Evergold Minerals Limited (ASX: EG1) ("Evergold" or "the Company") reports on a highly active June 2026 quarter, highlighted by the successful completion of its maiden reverse circulation drilling program at the Mt Monger Gold Project and continued advancement of its Western Australian gold portfolio.

EXPLORATION UPDATE

MT MONGER GOLD PROJECT

Reverse circulation (RC) drilling commenced at the Duchess of York Prospect in early May 2026, with K-Drill engaged to complete Evergold's maiden 2026 drilling program across the Duchess of York and Gladiator Prospects. Approximately 2,800 metres of drilling was completed during the quarter, targeting extensions to known gold mineralisation at Duchess of York and testing the emerging Gladiator Prospect along the prospective Bare Hill Shear Zone.

During and subsequent to the quarter, the Company reported results from the complete maiden RC drilling program, confirming broad zones of gold mineralisation at Duchess of York, extending continuity below previous drilling, and delivering the highest-grade gold intercept ever returned from the prospect. Results also confirmed gold mineralisation at the emerging Gladiator Prospect, further supporting the Company's evolving geological model across the Mt Monger Gold Project.

Key drill intercepts[1,2,3] include:

- 25m at 3.47 g/t Au from 3m, including 1m at 52.7 g/t Au from 9m (MM26RC0005)
- 22m at 1.80 g/t Au from 59m, including 8m at 3.38 g/t Au (MM26RC0024)
- 14m at 1.24 g/t Au from 59m, including 5m at 1.58 g/t Au (MM26RC0019)
- 13m at 1.17 g/t Au from 3m, including 2m at 2.16 g/t Au (MM26RC0021)
- 23m at 0.69 g/t Au from 18m, including 12m at 0.95 g/t Au and 3m at 2.25 g/t Au (MM26RC0022)
- 8m at 0.44 g/t Au from 43m and 1m at 0.80 g/t Au from 60m (MM26RC0030, Gladiator)

The drilling significantly improved Evergold's understanding of the Duchess of York gold mineralised system, which is now interpreted to be broader and flatter lying than previously recognised. Gold mineralisation is associated with sulphide-bearing quartz veining containing pyrite, arsenopyrite, galena and sphalerite, consistent with the structurally controlled orogenic gold systems that characterise the Mt Monger district. The mineralisation remains open along strike and at depth, supporting the commencement of a Phase 2 RC drilling program.

Drilling also tested the recently identified Gladiator Prospect, targeting the near-surface expression of a coherent gold-in-soil anomaly extending more than 800 metres and spatially associated with a north-south gravity feature. Initial drilling confirmed gold mineralisation at depth, supporting the Company's interpretation of a larger intrusive-related gold system.

During the quarter, Evergold was also awarded WA Government Exploration Incentive Scheme (EIS) co-funding for a diamond drilling program to test the interpreted sanukitoid intrusive source beneath the prospect.

DRONE MAGNETIC SURVEY

A high-resolution drone-borne magnetic survey was completed across the Mt Monger tenure to provide detailed structural imaging and refine drill targeting. The survey data will be integrated with gravity, drilling and geochemical datasets to further enhance the Company's understanding of the broader mineralised system and support future exploration and drill planning.

LEONORA GOLDFIELDS PROJECT

Craig's Rest

Evergold continued to advance Craig's Rest Prospect during the quarter through parallel resource growth and project advancement initiatives.

Environmental baseline studies progressed with the completion of terrestrial flora and fauna surveys, representing an important milestone in advancing the environmental approvals pathway. Planning also advanced for a hydrology study to assess groundwater and surface water conditions in support of future mine planning, together with a regional soil geochemistry program and a high-resolution drone magnetic survey to target extensions to mineralisation and further refine the structural architecture across the Project.

Craig's Rest hosts a JORC (2012) Inferred Mineral Resource of 48,600 ounces at 1.38 g/t Au[4], forming part of the broader Leonora Goldfields Project Mineral Resource inventory of 63,000 ounces of gold across the Craig's Rest, Victor Bore and Great Northern prospects.

POST QUARTER ACTIVITIES

MT MONGER GOLD PROJECT

Subsequent to quarter end, final assay results from the Company's maiden 2026 RC drilling program confirmed broad and high-grade gold mineralisation at the Duchess of York Prospect, including the highest-grade intercept returned to date of 25m at 3.47 g/t Au from 3m[1], including 1m at 52.7 g/t Au from 9m. The complete program also confirmed gold mineralisation at the Gladiator

Prospect, supporting the Company's evolving geological model and the commencement of Phase 2 RC resource definition drilling at Duchess of York.

LEONORA GOLDFIELDS PROJECT

Subsequent to quarter end, Evergold completed a regional soil geochemistry program at Craig's Rest Prospect, with 1,320 soil samples[3] collected and submitted to Intertek Genalysis for multi-element analysis. The survey was designed to define geochemical gold dispersion associated with the Wonder and Black Cat structures, generate ranked exploration targets and further refine the Company's understanding of the structural controls on mineralisation. Assay results are expected within four to six weeks and will be integrated with the planned high-resolution drone magnetic survey and historical drilling datasets to guide future exploration.

Bynoe Project

At the Bynoe Project in the Northern Territory, the Company continues to assess its strategic options following previously reported drilling results.

Financial update

Cash and cash equivalents as 30 June 2026 was $4,007k compared with $2,282k at 31 March 2026. During the quarter the entity successfully completed Tranche 2 of its capital raise (net proceeds $2,611k), increasing the cash position.

Cash movements during the quarter included corporate and administration costs of $247k compared to $215k in Q3 FY26. These costs remained stable quarter on quarter.

Staff costs were $118k for the quarter (previous quarter: $152k), largely reflecting operational wages and salary costs increasingly being allocated to capitalised exploration and evaluation, consistent with the ramp-up in exploration activity

Exploration and evaluation expenditure increased to $496k (previous quarter: $197k). The increase for the current period primarily related to increased exploration activity at the Mt Monger project.

Directors, being related parties of the Company, were remunerated to the amount of $153k in director and consulting fees during the quarter. An additional $4.4k was paid to a related entity of a director as settlement of rent expenses for the quarter.
