3.10 Effect of the Offer on control and voting power in the Company

The Company does not have any substantial holders prior to the Offer.

The potential effect that the issue of the Shares under the Offer will have on the control of the Company is as follows:

- (a) if all Eligible Shareholders take up their Entitlements under the Offer, the issue of Shares under the Offer will have no effect on the control of the Company and all Shareholders will hold the same percentage interest in the Company, subject only to changes resulting from ineligible Shareholders being unable to participate in the Offer;
- (b) in the more likely event that there is a shortfall, Eligible Shareholders who do not subscribe for their full Entitlement and ineligible Shareholders unable to participate in the Offer will be diluted relative to those Shareholders who subscribe for some or all of their Entitlement as shown by the table in Section 3.8;

- (c) in respect of any shortfall, eligible shareholders will be entitled to top-up their shareholding, by subscribing for additional shares to be issued from the shortfall pool (Shortfall Offer). However, the Company will only issue such Shares pursuant to an application received where the Directors are satisfied, in their discretion, that the issue of the Shares will not increase the applicant's voting power above 19.90%. Having regard to the number of Shares to be issued under the Offer, even if a substantial shortfall eventuated, a participant in the Shortfall Offer would not be in a position to exercise any substantive control in the Company; and
- (d) in the event that the amount raised under the Rights Issue and the Shortfall Offer is less than the maximum amount sought (being approximately $2.693 million), the Company may also seek to raise the balance with non-Eligible Shareholders under a separate placement of Shares. Having regard to the number of Shares to be issued under the Rights Issue and the Shortfall Offer, even if a substantial amount of Shares was placed with non-Eligible Shareholders under a separate placement of Shares, a participant in this raising would not be in a position to exercise any substantive control in the Company.

3.11 Market Price of Shares

The Company is a disclosing entity for the purposes of the Corporations Act and its Shares are enhanced disclosure securities quoted on ASX.

The highest, lowest and last market sale prices of the Shares on ASX during the three months immediately preceding the date of release of this Offer Document and the respective dates of those sales were:

	($)	Date
Highest	0.037	7 November 2024
Lowest	0.022	17 September and 20 September 2024
Last	0.029	6 December 2024

3.12 Opening and Closing Dates

The Offer opens on the Opening Date, being Tuesday 17 December 2024, and closes on the Closing Date, being 5:00pm (WST) on Friday 17 January 2025 (or such other dates as the Directors in their discretion shall determine subject to the ASX Listing Rules). The Company will accept Entitlement and Acceptance Forms until the Closing Date or such other date as the Directors in their absolute discretion shall determine, subject to the ASX Listing Rules.

3.13 Issue and dispatch

Shares issued pursuant to the Offer will be issued in accordance with the ASX Listing Rules and the indicative timetable set out in Section 3.3. Shares issued pursuant to the Shortfall Offer will be issued at the same time as Share issued under the Rights Issue.

Pending the issue of the Shares or payment of refunds pursuant to this Offer Document, all application monies will be held by the Registry in trust for the Applicants in a separate bank account as required by the Corporations Act. The Company, however, will be entitled to retain all interest that accrues on the bank account and each Applicant waives the right to claim interest by completing and returning the Entitlement and Acceptance Form.

The expected dates for issue of New Shares offered by this Offer Document and dispatch of holding statements is expected to occur on the dates specified in the Timetable set out in Section 3.3.

It is the responsibility of Applicants to determine the allocation prior to trading in the New Shares. Applicants who sell New Shares before they receive their holding statements will do so at their own risk.

3.14 ASX listing

Application for official quotation by ASX of the New Shares offered pursuant to this Offer Document will be made.

The fact that ASX may grant official quotation to the New Shares is not to be taken in any way as an indication of the merits of the Company or the New Shares now offered for subscription.

