Applications for New Options offered pursuant to this Prospectus can only be made by an Application Form.

This Prospectus is a transaction specific prospectus for an offer of options to acquire continuously quoted securities (as defined in the Corporations Act) and has been prepared in accordance with section 713 of the Corporations Act. It does not contain the same level of disclosure as an initial public offering prospectus and is only required to contain information in relation to the effect of the issue of securities on a company and the rights attaching to the securities. It is not necessary to include general information in relation to all of the assets and liabilities, financial position, profits and losses or prospects of the issuing company.

Representations contained in this Prospectus are made taking into account that the Company is a disclosing entity for the purposes of the Corporations Act and certain matters are publicly available information or may reasonably be expected to be known to investors and professional advisers whom prospective investors may consult.

No Investment Advice

The information contained in this Prospectus is not financial product advice or investment advice and does not take into account your financial or investment objectives, financial situation or particular needs (including financial or taxation issues). Forward-looking statements

This Prospectus contains forward-looking statements which are identified by words such as 'may', 'could', 'believes', 'estimates', 'targets', 'expects', or 'intends' and other similar words that involve risks and uncertainties.

These statements are based on an assessment of present economic and operating conditions, and on a number of assumptions regarding future events and actions that, as at the date of this Prospectus, are expected to take place.

Such forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties, assumptions and other important factors, many of which are beyond the control of the Company, the Directors and the Company's management.

The Company cannot and does not give any assurance that the results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements contained in this Prospectus will actually occur and investors are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements.

The Company has no intention to update or revise forward-looking statements, or to publish prospective financial information in the future, regardless of whether new information, future events or any other factors affect the information contained in this Prospectus, except where required by law.

These forward-looking statements are subject to various risk factors that could cause the Company's actual results to differ materially from the results expressed or anticipated in these statements. These risk factors are set out in section 5.

Overseas shareholders

These Offers do not, and are not intended to, constitute an offer in any place or jurisdiction in which, or to any person to whom, it would not be lawful to make such an offer or to issue this Prospectus.

It is not practicable for the Company to comply with the securities laws of overseas jurisdictions having regard to the number of overseas Shareholders, the number and value of Shares these Shareholders would be offered and the cost of complying with regulatory requirements in each relevant jurisdiction. Accordingly, the Offers are not being extended and New Options will not be issued to persons with a registered address which is outside Australia, New Zealand or Singapore except to the extent set out in section 2.8.

For further information on overseas investors please refer to section 2.7.

Continuous disclosure obligations

The Company is a "disclosing entity" (as defined in section 111AC of the Corporations Act) for the purposes of section 713 of the Corporations Act and, as such, is subject to regular reporting and disclosure obligations. Specifically, like all listed companies, the Company is required to continuously disclose any information it has to the market which a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or the value of the New Options.

This Prospectus is intended to be read in conjunction with the publicly available information in relation to the Company which has been notified to ASX and does not include all of the information that would be included in a prospectus for an initial public offering of securities in an entity that is not already listed on a stock exchange. Investors should therefore have regard to the other publicly available information in relation to the Company before making a decision whether or not to invest.

Having taken such precautions and having made such enquiries as are reasonable, the Company believes that it has complied with the general and specific requirements of ASX as applicable from time to time throughout the three months before the issue of this Prospectus which required the Company to notify ASX of information about specified events or matters as they arise for the purpose of ASX making that information available to the stock market conducted by ASX.

Please refer to section 6.2 for further details.

Company Website

No documents or other information available on the Company's website is incorporated into this Prospectus by reference.

Financial forecasts

The Directors have considered the matters set out in ASIC Regulatory Guide 170 and believe that they do not have a reasonable basis to forecast future earnings on the basis that the operations of the Company are inherently uncertain. Accordingly, any forecast or projection information would contain such a broad range of potential outcomes and possibilities that it is not possible to prepare a reliable best estimate forecast or projection.

Clearing House Electronic Sub-Register System (CHES) and Issuer Sponsorship

The Company will apply to participate in CHES, for those investors who have, or wish to have, a sponsoring stockbroker. Investors who do not wish to participate through CHES will be issuer sponsored by the Company.

