¹ Under Listing Rule 4.7.3, an entity must lodge with ASX a completed Appendix 4G at the same time as it lodges its annual report with ASX.

Listing Rule 4.10.3 requires an entity that is included in the official list as an ASX Listing to include in its annual report either a corporate governance statement that meets the requirements of that rule or the URL of the page on its website where such a statement is located. The corporate governance statement must disclose the extent to which the entity has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council during the reporting period. If the entity has not followed a recommendation for any part of the reporting period, its corporate governance statement must separately identify that recommendation and the period during which it was not followed and state its reasons for not following the recommendation and what (if any) alternative governance practices it adopted in lieu of the recommendation during that period.

Under Listing Rule 4.7.4, if an entity chooses to include its corporate governance statement on its website rather than in its annual report, it must lodge a copy of the corporate governance statement with ASX at the same time as it lodges its annual report with ASX. The corporate governance statement must be current as at the effective date specified in that statement for the purposes of rule 4.10.3.

² "Corporate governance statement" is defined in Listing Rule 19.12 to mean the statement referred to in Listing Rule 4.10.3 which discloses the extent to which an entity has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council during a particular reporting period.

³ Mark whichever option is correct and then complete the page number(s) of the annual report, or the URL of the web page, where the entity's corporate governance statement can be found.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STATEMENT

The Directors and management of Gale Pacific Limited (Gale or the Company) are committed to conducting the business of Gale and its controlled entities (the Group) in an ethical manner and in accordance with the highest standards of corporate governance. The Company has adopted and substantially complies with the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (Third Edition) (Recommendations) to the extent appropriate to the size and nature of the Group's operations.

The Company has prepared this statement which sets out its corporate governance practices that were in operation throughout the financial year ended 30 June 2020. This statement identifies any Recommendations that have not been followed and provides reasons for not following such Recommendations. This statement is current as at 5 October 2020 and has been approved by the Board of Gale.

The Company's corporate governance policies and charters and policies are all available under the Investor Info section of the Company's website (<https://www.galepacific.com/investor-info/corporate-governance>) (Website).

Principle 1 – Lay solid foundations for management and oversight A listed entity should establish and disclose the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management and how their performance is monitored and evaluated.
1.1 A listed entity should disclose: (a) the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management; and (b) those matters expressly reserved to the board and those delegated to management.	Complying	The Board has adopted a charter which sets out the Board's role and key responsibilities, its relationship with management and the nature of matters reserved to the Board and those delegated to management. The primary role of the Board is the protection and enhancement of long-term shareholder value. Its responsibilities include the defining of the Company's purpose, setting its strategic objectives, approving the Company's statement of values and code of conduct to set the tone of the desired culture within the Group. The Charter also requires the Board to establish goals for management and to monitor the achievement of these goals. The Board is also responsible for the overall corporate governance of the Company. The Board Charter sets out the role and responsibility of the Chairman and outlines the Board's policy on when and how Directors may seek independent professional advice at the expense of the Company. The Board reviews the Board Charter at least annually, and in doing so reviews the division of functions between the Board and management to ensure that this continues to be appropriate to the needs of the Group.
1.2 A listed entity should: (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a person, or putting forward to security holders a candidate for election, as a director; and (b) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director.	Complying	The Company, through its Nomination Committee, undertakes checks on a candidate for the role of director and seeks confirmation from the candidate that he/she will have sufficient time to fulfil his or her responsibilities as a director; and subject to the results of such checks and confirmations, makes recommendations to the Board on their appointment. Where appropriate, external consultants may be engaged to assist in searching for candidates and undertaking relevant checks. Checks include checks as to the person's character, experience, education and qualifications, criminal record and bankruptcy.

