Forward Looking Statements

Certain oral and written statements contained or incorporated by reference in this presentation, including information as to the future financial or operating performance of the Company and its projects, constitute forward-looking statements. All statements, other than statements of historical fact, are forward-looking statements. The words “believe”, “expect”, “anticipate”, “contemplate”, “target”, “plan”, “intend”, “continue”, “budget”, “estimate”, “may”, “will”, “schedule” and similar expressions identify forward-looking statements.

Forward-looking statements include, among other things, statements regarding targets, estimates and assumptions in respect of nickel, gold or other metal production and prices, operating costs and results, capital expenditures, mineral reserves and mineral resources and anticipated grades and recovery rates. Forward-looking statements are necessarily based upon a number of estimates and assumptions related to future business, economic, market, political, social and other conditions that, while considered reasonable by the Company, are inherently subject to significant uncertainties and contingencies. Many known and unknown factors could cause actual events or results to differ materially from estimated or anticipated events or results reflected in such forward-looking statements. Such factors include, but are not limited to: competition; mineral prices; ability to meet additional funding requirements; exploration, development and operating risks; uninsurable risks; uncertainties inherent in ore reserve and resource estimates; dependence on third party smelting facilities; environmental regulation and liability; currency risks; effects of inflation on results of operations; factors relating to title to properties; native title and aboriginal heritage issues; dependence on key personnel; and share price volatility and also include unanticipated and unusual events, many of which are beyond the Company's ability to control or predict.

The Company disclaims any intent or obligation to update any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or results or otherwise. All forward-looking statement made in this presentation are qualified by the foregoing cautionary statements. Investors are cautioned that forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and, accordingly, not to put undue reliance on such statements.

(1) Jabiru implied equity value based on 553.3m Jabiru shares on issue as per latest Appendix 3B dated 18 January 2011, Independence’s closing share price of A$7.69 on 9 February 2011 and the exchange ratio of 1 IGO share for every 8 JML shares.

(2) VWAP’s calculated as at 4:15 PM AEDST on 9 February 2011 and excludes all trades on 9 February 2011 after this time (the trade associated with Independence’s acquisition of Metal X’s 10.48% holding in Jabiru is also excluded).

(3) Based on 138.8m Independence shares on issue as per latest Appendix 3B dated 19 November 2010, plus the issue of an additional 61.9m Independence shares under the Offer for those shares in Jabiru not acquired by Independence from Metals X on 9 February 2011.

Strategic Rationale for the Merger

Creation of a major Australian metals company

- Creates a high growth mid-cap mining house with a unique balance of production, development and exploration assets
- Includes two low-cost producing assets, two long-life development assets, a prospective exploration portfolio and a geological database providing future project generation

Cash flow across multiple assets and commodities

- Combined group's portfolio of production and development assets will diversify risk while providing for more growth opportunities
- Provides exposure to a range of metals including nickel, copper, zinc, gold and silver

Complementary businesses

- Highly complementary management and technical capabilities, with proven successful track records of exploration, project management and operations
- Independence's unique exploration technology is complemented by the Jabiru and Independence highly prospective exploration portfolios
- Like-minded management approaches with lean cost structures

Strong balance sheet

- The combined group will have significant balance sheet strength with pro forma net cash position of approximately A$270.9m⁽¹⁾
- Combination of a strong balance sheet and operating cash flows enhances financing options for the combined group's development assets and allows for the acceleration of exploration activities

Increased market capitalisation and liquidity

- Combined group to have a pro forma market capitalisation of approximately A$1.5b⁽²⁾
- Stronger capital markets profile with potential for ASX 100 index inclusion over time
- Enhanced scale likely to provide greater liquidity for investors
- Provides the combined group with greater funding flexibility to pursue a wider range of growth initiatives

Establishes a platform to become a leading Australian mid-cap metals company

Based on Independence's and Jabiru's reported net cash positions as at 31 December 2010, less cash paid by Independence to Metals X as consideration for the 10.48% interest in Jabiru acquired from Metals X on 9 February 2011.

(2)

Based on 138.8m Independence shares on issue as per Appendix 3B dated 19 November 2010, plus the issue of an additional 61.9m Independence shares under the Offer for those Shares in Jabiru not acquired by Independence from Metals X on 9 February 2011. Based on Independence's closing share price on 9 February 2011.

Benefits for all Shareholders

Jabiru Metals Shareholders

- ✓ Attractive Offer price and premium
- ✓ Exposure to a more diversified mix of production, development and exploration assets
- ✓ Enhanced access to capital and reduced funding risk for Stockman
- ✓ Independence has a track record of paying dividends
- ✓ Capital gains tax rollover relief likely for eligible shareholders

Independence Group Shareholders

- ✓ Enhanced project development pipeline
- ✓ Broader base metals exposure and commodity diversification to attractive metals including copper and zinc
- ✓ Leverage Independence's exploration technology and expertise with Jabiru's highly prospective VMS strike to generate significant value
- ✓ Access to strong near term cash flow from acquired production assets

- ✓ Enhanced scale and greater access to capital markets
- ✓ Potential for future ASX 100 index inclusion

Attractive Offer Price

The implied Offer price⁽¹⁾ represents a significant premium to the recent trading level of Jabiru shares