Electronic sub-registers mean that the Company will not be issuing certificates to investors. Instead, investors will be provided with statements (similar to a bank account statement) that set out the number of New Options issued to them under this Prospectus. The notice will also advise holders of their Holder Identification Number or Security Holder Reference Number and explain, for future reference, the sale and purchase procedures under CHES and issuer sponsorship.

Electronic sub-registers also mean ownership of securities can be transferred without having to rely upon paper documentation. Further monthly statements will be provided to holders if there have been any changes in their security holding in the Company during the preceding month.

Photographs used in this Prospectus which do not have descriptions are for illustration only and should not be interpreted to mean that any person shown endorses the Prospectus or its contents or that the assets shown in them are owned by the Company. The Directors may from time to time pay to the Shareholders any interim dividends as they may determine. No dividend shall carry interest as against the Company. The Directors may set aside out of the profits of the Company any amounts that they may determine as reserves, to be applied at the discretion of the Directors, for any purpose for which the profits of the Company may be properly applied.

Subject to the ASX Listing Rules and the Corporations Act, the Company may, by resolution of the Directors, implement a dividend reinvestment plan on such terms and conditions as the Directors think fit and which provides for any dividend which the Directors may declare from time to time payable on Shares which are participating Shares in the dividend reinvestment plan, less any amount which the Company shall either pursuant to the Constitution or any law be entitled or obliged to retain, be applied by the Company to the payment of the subscription price of Shares.

(d) Winding-up

If the Company is wound up, the liquidator may, with the authority of a special resolution, divide among the Shareholders in kind the whole or any part of the property of the Company, and may for that purpose set such value as he considers fair upon any property to be so divided, and may determine how the division is to be carried out as between the Shareholders or different classes of Shareholders.

The liquidator may, with the authority of a special resolution, vest the whole or any part of any such property in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of the contributories as the liquidator thinks fit, but so that no Shareholder is compelled to accept any shares or other securities in respect of which there is any liability.

(e) Shareholder liability

As the Shares issued will be fully paid shares, they will not be subject to any calls for money by the Directors and will therefore not become liable for forfeiture.

(f) Transfer of shares

Generally, shares in the Company are freely transferable, subject to formal requirements, the registration of the transfer not resulting in a contravention of or failure to observe the provisions of a law of Australia and the transfer not being in breach of the Corporations Act and the ASX Listing Rules.

(g) Future increase in capital

The issue of any new Shares is under the control of the Directors of the Company. Subject to restrictions on the issue or grant of securities contained in the ASX Listing Rules, the Constitution and the Corporations Act (and without affecting any special right previously conferred on the holder of an existing share or class of shares), the Directors may issue Shares as they shall, in their absolute discretion, determine.

(h) Variation of rights

Under section 246B of the Corporations Act, the Company may, with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a meeting of Shareholders vary or abrogate the rights attaching to Shares.

If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class), whether or not the Company is being wound up, may be varied or abrogated with the consent in writing of the holders of three quarters of the issued shares of that class, or if authorised by a special resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holders of the shares of that class.

(i) Alteration of constitution

In accordance with the Corporations Act, the Constitution can only be amended by a special resolution passed by at least three quarters of Shareholders present and voting at the general meeting. In addition, at least 28 days written notice specifying the intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution must be given.

Subject to paragraph (i), the amount payable upon exercise of each New Option will be $0.05 (Exercise Price).

(c) Expiry Date

Each New Option will expire at 5:00pm (WST) on the date that is three (3) years from the date on which Options in this class are first issued (Expiry Date). A New Option not exercised before the Expiry Date will automatically lapse on the Expiry Date.

(d) Exercise Period

The New Options are exercisable at any time on or prior to the Expiry Date (Exercise Period).

(f) Exercise Date

An Exercise Notice is only effective on and from the later of the date of receipt of the Exercise Notice and the date of receipt of the payment of the Exercise Price for each New Option being exercised in cleared funds (Exercise Date).

(g) Timing of issue of Shares on exercise

Within 5 Business Days after the Exercise Date, the Company will:

- (i) issue the number of Shares required under these terms and conditions in respect of the number of New Options specified in the Exercise Notice and for which cleared funds have been received by the Company;
- (ii) if required, give ASX a notice that complies with section 708A(5)(e) of the Corporations Act, or, if the Company is unable to issue such a notice, lodge with ASIC a prospectus prepared in accordance with the Corporations Act and do all such things necessary to satisfy section 708A(11) of the Corporations Act to ensure that an offer for sale of the Shares does not require disclosure to investors; and
- (iii) if admitted to the official list of ASX at the time, apply for official quotation on ASX of Shares issued pursuant to the exercise of the New Options.

