

Release to the Australian Securities Exchange*Supply of XTEK Weapon Ancillary Components

Canberra – Wednesday 11 December 2013: XTEK Limited (ASX:XTE) is pleased to advise that it has received purchase orders to the value of $1.175m (GST inclusive) for the supply of specialist XTEK-developed weapon ancillary components to the Australian Defence Force (ADF).

XTEK has achieved considerable success in the design, development and marketing of its own range of specialist weapon ancillary parts for use by Defence and Law Enforcement agencies. These specific orders are for the supply of XTEK-designed and manufactured folding chassis units for rifles and ammunition magazine assemblies. These specialised parts and fittings for weapons used by the ADF are designed and manufactured by XTEK's Engineering Division in the Company's Adelaide facility.

XTEK CEO Mr. Brian Malcolm said "these purchase orders are not only a tremendous endorsement of XTEK's engineering capability and its investment in the development of its own intellectual property but emphasise the Company's reputation as a leading supplier of high-end tactical solutions to the Defence and Law Enforcement communities."

In addition, XTEK has also secured separate weapon ancillary purchase orders to the value of approximately $850,000 over recent weeks for non XTEK-manufactured components, underscoring its prominent position within the competitive Tactical Sales market.

XTEK Limited is a leading company in the Australian Homeland Security Market. XTEK's knowledge and expertise is focused on the delivery of protection and sustaining solutions for defence forces, state and federal law enforcement agencies, corrections and customs services, and government clients.