3.15 CHESS

The Company is a participant in CHESS, for those investors who have, or wish to have, a sponsoring stockbroker. Investors who do not wish to participate through CHESS will be issuer sponsored by the Company. Because the sub-registers are electronic, ownership of securities can be transferred without having to rely upon paper documentation.

Electronic registers mean that the Company will not be issuing certificates to investors. Instead, investors will be provided with a statement (similar to a bank account statement) that sets out the number of New Shares allotted to them under this Offer Document. The notice will also advise holders of their Holder Identification Number or Security Holder Reference Number and explain, for future reference, the sale and purchase procedures under CHESS and issuer sponsorship.

Further monthly statements will be provided to holders if there have been any changes in their security holding in the Company during the preceding month.

3.16 Risk Factors

An investment in New Shares should be regarded as speculative. In addition to the general risks applicable to all investments in listed securities, there are specific risks associated with an investment in the Company which are non-exhaustive. Please refer to Section 5 for further details.

3.17 Taxation implications

The Directors do not consider it appropriate to give Shareholders advice regarding the taxation consequences of subscribing for New Shares under this Offer Document. The Company, its advisers and its officers do not accept any responsibility or liability for any such taxation consequences to Shareholders.

Shareholders should consult their professional tax adviser in connection with subscribing for New Shares under this Offer Document.

3.18 Continuous disclosure obligations

The Company is a “disclosing entity” (as defined in section 111AC of the Corporations Act) for the purposes of the Corporations Act and its Shares are enhanced disclosure securities quoted on ASX and, as such, the Company is subject to regular reporting and disclosure obligations under the Corporations Act and the Listing Rules.

Specifically, the Company is required to notify ASX of information about specific events and matters as they arise for the purposes of the ASX making that information available to the securities markets conducted by the ASX. In particular, the Company has an obligation under the ASX Listing Rules (subject to certain exceptions) to notify the ASX immediately of any information of which it is or becomes aware which a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price of value of its securities.

This Offer Document is intended to be read in conjunction with the publicly available information in relation to the Company which has been notified to ASX and does not include information that would be included in a disclosure document or which investors ought to have regard to in deciding whether to subscribe for Shares under the Offer. Investors should therefore have regard to the other publicly available information in relation to the Company before making a decision whether or not to invest.

All announcements made by the Company are available from its website <https://eviongroup.com/investor-centre/> or the ASX www.asx.com.au.

Additionally, the Company is also required to prepare and lodge with ASIC yearly and half-yearly financial statements accompanied by a directors' statement and report, and an audit report or review. These reports are released to ASX and published on the Company's and the ASX websites.

This Offer Document (including the Entitlement & Acceptance Form) and the contracts that arise from acceptance of the Applications are governed by the laws applicable in Western Australia and each Applicant submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Western Australia.

The Shortfall Offer is a separate offer made to Eligible Shareholders pursuant to this Offer Document and will remain open for up to three months following the Closing Date. The issue price for each Share to be issued under the Shortfall Offer shall be $0.023 being the price at which Shares have been offered under the Offer.

No Applicant under the Shortfall Offer has any assurance of being allocated all or any Shares applied for. The allocation of Shortfall Shares by Directors, in consultation with the Lead Manager, will be influenced by the following factors:

- (a) number of shares subscribed for by particular Applicants;
- (b) the timeliness of the bid by particular Applicants;
- (c) the Company's desire to expand its spread of institutional shareholders.

Allocations under the Shortfall Offer will also be managed to ensure that no Shareholder goes above the 20% threshold imposed by section 606 of the Corporations Act.

The Company will not be liable to any person not allocated Shares or not allocated the full amount applied for. Similarly, no Shares will be issued via the Shortfall Offer to any related parties of the Company.

If the amount raised under the Rights Issue and the Shortfall Offer is less than the maximum amount sought (being approximately $2.693 million), the Company reserves the right to seek to raise the balance with non-Eligible Shareholders under a separate placement of Shares.

5. RISK FACTORS

5.1 Introduction

The Shares offered under this Offer Document should be considered speculative because of the nature of the Company's business.

