ASX ANNOUNCEMENT

Central Sydney Area Health (CSAH) agrees to 3 year MobileFleet deal

Emerging asset and expense management group, Stratatel Ltd, today announced that Central Sydney Area Health had agreed to sign a three year deal with Stratatel Ltd for the provision of the Company's MobileFleet Management System.

Stratatel Ltd Managing Director Mike Fairclough said this agreement will not only add to the Company's long term recurrent revenue but also has tremendous strategic importance as it opens up the Health Sector as a genuine market for the Company's MobileFleet system.

C.S.A.H has between 900 – 1600 mobile telephones and is one of the largest Area Health Services in NSW and includes Royal Prince Alfred Hospital.

"We continue to secure and retain contracts that increase our recurrent monthly revenue from blue chip organisations such as Patrick Corporation, State Rail Authority, Rail Infrastructure Corporation, NSW Roads and Traffic Authority, State Transit Authority and now C.S.A.H." said Mr Fairclough. "Stratatel now has approximately 16,000 mobile phones under management, an exciting number of prospects currently under negotiation and in addition, we are starting to sign up new customers for our recently completed Infratel product".