			The Company provides information to shareholders about Directors seeking election or re-election at general meetings to enable them to make an informed decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a Director, including their relevant qualifications and experience and the skills they bring to the Board; details of any other listed directorships held by the Director in the preceding 3 years; the term of office already served by the Director; whether the Director is considered to be independent; and a recommendation by the Board in respect of the re-election of the Director. In the case of a candidate standing for election as a Director for the first time the Company will also provide information to shareholders in relation to any material adverse information revealed by any checks the Committee has performed on the candidate.
1.3	A listed entity should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	Complying	Each Director is given a letter upon his or her appointment which outlines the Director's duties, obligations, remuneration, expected time commitments and notification of the Company's policies. Similarly, senior executives including the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer have a formal job description and services agreement describing their term of office, duties, rights and responsibilities, and entitlements on termination. The Company will disclose the material terms of any employment, service or consultancy agreement it enters into with its Chief Executive Officer.
1.4	The company secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the board.	Complying	The Company Secretary is responsible for co-ordination of all Board business, including agendas, board papers, minutes, communication with regulatory bodies, ASX and all statutory and other filings. The Company Secretary is accountable to the Board, and all Directors have access to the Company Secretary. The decision to appoint or remove the Company Secretary is made or approved by the Board.
1.5	A listed entity should: (a) have a diversity policy which includes requirements for the board or a relevant committee of the board to set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity and to assess annually both the objectives and the entity's progress in achieving them; (b) disclose that policy or a summary of it; and (c) disclose as at the end of each reporting period the measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity set by the board or a relevant committee of the board in accordance with the entity's diversity policy and its progress	Complying	The Company is committed to the principles of employing people with a broad range of experiences, skills and views. All executives, managers and employees are responsible for promoting workforce diversity. The Company has adopted a Diversity and Inclusion Policy which can be viewed on the Website. The Diversity and Inclusion Policy requires the commitment of the Directors and Senior Management to promote the specific objective of diversity and seeks to ensure, to the extent that is practicable and appropriate, that the Company's Director appointment and employee recruitment processes are undertaken with reference to the objectives of the Diversity and Inclusion Policy. The objectives of the Company's Diversity and Inclusion Policy are centred on a wide range of diversity criteria including gender, age, ethnicity and cultural background. The Policy also includes requirements for the Board to establish measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity for the Board to assess annually both the objectives and progress in achieving them. The current status of gender diversity within the Group is: Board 25%

towards achieving them, and either: (1) the respective proportions of men and women on the board, in senior executive positions and across the whole organisation (including how the entity has defined “senior executive” for these purposes); or (2) if the entity is a “relevant employer” under the Workplace Gender Equality Act, the entity’s most recent “Gender Equality Indicators”, as defined in and published under that Act.		• Executive 0% • Group wide 36% The Board has set the following measurable objectives: 1. Increase women as a percentage of the total workforce by the end of 2021 from 36% to 40%; 2. Maintain women as a percentage of the Board by the end of 2021 at 25% (as long as the Board is comprised of four directors); 3. Increase women as a percentage of the Executive Team by the end of 2022 from 0% to 20%. 4. Conduct a review on an annual basis of the remuneration for key roles within the Group to ascertain the existence of any gender pay gaps and to implement action plans to address any such gaps. 5. Ensure at least one woman on interview short-list for Senior and Executive level leadership/specialist roles. If the appropriate internal resource is unavailable, an external representative can be sourced. 6. Implement programmes that provide better flexibility for parents and expecting parents. These will include: • Flexible working arrangements and practices. • Competitive parental policies and practices. • Promotion of Parental Support Networks and Employee Assistance Programmes. 7. All employees (regardless of gender, age and race) are consulted annually via a Cultural Development Survey and are given the opportunity to provide feedback on issues and potential barriers to diversity. 8. Remuneration continues to be benchmarked against market data taking into consideration experience, qualification and performance and without regard to age, gender and race. 9. Succession plans and leadership programs are designed to assist in the development of a diverse pool of future senior executives and managers and are regularly reviewed. The Company’s Nomination Committee is charged with the responsibility of undertaking an annual review to: ▪ assess its policies and procedures in reference to its diversity objectives; ▪ determine whether its diversity policies and procedures are and are likely to continue to be appropriate; and ▪ ensure that the Company, and its policies and procedures, comply with all applicable legal requirements in respect of diversity and that such policies and procedures remain relevant and effective. As at 30 June 2020, the Company employed a total of 574 employees; of these, 209 are female, and of these 2 hold a senior management role. A senior management role for these

