RESIGNATION OF NON-EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Clarius Group Limited (CND) non-executive director, Gabrielle Trainor AO, has today resigned from the board.

“I regret that other pressing board and family commitments are making it increasingly difficult for me to give Clarius the time it needs.

I will be very happy to continue to support CEO Julian Sallabank and the staff of Clarius in any way possible including advice and business introductions, and will remain an active shareholder and supporter of the business,” she said.

Clarius Chairman, Garry Sladden, said the board would not appoint a new director at this stage in the interests of managing its operating costs.

“We have a small, skilled, dedicated and hard-working board of directors and with the recent arrival of Craig Saphin as a non-executive director I believe a three member board is adequate for where we are currently with the business.

On behalf of the board I would like to thank Gabrielle for her contribution over the past two years and we look forward to her continued support.”
