A listed entity should:

disclose the policies and processes it has in place to facilitate and encourage participation at meetings of security holders.

Refer to the policy for Investor Relations communication in the Corporate Governance section of our website.

Recommendation 6.4

A listed entity should:

give security holders the option to receive communications from, and send communications to, the entity and its security registry electronically.

This is covered in the policy for Investor Relations communication in the Corporate Governance section of our website.

Recommendation 7.1

The Board of a listed entity should:

- (a) have a committee or committees to oversee risk, each of which:
 - (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and
 - (2) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose:
 - (3) the charter of the committee;
 - (4) the members of the committee; and
 - (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or

- (a) The Board has an Audit and Risk Committee Charter.
 - (1) The Board convenes and considers matters under the charter but does not have a separate independent committee at this stage.
 - (2) Due to the scale and nature of the companies activities an independent Chair is not considered appropriate at this time.
 - (3) The Charter is available in the Corporate Governance section of the Company website
 - (4) Due to the scale and nature of the companies activities a separate committee has not been constituted.
 - (5) Not applicable.

Recommendation 7.2

The Board or a committee of the board should:

- | | |
|--|--|
| (a) review the entity's risk management framework at least annually to satisfy itself that it continues to be sound; and | The risk management framework is evolving. The company resumed trading in December 2015. The risk management strategy will be managed consistent with the scale and nature of activities of the company, as we re-establish. |
| (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether such a review has taken place. | As set out above, this is evolving and expected to be subject to annual reviews from 2017. |

Recommendation 7.3

A listed entity should disclose:

- | | |
|--|--|
| (a) if it has an internal audit function, how the function is structured and what role it performs; or | The company does not have an internal audit function. Due to the scale and nature of the activities of the company an internal audit function is not currently relevant. We are re-establishing trading. |
| (b) if it does not have an internal audit function, that fact and the processes it employs for evaluating and continually improving the effectiveness of its risk management and internal control processes. | The nature and size of Raptis operations do not warrant a separate internal audit function. Given the low volume of transactions, the external audit work and management oversight is considered sufficient to identify any material breakdown in the control environment. The Board will periodically review the need for an internal audit function. |

A listed entity should disclose whether it has any material exposure to economic, environmental and social sustainability risks and, if it does, how it manages or intends to manage those risks.	The Company does not have any material exposure to economic, environmental and social sustainability risks, not consistent with a return to trading in property development.