In accordance with the Workplace Gender Equality Act 2012, Gale has submitted a Workplace Gender Equality Report for the 2019/2020 reporting period. The submission includes details of the Company's Gender Equality Indicators and is available on the website.
1.6	A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the board, its committees and individual directors; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process.	Complying	The Directors undertake an annual process to review the performance and effectiveness of the Board, the Board Committees and individual Directors. The Company Secretary oversees this process. As part of the review, each Director completes a questionnaire relating to the Board's and each Committee's role, composition, procedures, practices and behaviour. The questionnaires are confidential. The Chairman leads a discussion of the questionnaire results with the Board as a whole and provides feedback to individual Directors as necessary. An evaluation of the Board's performance has taken place in the reporting period.
1.7	A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of its senior executives; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process.	Complying	The Company's Remuneration Committee together with the Company's Chief Executive Officer, evaluates the performance of the Group's senior executives annually. The Remuneration Committee also reviews the Chief Executive Officer's performance annually. A performance evaluation for the Group's senior executives and the Chief Executive Officer has taken place in the reporting period.
Principle 2 – Structure the Board to add value A listed entity should have a board of an appropriate size, composition, skills and commitment to enable it to discharge its duties effectively.
2.1	The board of a listed entity should: (a) have a nomination committee which: (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the members of the committee; and (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the	Complying	The Board has a formal Nomination Committee comprising four of the Directors (David Allman, Peter Landos, Donna McMaster and Tom Stianos). All of the members of the Committee are non-Executive Directors. The Nomination Committee's functions and powers are formalised in a Charter and is posted on the Group's website. All Nomination Committee members are considered to be independent Directors. The Chairman of the Nomination Committee is David Allman, an independent Director. The function of the Nomination Committee is, in summary, to review and make recommendations in relation to the composition and performance of the Board and its committees and ensuring that adequate succession plans are in place (including for the recruitment and appointment of Directors and senior management).

	members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a nomination committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs to address board succession issues and to ensure that the board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.		Following each meeting, the Nomination Committee reports to the Board on any matter that should be brought to the Board's attention and on any recommendation that requires Board approval. The number of times that the Nomination Committee met throughout the financial year and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings are disclosed in the Company's Annual Report.
2.2	A listed entity should have and disclose a board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills and diversity that the board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership.	Complying	The Board aims to be comprised of Directors which have, at all times, the appropriate mix of skills, experience, expertise and diversity relevant to the Company's businesses and the Board's responsibilities. This objective is enumerated in the Board Charter. The Board regularly evaluates the mix of skills, experience and diversity at the Board level, and has developed and adopted a Board skills matrix which has been tailored to the circumstances and requirements of Gale. It is intended that the skills matrix will be reviewed at least annually by the Board to ensure that ongoing needs in relation to supervising the Company and its operations are being met, and to consider any changes in the Company's circumstances and strategic priorities. The objectives of the skills matrix adopted by the Board are to: ▪ Identify the skills, knowledge, experience and capabilities that are considered to be desired of the Board as a whole, in order for the Board to fulfil its role and in light of the Company's strategic direction; ▪ Ascertain the current skills, knowledge, experience and capabilities of the Board, and provide the incumbent Directors with an opportunity to reflect upon and discuss the current composition of the Board; and ▪ Identify any gaps in skills or competencies that can be addressed in future director appointments. In respect of the reporting period, the Board assessed each Director's skill level against the following key skills set out in the matrix which the Board considered to be desired of the Board of Gale: ▪ Executive leadership ▪ Board experience ▪ Financial literacy ▪ Legal, governance and compliance ▪ Manufacturing ▪ Retail ▪ Strategy ▪ Commercial acumen ▪ Health, safety, environment and sustainability ▪ Diversity ▪ Capital management ▪ Intellectual property