If a notice delivered under (g)(ii) for any reason is not effective to ensure that an offer for sale of the Shares does not require disclosure to investors, the Company must, no later than 20 Business Days after becoming aware of such notice being ineffective, lodge with ASIC a prospectus prepared in accordance with the Corporations Act and do all such things necessary to satisfy section 708A(11) of the Corporations Act to ensure that an offer for sale of the Shares does not require disclosure to investors.

(h) Shares issued on exercise

Shares issued on exercise of the New Options rank equally with the then issued shares of the Company.

(i) Reorganisation

If there is a reorganisation of the issued share capital of the Company (including any subdivision, consolidation, reduction, return or cancellation of such issued capital of the Company), the rights of the holder will be changed to the extent necessary to comply with the ASX Listing Rules applicable to a reorganisation of capital at the time of the reorganisation.

(j) Participation in new issues

There are no participation rights or entitlements inherent in the New Options and holders will not be entitled to participate in new issues of capital offered to Shareholders during the currency of the New Options without exercising the New Options.

(k) Change in exercise price

A New Option does not confer the right to a change in Exercise Price or a change in the number of underlying securities over which the New Option can be exercised.

(l) Transferability

The New Options are transferable subject to any restriction or escrow arrangements imposed by ASX or under applicable Australian securities laws.

5. RISK FACTORS

5.1 Introduction

The New Options offered under this Prospectus should be considered as highly speculative and an investment in the Company is not risk free.

The Directors strongly recommend that prospective investors consider the risk factors set out in this section 5, together with all other information contained in this Prospectus.

The future performance of the Company and the value of its Shares may be influenced by a range of factors, many of which are largely beyond the control of the Company and the Directors. The key risks associated with the Company's business, the industry in which it operates and general risks applicable to all investments in listed securities and financial markets generally are described below.

The risks factors set out in this section 5, or other risk factors not specifically referred to, may have a materially adverse impact on the performance of the Company and the value of its Shares. This section 5 is not intended to provide an exhaustive list of the risk factors to which the Company is exposed.

Before determining whether to invest in the Company you should ensure that you have a sufficient understanding of the risks described in this section 5 and all of the other information set out in this Prospectus and consider whether an investment in the Company is suitable for you, taking into account your objectives, financial situation and needs.

If you do not understand any matters contained in this Prospectus or have any queries about whether to invest in the Company, you should consult your accountant, financial adviser, stockbroker, lawyer or other professional adviser.

5.2 Company specific

CATEGORY OF RISK	RISK
Climate Risk	There are a number of climate-related factors that may affect the operations and proposed activities of the Company. The climate change risks particularly attributable to the Company include: (a) the emergence of new or expanded regulations associated with the transitioning to a lower-carbon economy and market changes related to climate change mitigation. The Company may be impacted by changes to local or international compliance regulations related to climate change mitigation efforts, or by specific taxation or penalties for carbon emissions or environmental damage. These examples sit amongst an array of possible restraints on industry that may further impact the Company and its business viability. While the Company will endeavour to manage these risks and limit any consequential impacts, there can be no guarantee that the Company will not be impacted by these occurrences; and (b) climate change may cause certain physical and environmental risks that cannot be predicted by the Company, including events such as increased severity of weather patterns and incidence of extreme weather events and longer-term physical risks such as shifting climate patterns. All these risks associated with climate change may significantly change the industry in which the Company operates.

