Resignation of Director

The Board wishes to advise that Mr Garry Crittenden has resigned as a Director of Dromana Estate Limited and National Vintages Pty Ltd. for personal reasons. He remains chief wine maker with responsibilities for overseeing the Dromana Estate, Mornington Estate, Yarra Valley Hills and the Garry Crittenden "i" label and for export marketing.

As previously announced Mr Rollo Crittenden continues as the wine maker for all the above brands and Mr David Traeger remains chief wine maker for the David Traeger brands. This move by Garry Crittenden is part of the board's long term strategy of bringing forward younger wine makers without losing the skills of the older members of the team. The board is very pleased to have three such excellent wine makers now fully committed to our splendid range of wines.