			The Board considers that it currently has an appropriate mix of skills and diversity and provides information about the skills, experience and expertise of each Director in the Company's 2020 Annual Report.
2.3	A listed entity should disclose: (a) the names of the directors considered by the board to be independent directors; (b) if a director has an interest, position, association or relationship of the type described in Box 2.3 but the board is of the opinion that it does not compromise the independence of the director, the nature of the interest, position, association or relationship in question and an explanation of why the board is of that opinion; and (c) the length of service of each director.	Complying	The Board is currently comprised of five Directors: David Allman, Peter Landos, John Paul Marcantonio, Tom Stianos and Donna McMaster. All current directors are Non-Executive Directors, with the exception of John Paul Marcantonio, the Chief Executive Officer. The Board has considered the circumstances of each Director and determined that all Non-Executive Directors are independent as described in box 2.3 of the Recommendations. John Paul Marcantonio is not considered to be independent due to his executive role within the Company. The Corporations Act 2001, the Company's Constitution and the monthly Board meeting process requires Directors to advise the Board of any interest they have that has the potential to conflict with the interests of the Group, including any development that may impact their perceived or actual independence. If the Board determines that a Director's status as an independent Director has changed, that determination will be disclosed and explained in a timely manner to the market. The length of service of each Director is set out in the Company's Annual Report.
2.4	A majority of the board of a listed entity should be independent directors.	Complying	The Board currently comprises five Directors: David Allman, Peter Landos, John Paul Marcantonio, Tom Stianos and Donna McMaster. All Non-Executive Directors are independent, while John Paul Marcantonio the Chief Executive Officer is not independent.
2.5	The chair of the board of a listed entity should be an independent director and, in particular, should not be the same person as the CEO of the entity.	Complying	David Allman has been Chairman of the Company since 17 November 2009 and was, at the date of his appointment, and continues to be, independent. The Chairman leads the Board and is responsible for the efficient organisation and conduct of the Board's functions. The positions of Chairman and the Chief Executive Officer are held by separate persons.

2.6	A listed entity should have a program for inducting new directors and provide appropriate professional development opportunities for directors to develop and maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as directors effectively.	Complying	The Company has procedures and policies in place to assist Directors in fulfilling their responsibilities. As Directors join the Board, they undertake a comprehensive induction program, which includes information on the Company's core values, key strategies, objectives, as well as its governance framework and operations. New Directors also meet with key senior management to gain a better appreciation of the Group's services and capabilities. The Board also receives ongoing governance updates as required including in relation to recent legislative and regulatory changes and developments in corporate governance. All Directors have ongoing access to information on the Company's operations and to the Group's senior management. Each Director, at any time, is able to seek reasonable independent professional advice on any business-related matter at the expense of the Company. Directors also have access to adequate internal resources to seek any information from any officer or employee of the Group, or to require the attendance of management at meetings to enable them as Directors to fulfil their duties.
Principle 3 – Act ethically and responsibly A listed entity should act ethically and responsibly
3.1	A listed entity should: (a) have a code of conduct for its directors, senior executives and employees; and (b) disclose that code or a summary of it.	Complying	The Board is committed to observing the highest standards of corporate practice and business conduct. Accordingly, the Board has established a Code of Conduct and Business Ethics, a copy of which is available on the website, and which articulates acceptable practices for Directors, senior executives and employees, to guide their behaviour and to demonstrate the commitment of the Company to ethical practices. The Company also seeks to ensure that advisers, consultants and contractors aware of the Company's expectations as set out in its Code of Conduct and Business Ethics.
Principle 4 – Safeguard integrity in corporate reporting A listed entity should have formal and rigorous processes that independently verify and safeguard the integrity of its corporate reporting.
4.1	The board of a listed entity should: (a) have an audit committee which: (1) has at least three members, all of whom are non-executive directors and a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, who is not the chair of the board, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the relevant qualifications and experience of the members of the committee; and	Complying	The Board has a formal Audit and Risk Committee comprising three members: Tom Stianos, Peter Landos and David Allman. All Audit and Risk Committee members are considered to be independent Directors. The Chairman of the Audit and Risk Committee is Peter Landos, an independent Director. The audit related role of the Audit and Risk Committee is to advise on financial information prepared for use by the Board or for inclusion in financial statements. This includes confirming the quality and reliability of the financial information prepared by the Company, working with the external auditor on behalf of the Board and reviewing non-audit services provided by the external auditor, to confirm that they are consistent with maintaining external audit experience. The Audit and Risk Committee's functions and powers are formalised in a Charter which is posted on the Group's website.