CATEGORY OF RISK	RISK
Exploration Costs	The exploration costs of the Company are based on certain assumptions with respect to the method and timing of exploration. By their nature these estimates and assumptions are subject to significant uncertainties and, accordingly, the actual costs may differ materially from these estimates and assumptions. Accordingly, no assurance can be given that the cost estimates and the underlying assumptions will be realised in practice, which may materially and adversely affect the Company's operating and financial performance and the value of the Securities. The Exploration costs may also be changed or impacted by legislative change in the countries the Company operates in and any changes that impact us may be beyond our control.
Sovereign and Political Risk	The Company's Projects and Operations are located in the Republic of Madagascar, India and the United States. Mineral exploration tenure in the Republic of Madagascar is governed by Madagascan legislation, and mineral exploration tenure in the United States is governed by the legislation in the state of Nevada. Our Joint Venture operations are in India and also aspects of our operations are subject to the laws, rules and regulations that are unique to operating an expandable graphite development plant. The laws and regulations in India are extensive and whilst the Company currently complies with all requirements to conduct its activities, environmental and other legislative change may occur without notice which may impact our operations. As such, the Company is exposed to the risks associated with operating in foreign countries. These risks may include economic, social or political instability or change, hyperinflation, currency non-convertibility or instability, and changes of law affecting foreign ownership, exchange control, exploration and mining permit licensing, export duties, investment into a foreign country and repatriation of income or return of capital, environmental protection, land access and environmental regulation, mine safety and labour relations, as well as government control over mineral properties or government regulations which require the employment of local staff or contractors or that other benefits be provided to local residents. The Company may also be hindered or prevented from enforcing its rights with respect to government instrumentalities because of the doctrine of sovereign immunity. Any future material adverse changes in government policies or legislation in the Republic of Madagascar that affect ownership, mineral exploration, development or mining activities may affect the viability and profitability of the Company. The legal system operating in the Republic of Madagascar is different to that in Australia and this may result in risks such as: (a) different forms of legal redress in the courts, whether in respect of a breach of law or regulation, or an ownership dispute; (b) a higher degree of discretion on the part of governmental agencies;

	(c) differences in political and administrative guidance on implementing applicable rules and regulations, including, in particular, as regards local taxation and property rights; (d) different attitudes of the judiciary and court; and (e) difficulty in enforcing judgments. The commitment by local business people, government officials and agencies and the judicial system to abide by legal requirements and negotiated agreements may be more uncertain, creating particular concerns with respect to licences and agreements for business. These may be susceptible to revision or cancellation and legal redress may be uncertain or delayed. There can be no assurance that joint ventures, licences, licence approvals, authorisations, applications or other legal arrangements will not be adversely affected by the actions of government authorities or others, and the effectiveness and enforcement of such arrangements cannot be assured. The Company cannot guarantee that the tenements in which it may acquire an interest if it completes the acquisition pursuant to the Madagascar Acquisition Agreement, or any other tenements in which it has or may acquire an interest in the future, will be renewed beyond their current expiry date and there is a material risk that, in the event the holder of those tenements is unable to renew any of them beyond their current expiry date, all or part of the Company's interests in the corresponding projects may be relinquished. Further, there is no guarantee that any applications for mining or environmental tenements or other approvals or authorisations will be granted, or granted on conditions satisfactory to the Company. The Company's future operations in the Republic of Madagascar may be affected by changing political conditions and changes to laws and mining policies. The effects of these factors cannot be accurately predicted and developments may impede the operation or development of a project or even render it uneconomic. The Company's joint venture operations in India may also be affected by changing political conditions and changes to laws and mining policies. The effects of these factors cannot be accurately predicted and developments may impede the operation or development of a project or even render it uneconomic. Further details about our joint venture risk are outlined below. The Company's Carp Fluorspar Project the Company secured an option to acquire in May 2026 in the United States may also be affected by changing political conditions and changes to laws and mining policies. The effects of these factors cannot be accurately predicted and developments may impede the operation or development of a project or even render it uneconomic.
Development Risks	You should be aware that mineral exploration and development are high-risk undertakings, due to the high level of inherent uncertainty. There can be no assurance that exploration of the Tenements, or of any other tenements that may be acquired by the Company in the future, will result in the discovery of economic mineralisation. Even if economic mineralisation is discovered, there is no guarantee that it can be commercially exploited. The future development activities of the Company may be affected by a range of factors, including geological conditions, limitations on activities due to seasonal weather patterns, unanticipated operational and technical difficulties, industrial and environmental accidents, native title process, changing government regulations and many other factors beyond the control of the Company. The success of the Company will also depend on the Company having access to sufficient development capital, being able to maintain title to the Projects and obtaining all required approvals for its activities. In the event that exploration programmes prove to be unsuccessful this could lead to a diminution in the value of the Projects, a reduction in the cash reserves of the Company and possible relinquishment of part or all of the Projects.