There are numerous risk factors involved with the Company's business. Some of these risks can be mitigated by the use of safeguards and appropriate systems and controls, but some are outside the control of the Company and cannot be mitigated. Accordingly, an investment in the Company carries no guarantee with respect to the payment of dividends, return of capital or price at which securities will trade.

The following is a summary of the more material matters to be considered. However, this summary is not exhaustive and potential investors should examine the contents of this Offer Document in its entirety and consult their professional advisors before deciding whether to apply for the New Shares.

Potential investors should be aware that subscribing for Shares in the Company involves a number of risks. Prospective investors should read this Offer Document in its entirety before deciding whether to apply for Shares under this Offer Document.

These risks together with other general risks applicable to all investments in listed securities not specifically referred to, may affect the value of the Shares in the future. Accordingly, an investment in the Company should be considered highly speculative. Investors should consider consulting their professional advisers before deciding whether to apply for Shares pursuant to this Offer Document.

5.2 Company specific risks

Category of Risk	Risk
Climate Risk	There are a number of climate-related factors that may affect the operations and proposed activities of the Company. The climate change risks particularly attributable to the Company include: (a) the emergence of new or expanded regulations associated with the transitioning to a lower-carbon economy and market changes related to climate change mitigation. The Company may be impacted by changes to local or international compliance regulations related to climate change mitigation efforts, or by specific taxation or penalties for carbon emissions or environmental damage. These examples sit amongst an array of possible restraints on industry that may further impact the Company and its business viability. While the Company will endeavour to manage these risks and limit any consequential impacts, there can be no guarantee that the Company will not be impacted by these occurrences; and (b) climate change may cause certain physical and environmental risks that cannot be predicted by the Company, including events such as increased severity of weather patterns and incidence of extreme weather events and longer-term physical risks such as shifting climate patterns. All these risks associated with climate change may significantly change the industry in which the Company operates.

Category of Risk	Risk
Exploration Costs	The exploration costs of the Company are based on certain assumptions with respect to the method and timing of exploration. By their nature these estimates and assumptions are subject to significant uncertainties and, accordingly, the actual costs may differ materially from these estimates and assumptions. Accordingly, no assurance can be given that the cost estimates and the underlying assumptions will be realised in practice, which may materially and adversely affect the Company's operating and financial performance and the value of the Securities. The Exploration costs may also be changed or impacted by legislative change in the countries the Company operates in and any changes that impact us may be beyond our control.
Additional Requirements for Capital	The Company's capital requirements depend on numerous factors. Subject to the Company's ability to generate income from its operations, the Company may require further financing in addition to amounts raised under the Offers. Any additional equity financing will dilute existing shareholdings, and debt financing (if available) may involve restrictions on future financing and operating activities. If the Company is unable to obtain additional financing as needed, or unable to obtain it on acceptable terms (whether or not due to the Company's circumstances or economic and share market conditions or both), it may be required to reduce the scope of its operations and scale back its exploration programmes. This could have a material adverse effect on the Company's activities and the value of the Securities.
Sovereign and Political Risk	The Company's Projects and Operations are located in the Republic of Madagascar and Indian. Mineral exploration tenure in the Republic of Madagascar is governed by Madagascan legislation. Our Joint Venture operations are in India and also aspects of our operations are subject to the laws, rules and regulations that are unique to operating an expandable graphite development plant. The laws and regulations in India are extensive and whilst the Company currently complies with all requirements to conduct its activities, environmental and other legislative change may occur without notice which may impact our operations. As such, the Company is exposed to the risks associated with operating in foreign countries. These risks may include economic, social or political instability or change, hyperinflation, currency non-convertibility or instability, and changes of law affecting foreign ownership, exchange control, exploration and mining permit licensing, export duties, investment into a foreign country and repatriation of income or return of capital, environmental protection, land access and environmental regulation, mine safety and labour relations, as well as government control over mineral properties or government regulations which require the employment of local staff or contractors or that other benefits be provided to local residents. The Company may also be hindered or prevented from enforcing its rights with respect to government instrumentalities because of the doctrine of sovereign immunity.

