ASX/Media Release

9 March 2012

Proposed Takeover Offer for Curnamona Energy Limited by Havilah Resources NL

Curnamona Energy Ltd (ASX:CUY) (Curnamona) advises that it has entered into a binding Takeover Bid Implementation Agreement (TBIA) with Havilah Resources NL (Havilah).

Subject to the terms of the TBIA, Havilah will offer to acquire all Curnamona ordinary shares not currently held by Havilah (representing approximately 54.6% of Curnamona's issued shares) and all Curnamona listed options not currently held by Havilah, by way of an off-market takeover bid. Havilah is offering:

- one (1) of its ordinary shares for every five (5) Curnamona ordinary shares; and
- one (1) of its ordinary shares for every fifteen (15) Curnamona listed options.

The bid is subject to a number of conditions including a 90% minimum acceptance condition. The full set of conditions is set out in schedule 1 to the TBIA, a copy of which is attached.

Due to the composition of the Boards of both companies, Drs Johnson and Giles have not been involved in any consideration or negotiation of Havilah's offer on behalf of Curnamona and, as announced on 5 March 2012, Curnamona has appointed Mr Phil Staveley as an independent director to the Board. Further, Mr Williams, whilst he is a Director of Havilah, has not been involved in negotiations with respect to the offer on behalf of Havilah. Each company has sought its own independent legal advice on the offer.

Curnamona will be required to engage an Independent Expert to opine on whether the offer is fair and reasonable to Curnamona security holders, which it is in the process of doing.

Curnamona's independent director, Mr Staveley, recommends that Curnamona security holders accept the takeover offer by Havilah, subject to the Independent Expert concluding that the offer is fair and reasonable to Curnamona security holders, and subject to there being no superior proposal and no material adverse event occurring in respect to Havilah, for the following reasons:

1. The offer for Curnamona shares represents a substantial premium of 72.5% to the closing price of Curnamona shares on 1 March 2012¹ and a 74.8% premium based on the companies' respective 90 market trading day volume weighted average price (vwap) to 1 March 2012²;
2. Curnamona shareholders and listed option holders will receive shares in Havilah, which is a more diversified company that has greater resources to manage both companies' projects;
3. Havilah is better placed to raise the substantial development capital required to develop Curnamona's projects;
4. Curnamona has limited cash reserves and will very likely need to raise additional capital within the next 12 months to continue the development of its projects;
5. Curnamona shareholders face the prospect of significant dilution from future capital raisings to fund the development of its projects;

¹ being the last trading day prior to both companies being placed in a trading halt to consider and negotiate the offer

² based on Curnamona's 90 market trading day vwap to 1 March 2012 of 7.04 cents and Havilah's 90 market trading day vwap of 61.53 cents to 1 March 2012.

6. Havilah's 45.4% shareholding in Curnamona is a significant deterrent to any alternative bidder; and
7. There is a real risk that Curnamona's share price will fall upon the lapsing of the Havilah bid.

Due to Mr Williams being a director of, and holding shares in Havilah, Mr Williams has determined it is not appropriate for him to make a recommendation in respect to Havilah's offer.

Mr Williams intends to accept the Havilah offer in respect of the Curnamona shares and listed options he owns or controls, subject to the Independent Expert concluding that the offer is fair and reasonable to Curnamona shareholders, and subject to there being no superior proposal and no material adverse event occurring in respect to Havilah.

The TBIA provides for, among other things, the exchange of confidential information that will assist Havilah to prepare a Bidder's statement and assist the Company to prepare a Target's Statement, and includes other customary terms and conditions.

The Company is preparing a Target's Statement which it intends, subject to timely receipt of the Independent Expert's report on the offer, to lodge with the Australian Securities & Investments Commission and send to shareholders at the same time as, or shortly following Havilah's Bidder's Statement and in mid to late April 2012.

The reasonable opinion of the Curnamona Board must be based on specific written legal, and any other appropriate, advice.

- (e) Nothing in this clause 8.3 prevents Havilah from making an offer to acquire all of the Employee Options during the Offer Period, provided that any offer made by Havilah to acquire the Employee Options must be for the Employee Option Consideration and the acquisition of the Employee Options must be completed by the date that is 1 month after the end of the Offer Period.
