29 June 2015

Franking of dividends payable by Primary Health Care Limited (PRY)

On 9 June 2015 PRY announced that it expects to bring to account a cash tax refund of approximately $130m from the ATO in the FY 2015 financial statements.

The cash tax refund relates to deductions PRY expects to be allowable in respect of the acquisition of medical practices for FY 2008 to FY 2014.

As a consequence, it is anticipated that any final dividend for FY 2015 (payable 1H 2016) and any interim dividend for FY 2016 (payable 2H 2016), will be 100% unfranked.

PRY will review the status of its franking account in relation to any final dividend for FY 2016 (payable 1H 2017) closer to that time, and if necessary update the market on the status of its franking account appropriately.
