Dear ASX

Trading halt request

This Company hereby requests a trading halt in respect of its securities effective immediately.

For the purposes of ASX Listing Rule 17.1, the following information is supplied:

1. The reason for the trading halt is that the Company is in the advanced stages of a major transaction involving offtake-linked bankable feasibility study and construction funding.
2. It is anticipated that the trading halt will be required for a period of one to two business days.
3. The Company is not aware of any information why the trading halt should not be granted.

Regards

Robert Hair
Company Secretary