Joint Venture Risk	The Company is subject to the risk that changes in the status of any of the Company's joint ventures, which currently includes the Company's 50% joint venture interest in Panthera Graphite Technologies Pty Limited, a company currently operating in India, may adversely affect the operations and performance of the Company. There is also a risk of financial failure or default under the joint venture arrangements by a participant in any joint venture to which the Company is, or may become, a party. Any withdrawal by a joint venture party or any issues with their ability to perform the obligations due under the joint venture arrangements could have a material adverse impact on the financial position of the Company. There is also the risk of disputes arising with the Company's joint venture partners, the resolution of which could lead to delays in the Company's proposed development activities or financial loss.
Title Risk	The Company's interests in tenements in Madagascar are governed by government legislation and are evidenced by the granting of permits, licences or leases. Each permit, licence or lease is for a specific term and has annual expenditure and reporting commitments, together with other conditions requiring compliance. Consequently, the Company could lose its title to or its interest in one or more of the Tenements if licence conditions are not met or if insufficient funds are available to meet the minimum expenditure commitments. The Tenements, and other tenements in which the Company may acquire an interest, will be subject to renewal, which is usually at the discretion of the relevant authority. If a Tenement is not renewed the Company may lose the opportunity to discover mineralisation and develop the Tenement. The Company cannot guarantee that any of those Tenements, or any of the other Tenements in which the Company has an interest, will be renewed beyond their current expiry date and there is a material risk that, in the event the Company is unable to renew any of the Tenements beyond their current expiry date, the Company's interests in the relevant Tenements may be relinquished. Environmental approval for exploration or exploitation by the grant of an environmental tenement by the relevant Madagascan government authority is yet to be acquired in respect of Exploitation Permit PE/39751. Furthermore, a number of environmental tenements exist over the Ampanihy Project. Applications need to be made to the BCMM to include graphite as an authorised substance to which those environmental tenements apply. There can be no guarantee that environmental approval (including adding graphite as an authorised substance for the environmental tenements) will be granted in respect of that area, which may prevent the Company from carrying out exploration or other activities on it. Mada-Aust, a company to be acquired by Evion, has entered into a number of contracts with third parties affecting certain areas of the tenements that comprise the Madagascar Projects, known as amodiation contracts. Under those amodiation contracts, the third parties have been granted exclusive rights to prospect, explore, extract and/ or exploit certain mineral resources. The tenements affected by amodiation contracts are PE/5394, PE/25093, PE/25094, PR/25605 and PR/25606. Mada-Aust does not have the rights to prospect, explore, extract and exploit certain mineral resources on those tenements to the extent that exclusive rights have been granted under an amodiation contract. Mada-Aust is in the process of negotiating to discharge certain of the amodiation contracts or to remove certain tenements from the amodiation contracts. Under Madagascar law, the holder of a mining tenement does not have an automatic right in the land the subject of that tenement and must therefore enter into a lease agreement with the owners of the land. If land is held in the name of the Madagascar state, there is no objection by the state to entry into a lease agreement on ordinary terms and conditions. If, however, the land the subject of any of the tenements it owns in Madagascar is not held in the name of the Madagascar state, Mada-Aust will need to negotiate a lease with the private landholders.

New Project and Acquisition	As announced to the ASX on 12 May 2026, the Company entered into a share sale and purchase agreement to acquire Carp Fluorspar Pty Ltd, which pursuant to an option agreement with Globex Nevada Inc. holds an option over a 100% interest in the Carp Fluorspar Project on a predominately deferred consideration basis: (a) Initial consideration is limited to US$150,000 cash and an issue of shares in the Company equivalent to US$250,000 at the time of issue, with the shares to be subject to shareholder approval. (b) Deferred payments totalling US$1.46 million in cash and US$1.75 million in Shares are progressively payable over the next 4 years. (c) Exercise of the option will follow satisfaction of all the above payments and expenditure commitments. (d) Upon exercise of the option, Globex Nevada Inc. will be granted a 3% royalty calculated on the gross revenue derived from the Carp Fluorspar Project. The Board will identify and evaluate additional projects and assets in the resources sector in Australia and/or overseas. If any are considered by the Board to have the potential to add Shareholder value, the Company will seek to acquire them by way of direct project acquisition, farm in, joint venture or direct equity in the project owners.