	Any future material adverse changes in government policies or legislation in the Republic of Madagascar that affect ownership, mineral exploration, development or mining activities may affect the viability and profitability of the Company. The legal system operating in the Republic of Madagascar is different to that in Australia and this may result in risks such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) different forms of legal redress in the courts, whether in respect of a breach of law or regulation, or an ownership dispute; (a) a higher degree of discretion on the part of governmental agencies; (b) differences in political and administrative guidance on implementing applicable rules and regulations, including, in particular, as regards local taxation and property rights; (c) different attitudes of the judiciary and court; and (d) difficulty in enforcing judgments. The commitment by local business people, government officials and agencies and the judicial system to abide by legal requirements and negotiated agreements may be more uncertain, creating particular concerns with respect to licences and agreements for business. These may be susceptible to revision or cancellation and legal redress may be uncertain or delayed. There can be no assurance that joint ventures, licences, licence approvals, authorisations, applications or other legal arrangements will not be adversely affected by the actions of government authorities or others, and the effectiveness and enforcement of such arrangements cannot be assured. The Company cannot guarantee that the tenements in which it may acquire an interest if it completes the acquisition pursuant to the Madagascan Acquisition Agreement, or any other tenements in which it has or may acquire an interest in the future, will be renewed beyond their current expiry date and there is a material risk that, in the event the holder of those tenements is unable to renew any of them beyond their current expiry date, all or part of the Company's interests in the corresponding projects may be relinquished. Further, there is no guarantee that any applications for mining or environmental tenements or other approvals or authorisations will be granted, or granted on conditions satisfactory to the Company. The Company's future operations in the Republic of Madagascar may be affected by changing political conditions and changes to laws and mining policies. The effects of these factors cannot be accurately predicted and developments may impede the operation or development of a project or even render it uneconomic. The Company's joint venture operations in India may also be affected by changing political conditions and changes to laws and mining policies. The effects of these factors cannot be accurately predicted and developments may impede the operation or development of a project or even render it uneconomic. Further details about our joint venture risk are outlined below.

Category of Risk	Risk
Development Risks	You should be aware that mineral exploration and development are high-risk undertakings, due to the high level of inherent uncertainty. There can be no assurance that exploration of the Tenements, or of any other tenements that may be acquired by the Company in the future, will result in the discovery of economic mineralisation. Even if economic mineralisation is discovered, there is no guarantee that it can be commercially exploited. The future development activities of the Company may be affected by a range of factors, including geological conditions, limitations on activities due to seasonal weather patterns, unanticipated operational and technical difficulties, industrial and environmental accidents, native title process, changing government regulations and many other factors beyond the control of the Company. The success of the Company will also depend on the Company having access to sufficient development capital, being able to maintain title to the Projects and obtaining all required approvals for its activities. In the event that exploration programmes prove to be unsuccessful this could lead to a diminution in the value of the Projects, a reduction in the cash reserves of the Company and possible relinquishment of part or all of the Projects.
Joint Venture Risk	The Company is subject to the risk that changes in the status of any of the Company's joint ventures, which currently includes the Company's 50% joint venture interest in Panthera Graphite Technologies Pvt Limited, a company currently operating in India, may adversely affect the operations and performance of the Company. There is also a risk of financial failure or default under the joint venture arrangements by a participant in any joint venture to which the Company is, or may become, a party. Any withdrawal by a joint venture party or any issues with their ability to perform the obligations due under the joint venture arrangements could have a material adverse impact on the financial position of the Company. There is also the risk of disputes arising with the Company's joint venture partners, the resolution of which could lead to delays in the Company's proposed development activities or financial loss.
Title Risk	The Company's interests in tenements in Madagascar are governed by government legislation and are evidenced by the granting of permits, licences or leases. Each permit, licence or lease is for a specific term and has annual expenditure and reporting commitments, together with other conditions requiring compliance. Consequently, the Company could lose its title to or its interest in one or more of the Tenements if licence conditions are not met or if insufficient funds are available to meet the minimum expenditure commitments. The Tenements, and other tenements in which the Company may acquire an interest, will be subject to renewal, which is usually at the discretion of the relevant authority. If a Tenement is not renewed the Company may lose the opportunity to discover mineralisation and develop the Tenement.

