SALE OF EXPLORATION LICENCE

Oroya Mining Limited has signed a Letter of Intent with Tech Sol Resources Pty Ltd (Tech Sol) in which it has agreed to sell outright its interests in its Mt Egerton-Gordon Exploration Licence 4844 for $50,000 to Tech Sol's nominee Cluff Resources Pacific NL (Cluff).

The Company had previously advised that it was negotiating on other leases in the area.

In view of Oroya's focus on other projects in the Lachlan Fold Belt of Victoria and New South Wales, the Company agreed to sell the tenement.

The Terms of the Letter of Intent are generally as follows:

- $5,000 as a first instalment.
- $45,000 by 11 June 2006.
- On payment of the first instalment, Oroya will provide its technical data on the project.
- Cluff is responsible for meeting all statutory expenditure.