	(5) in relation to each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have an audit committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs that independently verify and safeguard the integrity of its corporate reporting, including the processes for the appointment and removal of the external auditor and the rotation of the audit engagement partner.		The Chair of the Committee may invite other Directors, members of senior management and representatives of the external auditor to be present at the meetings of the committee and seek advice from external advisers. The Audit and Risk Committee regularly reports to the Board about Committee activities, issues and related recommendations. The number of times that the Audit and Risk Committee met throughout the financial year and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings, and the relevant qualifications and experience of the Audit and Risk Committee members are disclosed in the Company's Annual Report.
4.2	The board of a listed entity should, before it approves the entity's financial statements for a financial period, receive from its CEO and CFO a declaration that, in their opinion, the financial records of the entity have been properly maintained and that the financial statements comply with the appropriate accounting standards and give a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of the entity and that the opinion has been formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal control which is operating effectively.	Complying	The Directors are committed to the preparation of financial statements that present a balanced and clear assessment of the Group's financial position and prospects. The Board, with the guidance of the Audit and Risk Committee reviews the Group's half yearly and annual financial statements. The Board requires that the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer state in writing to the Board that the Group's financial reports present a true and fair view, in all material respects, of the Group's financial condition and operational results and are in accordance with relevant accounting standards and that the opinion has been formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal control which is operating effectively.
4.3	A listed entity that has an AGM should ensure that its external auditor attends its AGM and is available to answer questions from security holders relevant to the audit.	Complying	In accordance with the Company's Communications Policy, a copy of which is available on the website, Shareholders are encouraged to attend the Company's Annual General Meeting, which the Company endeavours to ensure the attendance of its auditors. Shareholders are given an opportunity to ask questions of the Company's auditors regarding the conduct of the audit and preparation and content of the auditor's report.
Principle 5 – Make timely and balanced disclosure A listed entity should make timely and balanced disclosure of all matters concerning it that a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or value of its securities.
5.1	A listed entity should: (a) have a written policy for complying with its continuous disclosure obligations under the Listing Rules; and (b) disclose that policy or a summary of it.	Complying	The Company has a documented policy which has established procedures designed to ensure compliance with ASX Listing Rule disclosure requirements and to ensure accountability at a senior management level for that compliance. The focus of these procedures is on continuous disclosure of any information concerning the Group that a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price of the Company's securities and improving access to information for all investors. The Chief Executive Officer, the Chief Financial Officer and the Company Secretary are responsible for interpreting the Group's policy and where necessary informing the Board. The purpose of the procedures for identifying information for disclosure is to ensure timely and accurate information is provided equally to all shareholders and market participants. The Company Secretary is responsible for all communications with the ASX. All Company announcements are vetted and authorised by the Board and senior management to ensure they are made in a timely manner, are factual, do not omit material information and are expressed in a clear and objective manner that allows investors to assess the impact of the information when making investment decisions. The policy on continuous disclosure is published on the Website.

