Contract Award

Focus Minerals (Laverton) Limited – Laverton Gold Project

MACA Limited ('MACA') (ASX: MLD) is pleased to announce that it has received a Letter of Award from Focus Minerals (Laverton) Limited ('Focus') which extends MACA's tenure at the Laverton project to May 2014.

MACA has been providing mining services to Focus (previously Crescent Gold Limited) since September 2009 and looks forward to continuing the relationship with Focus. The new works under the contract are due to commence by the end of this month and are expected to generate revenues of approximately $45 million. MACA will continue to supply drilling and blasting, and load and haul services to Focus.

Managing Director, Doug Grewar said "we are delighted to have locked away a significant level of new works over the past six months and we look forward to continuing to build on the strong relationships that MACA has developed with its clients. Having only recently joined the MACA team, I have been most impressed with the hands on approach of the executive team and its unwavering commitment to supporting clients achieve their objectives."
