EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

This Explanatory Statement has been prepared for the information of Shareholders in relation to the business to be conducted at the Annual General Meeting.

The purpose of this Explanatory Statement is to provide Shareholders with all information known to the Company which is material to a decision on how to vote on the Resolutions in the accompanying Notice of Annual General Meeting.

This Explanatory Statement should be read in conjunction with the Notice of Annual General Meeting. Capitalised terms in this Explanatory Statement are defined in the Glossary or otherwise in the Explanatory Statement.

1. Financial Report

The Corporations Act requires the Directors' Report, Auditor's Report, and the financial statements of the Company for the year ended 28 February 2022 to be tabled at the Annual General Meeting. These reports are contained in the Company's 2022 Annual Report.

Neither the Corporations Act nor the Company's Constitution requires a vote of Shareholders on the Reports or Financial Statements. However, Shareholders will be given reasonable opportunity to raise questions on the reports and ask questions of the Company's auditor.

The Company advises that a copy of its 2022 Annual Report, is available to download at the website address, www.jupitermines.com.

2. Resolution 1: Remuneration Report

2.1 Background

The Remuneration Report is set out in the Directors' Report in the Company's 2022 Annual Report which is available at <https://www.jupitermines.com/investor-relations/reports/annual-reports>. The Remuneration Report sets out the remuneration arrangements for Directors and Key Management Personnel of the Company. The Chair will allow a reasonable opportunity for Shareholders to ask questions about, or make comments on, the Remuneration Report.

2.2 Voting on Remuneration Report

The Corporations Act requires the Company to put a resolution to Shareholders that the Remuneration Report be adopted. In accordance with section 250R(3) of the Corporations Act, the vote on the Resolution is advisory only and does not bind the Directors or the Company.

In accordance with Division 9 of Part 2G.2 of the Corporations Act, if 25% or more of votes that are cast are voted against the adoption of the Remuneration Report at two consecutive Annual General Meetings, Shareholders will be required to vote at the second of those Annual General Meetings on a resolution (a "spill resolution") that another meeting be held within 90 days at which all of the Company's Directors (other than the Managing Director) must go up for re-election.

At the date of this Notice, the position of Managing Director is effectively performed by the Company's acting Chief Executive Officer (who is also a Director), Mr Scott Winter.

At the 2020 and 2021 annual general meetings, the votes against the remuneration report were more than 25% of the votes cast on the resolution (a first and second strike). This required a spill resolution to be put to Shareholders at the 2021 meeting, which was passed, and a subsequent Spill Meeting held. Accordingly, if more than 25% of votes are cast against this resolution at this Meeting, a spill resolution will not be required to be put to Shareholders.

2.3 Voting exclusions

The Company will disregard any votes cast on this Resolution 1 by or on behalf of members of Key Management Personnel whose remuneration details are included in the Remuneration Report and any closely related parties of those persons.

Key Management Personnel of the Company are the Directors and those other persons having authority and responsibility for planning, directing and controlling the activities of the Company, directly or indirectly. The Remuneration Report identifies the Company's Key Management Personnel for the financial year ended 2022. Their closely related parties are defined by the Corporations Act and include certain of their family members, dependants and companies they control.

If you appoint the Chair as your proxy and have not directed him how to vote, you are expressly authorising the Chair to cast your undirected proxy on this Resolution 1 in accordance with his stated intentions. The Chair intends to vote all undirected proxies FOR this Resolution 1.

If you appoint any other member of the Board, a member of senior management who is named in the Remuneration Report, or their closely related parties as your proxy, they will not be able to vote your proxy on this resolution unless you have directed them how to vote.

6. Resolution 5: Adoption of New Constitution

6.1 Background

The Company's current Constitution was adopted in July 2018. Since that time there have been a number of changes to the Corporations Act, ASX Listing Rules and ASX Settlement Operating Rules that affect matters set out in the Constitution.

Accordingly, the Company has conducted a review of the Constitution to bring it into line with current law and best market practice. As the changes introduced affect numerous provisions in the Constitution, it is proposed that a new constitution be adopted, rather than amending the current Constitution.