	There can be no guarantee that any proposed acquisition will be secured, completed or successful. If the proposed acquisition is not completed, monies advanced or due diligence costs may not be recoverable, which may have a material adverse effect on the Company. This could affect the growth of the Company. If the Company is able to acquire such projects, there is a risk that if those projects do not perform to expectations, such adverse performance will be detrimental to the performance of the Company and therefore the value of Securities and returns delivered to Shareholders If the Company identifies and proceeds with the acquisition of an additional resource project or asset, the Company may be required to re-comply with Chapters 1 and 2 of the Listing Rules. This will cause the Shares to be suspended from Quotation, in which event the Shares cannot trade on the ASX during this period. The length of any suspension will be subject to the requirements of the ASX and the time needed by the Company to comply with those requirements.
Risk of Forfeiture of Partly Paid Shares	As the Company is a 'no liability' company, a holder of a Partly Paid Share is not under any contractual obligation to pay a call in respect of the unpaid amount of a Partly Paid Share. However, if a call on a Partly Paid Share is not paid within the period specified in the call (subject to the Constitution), the Partly Paid Share will be liable to forfeiture and may be sold by the Company via public auction in accordance with the Constitution. As set out in the Constitution, the proceeds of the sale of such forfeited Partly Paid Shares will be applied first to the expenses of the auction, then to any expenses incurred in respect of the forfeiture and finally to calls on the Partly Paid Shares that are due and unpaid. The balance of the proceeds (if any) will be paid to the registered holder whose Partly Paid Shares were forfeited and sold. In the event only a portion of a call is paid in respect of Partly Paid Shares, the amount of the call paid will be applied to the Partly Paid Shares held by that Partly Paid Shareholder sequentially, and only those Partly Paid Shares in respect of which the call is not satisfied in full after the amount paid is so applied will be liable for forfeiture.

5.3 Industry specific risks

CATEGORY OF RISK	RISK
Operating Risk	The current and future operations of the Company in Madagascar, including exploration, project appraisal and possible production activities, may be affected by various factors that can limit or prevent such activities. These factors may include failure to locate or identify mineral deposits, failure to achieve predicted grades in exploration and mining, operational and technical difficulties encountered in surveying, drilling, other exploration activities and/or production activities, difficulties in commissioning and operating plant and equipment, electrical or mechanical failure or plant breakdown, unanticipated metallurgical problems that may affect extraction costs, adverse weather conditions, industrial and environmental accidents, industrial disputes and unexpected shortages or increases in the costs of skilled labour, consumables, spare parts, plant and equipment. The current and future operations of the joint venture operations in India may be materially impacted by the operational effectiveness, efficiency and conduct of its joint venture partner. Under the terms of the Company's JV agreement, its JV partner retains the rights as JV operational manager and the performance of the JV may be impacted by the ability of the JV partner to deliver on the company production and financial projections.

Commercial Risk	The mining industry is competitive and there is no assurance that, even if commercial quantities of minerals are discovered by the Company on the Projects or future projects it may acquire an interest in, a profitable market will exist for sales of such minerals. There can be no assurance that the quality of any such minerals will be such that they can be mined economically. In relation to the Company's JV operations, the JV is exposed to significant risk from current and potential new market competitors and this is a significant risk for the JV to manage to manage and could have a material financial impact on the Company.
Environmental Risk	The operations in India and proposed activities of the Company are currently subject to Indian, Madagascan and United States laws and regulations concerning the environment. As with most industrial operations and exploration projects and mining operations, the Company's activities are expected to have an impact on the environment, particularly if advanced exploration or mine development proceeds. Future legislation and regulations governing exploration, development and possible production may impose significant environmental obligations on the Company. The cost and complexity of complying with the applicable environmental laws and regulations may prevent the Company from being able to develop potential economically viable mineral deposits. The Company may require approval from the relevant authorities before it can undertake activities that are likely to impact the environment. Failure to obtain such approvals or to obtain them on terms acceptable to the Company may prevent the Company from undertaking its desired activities. The Company is unable to predict the effect of additional environmental laws and regulations that may be adopted in the future, including whether any such laws or regulations would materially increase the Company's cost of doing business or affect its operations in any area. There can be no assurances that new environmental laws, regulations or stricter enforcement policies, once implemented, will not oblige the Company to incur significant expenses and undertake significant investments in such respect, which could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations.
Access to Infrastructure	If the Company progresses to production in Madagascar and/or the United States, there is no guarantee that appropriate and affordable road, rail and/or port capacity will be available, which could have an adverse effect on the Company. In the event of production, the Company will also require the use of both power and water infrastructure. In the event of high demand for, and limited access to, power and water, there is a risk that the Company may not be able to procure such access, which could have an adverse effect on the Company.