	The Company cannot guarantee that any of those Tenements, or any of the other Tenements in which the Company has an interest, will be renewed beyond their current expiry date and there is a material risk that, in the event the Company is unable to renew any of the Tenements beyond their current expiry date, the Company's interests in the relevant Tenements may be relinquished. Environmental approval for exploration or exploitation by the grant of an environmental tenement by the relevant Madagascar government authority is yet to be acquired in respect of Exploitation Permit PE/39751. Furthermore, a number of environmental tenements exist over the Ampanihy Project. Applications need to be made to the BCMM to include graphite as an authorised substance to which those environmental tenements apply. There can be no guarantee that environmental approval (including adding graphite as an authorised substance for the environmental tenements) will be granted in respect of that area, which may prevent the Company from carrying out exploration or other activities on it. Mada-Aust, a company to be acquired by Evion, has entered into a number of contracts with third parties affecting certain areas of the tenements that comprise the Madagascar Projects, known as amodiation contracts. Under those amodiation contracts, the third parties have been granted exclusive rights to prospect, explore, extract and/ or exploit certain mineral resources. The tenements affected by amodiation contracts are PE/5394, PE/25093, PE/25094, PR/25605 and PR/25606. Mada-Aust does not have the rights to prospect, explore, extract and exploit certain mineral resources on those tenements to the extent that exclusive rights have been granted under an amodiation contract. Mada-Aust is in the process of negotiating to discharge certain of the amodiation contracts or to remove certain tenements from the amodiation contracts. Under Madagascar law, the holder of a mining tenement does not have an automatic right in the land the subject of that tenement and must therefore enter into a lease agreement with the owners of the land. If land is held in the name of the Madagascar state, there is no objection by the state to entry into a lease agreement on ordinary terms and conditions. If, however, the land the subject of any of the tenements it owns in Madagascar is not held in the name of the Madagascar state, Mada-Aust will need to negotiate a lease with the private landholders.
New Projects and Acquisitions	The Company will identify and evaluate additional projects and assets in the resources sector in Australia and/or overseas. If any are considered by the Board to have the potential to add Shareholder value, the Company will seek to acquire them by way of direct project acquisition, farm in, joint venture or direct equity in the project owners. There can be no guarantee that any proposed acquisition will be secured, completed or successful. If the proposed acquisition is not completed, monies advanced or due diligence costs may not be recoverable, which may have a material adverse effect on the Company. This could affect the growth of the Company. If the Company is able to acquire such projects, there is a risk that if those projects do not perform to expectations, such adverse performance will be detrimental to the performance of the Company and therefore the value of Securities and returns delivered to Shareholders

	If the Company identifies and proceeds with the acquisition of an additional resource project or asset, the Company may be required to re-comply with Chapters 1 and 2 of the Listing Rules. This will cause the Shares to be suspended from Quotation, in which event the Shares cannot trade on the ASX during this period. The length of any suspension will be subject to the requirements of the ASX and the time needed by the Company to comply with those requirements.
Risk of Forfeiture of Partly Paid Shares	As the Company is a 'no liability' company, a holder of a Partly Paid Share is not under any contractual obligation to pay a call in respect of the unpaid amount of a Partly Paid Share. However, if a call on a Partly Paid Share is not paid within the period specified in the call (subject to the Constitution), the Partly Paid Share will be liable to forfeiture and may be sold by the Company via public auction in accordance with the Constitution. As set out in the Constitution, the proceeds of the sale of such forfeited Partly Paid Shares will be applied first to the expenses of the auction, then to any expenses incurred in respect of the forfeiture and finally to calls on the Partly Paid Shares that are due and unpaid. The balance of the proceeds (if any) will be paid to the registered holder whose Partly Paid Shares were forfeited and sold. In the event only a portion of a call is paid in respect of Partly Paid Shares, the amount of the call paid will be applied to the Partly Paid Shares held by that Partly Paid Shareholder sequentially, and only those Partly Paid Shares in respect of which the call is not satisfied in full after the amount paid is so applied will be liable for forfeiture.