Principle 6 – Respect the rights of security holders A listed entity should respect the rights of its security holders by providing them with appropriate information and facilities to allow them to exercise those rights effectively.
6.1	A listed entity should provide information about itself and its governance to investors via its website.	Complying	The Board informs shareholders of all major developments affecting the Group's state of affairs as follows: - placing all relevant announcements made to the market, on the Website after they have been released to ASX; - publishing all corporate governance policies and charters adopted by the Board on the Website; - releasing information provided to analysts or media during briefings to ASX and placing such information on the Website; and - placing the full text of notices of meeting and explanatory material on the Website.
6.2	A listed entity should design and implement an investor relations program to facilitate effective two-way communication with investors.	Complying	The Board is committed to facilitating effective two-way communication with its shareholders, investors and stakeholders and has adopted a Communications Policy to define and support this commitment. A copy of the Communications Policy is available on the website. The Communications Policy sets out the Company's investor relations approach, namely by communicating with its shareholders and investors by posting information on the Website, and by encouraging attendance and participation of shareholders at general meetings. Investors are also able to provide feedback and seek further information about the Company via the Website. Management or Directors additionally meet with shareholders from time to time upon request and respond to any enquiries they may make.
6.3	A listed entity should disclose the policies and processes it has in place to facilitate and encourage participation at meetings of security holders.	Complying	Shareholders are encouraged to attend the Company's Annual General Meeting and notice is given in accordance with the Company's Constitution, the Corporations Act, and the ASX Listing Rules. The Annual General Meeting is an opportunity for shareholders to hear the Chief Executive Officer and Chairman provide updates on Group performance, ask questions of the Board and vote on the various resolutions affecting the business. Shareholders are given an opportunity to ask questions of the Company's auditors regarding the conduct of the audit and preparation and content of the auditor's report. The date, time and location of the Company's general meetings is provided in the notices of meetings, and on the Website. Whilst shareholders are encouraged to attend meetings, if they are unable to do so, they are encouraged to participate in the meeting by appointing a proxy, attorney or representative to vote on their behalf.

6.4	A listed entity should give security holders the option to receive communications from, and send communications to, the entity and its security registry electronically.	Complying	Investors are able communicate with the Company electronically via the Website or by emailing the Company Secretary. Investors are also able communicate with the Company's registry electronically by emailing the registry or via the registry's website. The Company encourages its shareholders to receive company information electronically by registering their email addresses online with the Company's share registry.
Principle 7 – Recognise and manage risk A listed entity should establish a sound risk management framework and periodically review the effectiveness of that framework.
7.1	The board of a listed entity should: (a) have a committee or committees to oversee risk, each of which: (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the members of the committee; and (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a risk committee or committees that satisfy (a) above, disclose that fact and the processes it employs for overseeing the entity's risk management framework.	Complying	The Board has a formal Audit and Risk Committee comprising three members, Peter Landos, David Allman and Tom Stianos. All Audit and Risk Committee members are considered to be independent Directors. The Chairman of the Audit and Risk Committee is Peter Landos, an independent Director. The risk related role of the Audit and Risk Committee is to advise on the establishment and maintenance of a framework of internal controls and appropriate ethical standards for the management of the Group. The Audit and Risk Committee's functions and powers are formalised in a Charter and is posted on the Group's Website. The number of times that the Audit and Risk Committee met throughout the financial year and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings, and the relevant qualifications and experience of the Audit and Risk Committee members are disclosed in the Company's Annual Report.
7.2	The board or a committee of the board should: (a) review the entity's risk management framework at least annually to satisfy itself that it continues to be sound; and	Complying	The Group has established policies and procedures to identify, assess and manage all material business and operational risks. The Board has responsibility for monitoring risk oversight and ensures that the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer report on the status of business risks through risk management programs aimed at ensuring risks are identified, assessed and appropriately managed. In addition, the Board