General risks

CATEGORY OF RISK	RISK
Reliance of Key Personnel	The Company's management and key personnel are responsible for overseeing the day-to-day operations of the Company. The Company is aware of the need for sufficient management to properly supervise exploration and, if exploration is successful, the development of the Projects. As the Projects and the Company's prospects progress and develop, the Board will continually monitor the management requirements in the Company and look to employ or engage additional personnel when and where appropriate, to ensure proper management of the Company projects. However, there is a risk that the Company may not be able to secure personnel with the relevant experience at the appropriate time, which may impact on the Company's ability to complete all of its planned exploration programmes within the expected timetable. Furthermore, you should be aware that no assurance can be given that there will be no adverse effect on the Company if one or more of its existing Directors or management personnel cease their employment or engagement with the Company. The Company's JV operations in India are managed by a separate management and key personnel team and they are responsible largely for the day-to day operations of the JV. There is risk that the JV could be material impacted by any of the management or key personnel in India ceasing their employment and the JV does have strategies in place to manage this risk.
Additional requirements for capital	The Company's capital requirements depend on numerous factors. Subject to the Company's ability to generate income from its Joint Venture operations, the Company may require further financing in addition to amounts raised under the Offers. Any additional equity financing will dilute existing shareholdings, and debt financing (if available) may involve restrictions on future financing and operating activities. If the Company is unable to obtain additional financing as needed, or unable to obtain it on acceptable terms (whether or not due to the Company's circumstances or economic and share market conditions or both), it may be required to reduce the scope of its operations and scale back its exploration programmes. This could have a material adverse effect on the Company's activities and the value of the Securities.
Commodity Price Volatility and Exchange Rate Risks	If the Company achieves success leading to mineral production in Madagascar, the revenue it will derive through the sale of graphite or any other minerals it may discover exposes the potential income of the Company to commodity price and exchange rate risks. Commodity prices fluctuate and are affected by many factors beyond the control of the Company. Such factors include supply and demand fluctuations for precious and base metals, technological advancements, forward-selling activities and other macro-economic factors such as inflation expectations, interest rates and general global economic conditions. Furthermore, international prices of various commodities are denominated in United States dollars, whereas the income and expenditure of the Company are and will be taken into account in Australian currency. This exposes the Company to the fluctuations and volatility of the rate of exchange between the United States dollar, the Australian dollar and the Madagascar Ariary, as determined in international markets.

	If the price of commodities declines this could have an adverse effect on the Company's exploration, development and possible production activities, and its ability to fund these activities, which may no longer be profitable. The same commodity price risks apply to the Company's JV operations in India and the viability of the JV could be materially impacted by changes in commodity prices and exchange fluctuations. The same commodity price risks apply to the Company's interests in the United States and the viability of this interest could be materially impacted by changes in commodity prices and exchange fluctuations.
Insurance Risks	Exploration for and development of minerals involves hazards and risks that could result in the Company incurring losses or liabilities that could arise from its operations. If the Company incurs losses or liabilities that are not covered by its insurance policies, the funds available for exploration and development will be reduced and the value and/or title to the Company's assets may be at risk. The Company intends to insure its operations in accordance with industry practice. However, in certain circumstances the Company's insurance may not be of a nature or level to provide adequate insurance cover. The occurrence of an event that is not covered or fully covered by insurance could have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition and results of the Company. Insurance against all risks associated with mining exploration and production is not always available and, where it is, the costs can be prohibitive or not adequate to cover all claims.
General Economic Conditions	General economic conditions, the introduction of tax reform, new legislation, the general level of activity within the resources industry, movements in interest and inflation rates and currency exchange rates may have an adverse effect on the Company's Joint Venture operations in India and its exploration, development and possible production activities in Madagascar and the United States, as well as on its ability to fund those activities both in Australia and overseas.
Volatility in Global Credit and Investment Markets	Global credit, commodity and investment markets have recently experienced a high degree of uncertainty and volatility. The factors that led to this situation have been outside the control of the Company and may continue for some time, resulting in continued volatility and uncertainty in world stock markets (including the ASX). This may impact the price at which the Shares trade, regardless of operating performance, and affect the Company's ability to raise additional equity and/or debt to achieve its objectives, if required.
Government and Legal Risk	The introduction of new legislation or amendments to existing legislation by governments (including the introduction of tax reform), developments in existing common law or the respective interpretation of the legal requirements in any of the legal jurisdictions that govern the Company's operations or contractual obligations could impact adversely on the assets, operations and ultimately the financial performance of the Company and its Securities. The same adverse impact could result from the introduction of new government policy or amendments to existing government policy.

