'Bubba' was successfully brought back online yesterday, 21 February 2021, with no further issues identified. The Company would like to expressly thank the DUG IT and Engineering staff who worked around the clock over the course of the weekend.

Authorised for release by Matt Lamont, Managing Director of DUG Technology Ltd.

ENDS

For more information:

Investors

Ronn Bechler, Market Eye

T +61 400 009 774

E ronn.bechler@marketeye.com.au

Media

Tristan Everett, Market Eye

T +61 403 789 096

E tristan.everett@marketeye.com.au

DUG Investor Email: investor@dug.com

DUG Investor Centre: www.dug.com/investor-centre

About DUG

DUG is a technology company at the forefront of high-performance computing with a strong foundation in applied physics. DUG's innovative hardware and software solutions for the global technology and resource sectors enable clients to leverage large and complex datasets. The Company provides cloud-based, high-performance computing as a service (HPCaaS), multi-tiered support for technology onboarding and code optimisation, and integrated services. DUG has offices in Perth, London, Houston and Kuala Lumpur. The Company designs, owns and operates some of the largest and greenest supercomputers on Earth.

To learn more, please visit www.dug.com

In addition, to help you understand DUG's technology proposition and scale of operations, please watch:

- "Pedal to the Bare Metal" at: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Wqs-C77oDHE>
- Time lapse video of the build out of DUG's data centre in Houston that can accommodate a 150PF supercomputer, and currently has 21PF installed at: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=eJ98oWk7AuM&feature=youtu.be>.