IOOF announces the sale of its Corporate Trust business

IOOF Holdings Ltd (ASX: IFL, OTC: IOOFY) (IOOF) and its fully owned subsidiary Australian Executor Trustees Limited (AET), today announced the sale of their AET Corporate Trust business to Sargon Capital Pty Ltd (Sargon) for a total purchase consideration of $51.6 million.

AET Corporate Trust's post-tax contribution to IOOF's underlying net profit after tax for the year to 30 June 2018 was $1.1m. The purchase price is payable 80% on completion, which is expected to occur by the end of October 2018. The balance is payable in two equal instalments as certain contract revenue is novated to the business entities being acquired by Sargon.

IOOF will retain its AET Private Trust business; a core part of IOOF's diversified business model which focuses on private client trustee services, estate planning and compensation trusts.

IOOF Managing Director, Christopher Kelaher commented, "The provision of corporate trust services to the financial services industry is a specialist area that sits outside IOOF's advice-led wealth management focus and is a stronger strategic fit with Sargon.

"The retention of the AET Private Trust business allows IOOF to focus on our retail and private client business; offering a full suite of financial solutions for our clients."

Completion of the sale is contingent on customary transaction conditions. IOOF will be working with Sargon to ensure the successful transition of the AET Corporate Trust staff and systems as well as ensuring a smooth transition for clients.