5.3 Industry specific risks

Category of Risk	Risk
Operating Risk	The current and future operations of the Company in Madagascar, including exploration, project appraisal and possible production activities, may be affected by various factors that can limit or prevent such activities. These factors may include failure to locate or identify mineral deposits, failure to achieve predicted grades in exploration and mining, operational and technical difficulties encountered in surveying, drilling, other exploration activities and/or production activities, difficulties in commissioning and operating plant and equipment, electrical or mechanical failure or plant breakdown, unanticipated metallurgical problems that may affect extraction costs, adverse weather conditions, industrial and environmental accidents, industrial disputes and unexpected shortages or increases in the costs of skilled labour, consumables, spare parts, plant and equipment. The current and future operations of the joint venture operations in India may be materially impacted by the operational effectiveness, efficiency and conduct of its joint venture partner. Under the terms of the Company's JV agreement, its JV partner retains the rights as JV operational manager and the performance of the JV may be impacted by the ability of the JV partner to deliver on the company production and financial projections.
Commercial Risk	The mining industry is competitive and there is no assurance that, even if commercial quantities of minerals are discovered by the Company on the Projects or future projects it may acquire an interest in, a profitable market will exist for sales of such minerals.

	There can be no assurance that the quality of any such minerals will be such that they can be mined economically. In relation to the Company's JV operations, the JV is exposed to significant risk from current and potential new market competitors and this is a significant risk for the JV to manage and could have a material financial impact on the Company.
Environmental Risk	The operations in India and proposed activities of the Company are currently subject to Indian and Madagascan laws and regulations concerning the environment. As with most industrial operations and exploration projects and mining operations, the Company's activities are expected to have an impact on the environment, particularly if advanced exploration or mine development proceeds. Future legislation and regulations governing exploration, development and possible production may impose significant environmental obligations on the Company. The cost and complexity of complying with the applicable environmental laws and regulations may prevent the Company from being able to develop potential economically viable mineral deposits. The Company may require approval from the relevant authorities before it can undertake activities that are likely to impact the environment. Failure to obtain such approvals or to obtain them on terms acceptable to the Company may prevent the Company from undertaking its desired activities. The Company is unable to predict the effect of additional environmental laws and regulations that may be adopted in the future, including whether any such laws or regulations would materially increase the Company's cost of doing business or affect its operations in any area. There can be no assurances that new environmental laws, regulations or stricter enforcement policies, once implemented, will not oblige the Company to incur significant expenses and undertake significant investments in such respect, which could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations.
Access Infrastructure	to If the Company progresses to production in Madagascar there is no guarantee that appropriate and affordable road, rail and/or port capacity will be available, which could have an adverse effect on the Company. In the event of production, the Company will also require the use of both power and water infrastructure. In the event of high demand for, and limited access to, power and water, there is a risk that the Company may not be able to procure such access, which could have an adverse effect on the Company.

