

22 December 2021Gentrack confirms appointment of new CFO

Gentrack Group Ltd (NZX/ASX: GTK) is pleased to announce the appointment of John Priggen as Chief Financial Officer, commencing 1 February 2022. John will take over from James Spence, who as announced on 20 December 2021 will leave Gentrack on 28 February 2022.

John's career started as a Chartered Accountant with multinational professional services firm, PwC, as an auditor in practice. After leaving the audit profession, John joined Xchanging PLC, a FTSE listed Software & BPO outsourcing Company, where he progressed his career through from Divisional CFO for Xchanging's Insurance business and as Divisional CFO for its technology & Software business through to the Group's Commercial Director.

Following the acquisition of Xchanging by CSC Inc. (now DXC), John left to become Group CFO of Validis, a Fintech providing software solutions to Auditors and Commercial Lenders globally.

Prior to joining Gentrack, John was Group CFO of Momena Group, leading the finance and commercial operations across UK, Australia, US, India, Hong Kong and Germany.

Gentrack Chief Executive Officer, Gary Miles, says: "John's extensive SaaS and professional services experience will continue to drive the financial and commercial performance of the company, and I look forward to welcoming him on board early next year."

John will be based from the London Gentrack offices.
