29 January 2018: ASX Company Announcements Platform

FirstWave announces the appointment of Shekila Ramalingam as Vice President, Business Development APAC

Highlights:

- Recognised and respected leader in the Information Technology and Telecommunications industry across APAC
- Professional experience spans blue chip technology companies including Ericsson, Nokia Siemens Networks and IBM
- Appointment to focus on execution of the FirstWave's international expansion strategy in APAC

Leading Australian Cloud Security technology company, FirstWave Cloud Technology Limited (ASX:FCT) ("FirstWave", "the company") is pleased to advise of the appointment of Ms. Shekila Ramalingam as Vice President, Business Development for the Asia Pacific region, effective February 12, 2018.

The appointment comes after an extensive executive search and coincides with the launch of FirstWave's public platform in North America and Asia Pacific in December 2017.

Shekila has over 25 years of industry experience and having developed an extensive regional network of senior executives in the Information Technology and Telecommunications industry, Ms Ramalingam is highly regarded and respected throughout the region.

Ms. Ramalingam's previous roles include the Head of Managed Services Sales – IT & Cloud - Oceania, South Asia and India at Ericsson where she was responsible for sales and delivery of application services and managed services for the region; and Chief Information Officer of U Mobile Sdn Bhd where she lead the information technology transformation for the company.

Ms Ramalingam will execute FirstWave's international expansion strategy across Asia Pacific including finalising existing deals currently under negotiation and realisation of new opportunities across the expanded go-to-market channels detailed in FCT's international strategy. She will also recruit and manage pre-sales and sales talent to achieve the Company's regional expansion ambitions.

FirstWave Chief Revenue Officer Andrew Chamberlain said:

"We are delighted to welcome Shekila onto the team. Her extensive regional network and proven telecommunications and technology experience in the region significantly strengthens our ability to execute our international growth strategy throughout Asia and the Pacific."