5.4 General Risks

Category of Risk	Risk
Reliance of Key Personnel	The Company's management and key personnel are responsible for overseeing the day-to-day operations of the Company. The Company is aware of the need for sufficient management to properly supervise exploration and, if exploration is successful, the development of the Projects. As the Projects and the Company's prospects progress and develop, the Board will continually monitor the management requirements in the Company and look to employ or engage additional personnel when and where appropriate, to ensure proper management of the Company projects. However, there is a risk that the Company may not be able to secure personnel with the relevant experience at the appropriate time, which may impact on the Company's ability to complete all of its planned exploration programmes within the expected timetable. Furthermore, you should be aware that no assurance can be given that there will be no adverse effect on the Company if one or more of its existing Directors or management personnel cease their employment or engagement with the Company. The Company's JV operations in India are managed by a separate management and key personnel team and they are responsible largely for the day-to day operations of the JV. There is risk that the JV could be material impacted by any of the management or key personnel in India ceasing their employment and the JV does have strategies in place to manage this risk.
Additional requirements for capital	The Company's capital requirements depend on numerous factors. Subject to the Company's ability to generate income from its Joint Venture operations, the Company may require further financing in addition to amounts raised under the Offers. Any additional equity financing will dilute existing shareholdings, and debt financing (if available) may involve restrictions on future financing and operating activities. If the Company is unable to obtain additional financing as needed, or unable to obtain it on acceptable terms (whether or not due to the Company's circumstances or economic and share market conditions or both), it may be required to reduce the scope of its operations and scale back its exploration programmes. This could have a material adverse effect on the Company's activities and the value of the Securities.
Commodity Volatility Price and Exchange Rate Risks	If the Company achieves success leading to mineral production in Madagascar, the revenue it will derive through the sale of graphite or any other minerals it may discover exposes the potential income of the Company to commodity price and exchange rate risks. Commodity prices fluctuate and are affected by many factors beyond the control of the Company. Such factors include supply and demand fluctuations for precious and base metals, technological advancements, forward-selling activities and other macro-economic factors such as inflation expectations, interest rates and general global economic conditions. Furthermore, international prices of various commodities are denominated in United States dollars, whereas the income and expenditure of the Company are and will be taken into account in Australian currency. This exposes the Company to the fluctuations and volatility of the rate of exchange between the

	United States dollar, the Australian dollar and the Madagascar Ariary, as determined in international markets. If the price of commodities declines this could have an adverse effect on the Company's exploration, development and possible production activities, and its ability to fund these activities, which may no longer be profitable. The same commodity price risks apply to the Company's JV operations in India and the viability of the JV could be materially impacted by changes in commodity prices and exchange fluctuations.
Insurance Risks	Exploration for and development of minerals involves hazards and risks that could result in the Company incurring losses or liabilities that could arise from its operations. If the Company incurs losses or liabilities that are not covered by its insurance policies, the funds available for exploration and development will be reduced and the value and/or title to the Company's assets may be at risk. The Company intends to insure its operations in accordance with industry practice. However, in certain circumstances the Company's insurance may not be of a nature or level to provide adequate insurance cover. The occurrence of an event that is not covered or fully covered by insurance could have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition and results of the Company. Insurance against all risks associated with mining exploration and production is not always available and, where it is, the costs can be prohibitive or not adequate to cover all claims.
General Economic Conditions	General economic conditions, the introduction of tax reform, new legislation, the general level of activity within the resources industry, movements in interest and inflation rates and currency exchange rates may have an adverse effect on the Company's Joint Venture operations in India and its exploration, development and possible production activities in Madagascar, as well as on its ability to fund those activities both in Australia and overseas.
Share Market Conditions	Share market conditions may affect the value of the Company's quoted securities regardless of the Company's operating performance. Share market conditions are affected by many factors, such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) general economic outlook; (b) the introduction of tax reform or other new legislation (such as royalties); (c) interest rates and inflation rates; (d) currency fluctuations; (e) changes in investor sentiment toward particular market sectors in Australia and/or overseas (such as the exploration industry or graphite sector within that industry); (f) the demand for, and supply of, capital, and (g) terrorism or other hostilities. The market price of the Securities can fall as well as rise and may be subject to varied and unpredictable influences on the market for equities in general and resource exploration stocks in particular. Such influences are beyond the Company's control and unrelated to the Company's performance. Neither the Company nor the Directors warrant the future performance of

