The corporate governance statement must disclose the extent to which the entity has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council during the reporting period. If the entity has not followed a recommendation for any part of the reporting period, its corporate governance statement must separately identify that recommendation and the period during which it was not followed and state its reasons for not following the recommendation and what (if any) alternative governance practices it adopted in lieu of the recommendation during that period.

The Board of Directors is responsible for the corporate governance of the Company and has adopted a range of corporate governance policies consistent with the ASX Corporate Governance Council's Principles of Good Corporate Governance and Best Practice Recommendations, to the extent that recommendations are appropriate to the structure and operations of the Company.

A summary of the major policies relevant to the ASX Corporate Governance Council's Principles is set out below:

Council Principle 1: Lay solid foundations for management and oversight

The Board's primary role is the protection and enhancement of medium to long term shareholder value. To fulfil this role, the Board is responsible for the overall Corporate Governance of the consolidated entity including its strategic direction, establishing goals for management and monitoring the achievement of these goals.

The Board is collectively responsible for promoting the success of the Company by:

- supervising the Company's framework of control and accountability systems to enable risk to be assessed and managed
- ensuring the Company is properly managed
- approving and monitoring the progress of major capital expenditure, capital management, and acquisitions and divestitures;
- approval of the annual budget;
- monitoring the financial performance of the Company;
- approving and monitoring financial and other reporting;
- overall corporate governance of the Company, including conducting regular reviews of the balance of responsibilities within the Company to ensure division of functions remain appropriate to the needs of the Company;
- liaising with the Company's external auditors as appropriate; and
- monitoring, and ensuring compliance with, all of the Company's legal obligations, in particular those obligations relating to the environment, native title, cultural heritage and occupational health and safety.

The Board must convene regular meetings with such frequency as is sufficient to appropriately discharge its responsibilities. Between regular meetings it will also ensure that important matters are addressed by way of circular resolutions. The Board may, from time to time, delegate some of the responsibilities listed above to its senior management team.

Materiality threshold

The Board has agreed on both quantitative and qualitative guidelines for assessing the materiality of matters. Qualitative indications of materiality would include if:

- they impact on the reputation of the Company;
- they involve a breach of legislation;
- they are outside the ordinary course of business;
- they could affect the Company's rights to its assets; or
- if accumulated they would trigger the quantitative tests.

The Chairperson

The chairperson is responsible for leadership of the Board, for the efficient organisation and conduct of the Board's function and for the briefing of all directors in relation to issues arising at Board meetings. The chairperson is also responsible for chairing shareholder meetings and arranging Board performance evaluation.

The Managing Director

The Managing Director is responsible for the day-to-day affairs of the Company under delegated authority from the Board and to implement the policies and strategy approved by the Board. In carrying out his/her responsibilities the Managing Director must report to the Board in a timely manner and ensure all reports to the Board present a true and fair view of the Company's financial condition and operational results. The Managing Director is also responsible for overall shareholder communication in conjunction with the Chairperson of the Board.

Role and responsibility of management

The role of management is to support the Managing Director and implement the running of the general operations and financial business of the Company, in accordance with the delegated authority of the Board.