CATEGORY OF RISK	RISK
Unforeseen Expenditure Risk	Expenditure that has not been considered in this document may need to be incurred. Although the Company is not aware of any such additional expenditure requirements, if such expenditure is subsequently incurred this may adversely affect the expenditure proposals and activities of the Company, as the Company may be required to reduce the scope of its operations and scale back its exploration programmes. This could have a material adverse effect on the Company's activities and the value of the Securities.
Competition	The industry in which the Company is currently involved is subject to domestic and global competition. Although the Company will undertake all reasonable due diligence in its business decisions and operations, the Company will have no influence or control over the activities or actions of its competitors, which activities or actions may, positively or negatively, affect the operating and financial performance of the Company's projects and business.
Force Majeure	The Company's existing Joint Venture operations, Projects or projects acquired in the future may be adversely affected by risks outside the control of the Company including labour unrest, civil disorder, war, subversive activities or sabotage, fires, floods, explosions or other catastrophes, epidemics or quarantine restrictions.
Dilution	In the future, the Company may elect to issue Shares or engage in capital raisings to fund operations and growth, for investments or acquisitions that the Company may decide to undertake, to repay debt or for any other reason the Board may determine at the relevant time. While the Company will be subject to the constraints of the ASX Listing Rules regarding the percentage of its capital that it is able to issue within a 12-month period (other than where exceptions apply), Shareholder interests may be diluted as a result of such issues of Shares or other securities.
Taxation	The acquisition and disposal of Shares will have tax consequences, which will differ depending on the individual financial affairs of each investor. All potential investors in the Company are urged to obtain independent financial advice about the consequences of acquiring Shares from a taxation viewpoint and generally. To the maximum extent permitted by law, the Company, its officers and each of their respective advisers accept no liability and responsibility with respect to the taxation consequences of subscribing for Shares under this Prospectus.
Litigation	The Company is exposed to possible litigation risks including native title claims, tenure disputes, environmental claims, occupational health and safety claims and employee claims. Further, the Company may be involved in disputes with other parties in the future which may result in litigation. Any such claim or dispute if proven, may impact adversely on the Company's operations, reputation, financial performance and financial position. The Company and its subsidiaries are not currently engaged in any material litigation.
Market conditions	Share market conditions may affect the value of the Company's quoted securities regardless of the Company's operating performance. Share market conditions are affected by many factors such as: (a) general economic outlook; (b) introduction of tax reform or other new legislation;

CATEGORY OF RISK	RISK
	(c) interest rates and inflation rates; (d) changes in investor sentiment toward particular market sectors; (e) the demand for, and supply of, capital; and (f) terrorism or other hostilities (including the current evolving conflicts between Ukraine and Russia, and Israel and Palestine). The market price of securities can fall as well as rise and may be subject to varied and unpredictable influences on the market for equities. Neither the Company nor the Directors warrant the future performance of the Company or any return on an investment in the Company.

5.5 Speculative investment

The risk factors described above, and other risk factors not specifically referred to, may have a materially adverse impact on the performance of the Company and the value of the New Options.

Prospective investors should consider that an investment in the Company is highly speculative.

There is no guarantee that the New Options offered under this Prospectus will provide a return on capital or payment of dividends.

Before deciding whether to subscribe for New Options under this Prospectus you should read this Prospectus in its entirety and consider all factors, taking into account your objectives, financial situation and needs.