	the Company or the Securities and subsequently any return on an investment in the Company. Shareholders who decide to sell their Securities after the Company is admitted to the Official List may not receive the entire amount of their original investment.
Volatility in Global Credit and Investment Markets	Global credit, commodity and investment markets have recently experienced a high degree of uncertainty and volatility. The factors that led to this situation have been outside the control of the Company and may continue for some time, resulting in continued volatility and uncertainty in world stock markets (including the ASX). This may impact the price at which the Shares trade, regardless of operating performance, and affect the Company's ability to raise additional equity and/or debt to achieve its objectives, if required.
Government and Legal Risk	The introduction of new legislation or amendments to existing legislation by governments (including the introduction of tax reform), developments in existing common law or the respective interpretation of the legal requirements in any of the legal jurisdictions that govern the Company's operations or contractual obligations could impact adversely on the assets, operations and ultimately the financial performance of the Company and its Securities. The same adverse impact could result from the introduction of new government policy or amendments to existing government policy.
Unforeseen Expenditure Risk	Expenditure that has not been considered in this document may need to be incurred. Although the Company is not aware of any such additional expenditure requirements, if such expenditure is subsequently incurred this may adversely affect the expenditure proposals and activities of the Company, as the Company may be required to reduce the scope of its operations and scale back its exploration programmes. This could have a material adverse effect on the Company's activities and the value of the Securities.
Competition	The industry in which the Company is currently involved is subject to domestic and global competition. Although the Company will undertake all reasonable due diligence in its business decisions and operations, the Company will have no influence or control over the activities or actions of its competitors, which activities or actions may, positively or negatively, affect the operating and financial performance of the Company's projects and business.
Force Majeure	The Company's existing Joint Venture operations, Projects or projects acquired in the future may be adversely affected by risks outside the control of the Company including labour unrest, civil disorder, war, subversive activities or sabotage, fires, floods, explosions or other catastrophes, epidemics or quarantine restrictions.
Dilution	In the future, the Company may elect to issue Shares or engage in capital raisings to fund operations and growth, for investments or acquisitions that the Company may decide to undertake, to repay debt or for any other reason the Board may determine at the relevant time. While the Company will be subject to the constraints of the ASX Listing Rules regarding the percentage of its capital that it is able to issue within a 12-month period (other than where exceptions apply), Shareholder interests may be diluted as a result of such issues of Shares or other securities.
Taxation	The acquisition and disposal of Shares will have tax consequences, which will differ depending on the individual

Category of Risk	Risk
	financial affairs of each investor. All potential investors in the Company are urged to obtain independent financial advice about the consequences of acquiring Shares from a taxation viewpoint and generally. To the maximum extent permitted by law, the Company, its officers and each of their respective advisers accept no liability and responsibility with respect to the taxation consequences of subscribing for Shares under this Prospectus.
Litigation	The Company is exposed to possible litigation risks including native title claims, tenure disputes, environmental claims, occupational health and safety claims and employee claims. Further, the Company may be involved in disputes with other parties in the future which may result in litigation. Any such claim or dispute if proven, may impact adversely on the Company's operations, reputation, financial performance and financial position. The Company is not currently engaged in any litigation.
Market conditions	Share market conditions may affect the value of the Company's quoted securities regardless of the Company's operating performance. Share market conditions are affected by many factors such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) general economic outlook; (b) introduction of tax reform or other new legislation; (c) interest rates and inflation rates; (d) changes in investor sentiment toward particular market sectors; (e) the demand for, and supply of, capital; and (f) terrorism or other hostilities (including current evolving conflict between Ukraine and Russia and Israel and Palestine). The market price of securities can fall as well as rise and may be subject to varied and unpredictable influences on the market for equities. Neither the Company nor the Directors warrant the future performance of the Company or any return on an investment in the Company.
