HIGH ISLAND - PROJECT UPDATE

Elixir Petroleum Limited ("Elixir" or the "Company"), the international oil and gas exploration and production company (ASX:EXR) is pleased to advise that production from its High Island field has recommenced following a temporary shut-in due to a fire at a third party compression facility located downstream from the High Island field.

The operator at High Island reports that production has been re-established at rates equivalent to those being achieved prior to the shut-in, with the field currently producing approximately 2.2 mmscf of gas and 370 bbls of condensate per day.

Yours faithfully,
ELIXIR PETROLEUM LIMITED

David Lim
Company Secretary