	(b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether such a review has taken place.		reviews the risk management framework and policies of the Group and is satisfied that management has developed and implemented a sound system of risk management and internal control. The Board oversees policies on risk assessment and management and has delegated certain responsibilities in these matters to the Audit and Risk Committee. The Audit and Risk Committee regularly reviews the Company's Risk Register and its risk management policies and reports to the Board accordingly. The Board has undertaken such a review in respect of the reporting period and is satisfied that management has developed and implemented a sound system of risk management and internal control.
7.3	A listed entity should disclose: (a) if it has an internal audit function, how the function is structured and what role it performs; or (b) if it does not have an internal audit function, that fact and the processes it employs for evaluating and continually improving the effectiveness of its risk management and internal control processes.	Complying	Management reviews the Group's major business units, organisational structure and accounting controls and processes on a regular basis and reports accordingly to the Audit and Risk Committee and in turn to the Board; the Board is satisfied that the processes in place to identify the Group's material business risks are appropriate and that these risks are being effectively managed. The Group's risk management processes continue to be monitored and reported against on an ongoing basis. The Group's Risk Management Policy is available on the Website.
7.4	A listed entity should disclose whether it has any material exposure to economic, environmental and social sustainability risks and, if it does, how it manages or intends to manage those risks.	Complying	The Group's operations are not subject to any significant environmental regulations under the Commonwealth or State legislation. The Directors believe that the Group has adequate systems in place for the management of its environmental requirements and are not aware of any breach of those environmental requirements as they apply to the Group.

Principle 8 – Remunerate fairly and responsibly

A listed entity should pay director remuneration sufficient to attract and retain high quality directors and design its executive remuneration to attract, retain and motivate high quality senior executives and to align their interests with the creation of value for security holders.

8.1	The board of a listed entity should: (a) have a remuneration committee which: (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the members of the committee; and (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the	Complying	The Board has a formal Remuneration Committee comprising three members: Tom Stianos, David Allman and Donna McMaster. All Remuneration Committee members are considered to be independent Directors. The Chairman of the Remuneration Committee is Tom Stianos, an independent Director. The role of the Remuneration Committee is to review and make recommendations to the Board on remuneration packages and practices applicable to the Chief Executive Officer, senior executives and Directors themselves. This role also includes responsibility for share option schemes, incentive performance packages and retirement and termination entitlements. Remuneration levels are competitively set to attract the most qualified and experienced Directors and senior executives. The Remuneration Committee may obtain independent advice on the appropriateness of remuneration packages. The Remuneration Committee's functions and powers are formalised in a Charter and is posted on the Group's website. Following each meeting, the Remuneration Committee reports to the Board on any matter that should be brought to the Board's attention and on any recommendation of the Remuneration Committee that requires Board approval. The number of times that the Remuneration Committee met throughout the financial year and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings are disclosed in the Company's Annual Report.

8.2	A listed entity should separately disclose its policies and practices regarding the remuneration of non-executive directors and the remuneration of executive directors and other senior executives.	Complying	Details of the Directors' and key senior executives' remuneration are set out in the Remuneration Report of the Annual Report. The structure of Non-Executive Directors' remuneration is distinct from that of executives and is further detailed in the Remuneration Report of the Annual Report.
8.3	A listed entity which has an equity-based remuneration scheme should: (a) have a policy on whether participants are permitted to enter into transactions (whether through the use of derivatives or otherwise) which limit the economic risk of participating in the scheme; and (b) disclose that policy or a summary of it.	Complying	Equity based executive remuneration is made in accordance with thresholds set in plans approved by shareholders. In addition, the Company has issued equity-based remuneration to both executive and senior management which has been approved by shareholders at a general meeting, at which a summary of the incentive plan was provided to shareholders. Participants in the incentive plan are not permitted to hedge or otherwise limit the economic risk of participating in the plan.