A summary of the key material differences between the current Constitution and the New Constitution is set out below. This summary is not intended to be an exhaustive explanation of all the changes effected by the adoption of the New Constitution. A copy of the New Constitution will be tabled at the Meeting and is available on the Company's website: www.jupitermines.com/2022AGM.

6.2 Summary of Proposed Changes

Material change	Explanation of change
Hybrid shareholder meeting	The Constitution already contemplates a general meeting being held at a physical location, or at two or more locations using technology to facilitate attendance by Shareholders online (Hybrid Meeting). The New Constitution will provide greater flexibility and clarity around how the Company may conduct Hybrid Meetings in the future. More specifically, the New Constitution will confirm the ability of the Company to hold meetings using or with the assistance of any technology approved by the Directors or in any manner permitted by law (subject to it being a Hybrid Meeting). Consequential provisions are also included to provide clarity around procedural matters, including to ensure that 'online' attendees are treated as being present at the meeting and are counted for a quorum, and to confirm that the Directors may prescribe the detailed procedures by which meetings held with technological assistance may be conducted. The New Constitution does not permit wholly "virtual" online meetings. Other related amendments include confirming that Shareholders can return instruments appointing a proxy, attorney or corporate representative to the Company in any manner specified by the Directors for that purpose in the notice of meeting and that Board meetings may be convened and held in any manner permitted by law.

Maximum joint holders of shares	In April 2017, ASX announced that the current Australian Clearing House Electronic Subregister System (CHESS) was to be replaced with a new system that uses distributed ledger technology (e.g. 'blockchain' technology) and will be known as the ASX Clearing and Settlement Platform (CSP). It is currently anticipated that the CSP will be operative in April 2023. In preparation for the CSP, ASX has recommended that listed companies change their constitutions to enable the registration of up to four joint holders as permitted to be registered under CSP. The Constitution does not currently provide a maximum number of joint holders to be recorded in relation to Shares. The New Constitution allows the Company to register the maximum number of joint holders permitted under the ASX Settlement Operating Rules. This will ensure that the Company's Constitution will enable the maximum number of joint holders to be registered once the CSP becomes operative.
Confirmation of Director appointment	The Constitution provides that a Director who is appointed to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the Board must retire at the next annual general meeting after their appointment, and is eligible for re-election at that meeting. The New Constitution contains amended rules relating to the election of Directors which are more closely aligned with the Listing Rules. The New Constitution provides that (with the exception of the Managing Director) a Director who is appointed to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the Board must have their appointment confirmed at the next annual general meeting after their appointment The proposed Constitution also provides that where a member is intending to nominate a person for election at a general meeting, they must give the Company notice of that intention at least 35 business days before the meeting or at least 30 business days where the Directors have been duly requested by members under the Corporations Act to call the general meeting, but not more than 90 business days before the meeting (as opposed to 35 business days before the meeting or 30 business days where the Directors have been duly requested by members under the Corporations Act to call the general meeting under the current Constitution). These changes recognise the need to give 28 clear days notice of the general meeting and the time required for printing and distribution of a notice of meeting along with the administrative difficulty of having a long nominations period.
Removal of Directors	The New Constitution allows the Company to remove a Director by resolution at a general meeting and provides that, at least 2 months' notice must be given to the Company of the intention to move a resolution to remove a Director at a general meeting. Where such removal is intended, notice must be given to the relevant Director. Additionally, if it is intended that a Director be removed, the proposed rules expressly give the Director an opportunity to submit a written statement to the Company for circulation to the members and to speak to the motion to remove the Director at the general meeting. This amends the current Constitution which simply provides that a Director ceases to be a Director if they resign or are removed under the Constitution.

Director remuneration	While the rules in the New Constitution relating to Directors' remuneration are broadly in line with the rules in the current Constitution, the New Constitution clarifies that Non-Executive Directors will be remunerated by: an amount or value of remuneration each year (if any) as the Company in general meeting determines; or an aggregate amount or value of remuneration not exceeding the maximum amount as the Company in general meeting determines.
Direct voting	The New Constitution permits members, where the Directors have so determined, to vote directly on resolutions considered at a general meeting by submitting their votes to the Company prior to the meeting (either electronically, by post or by fax). 'Direct voting' enables a member to vote on resolutions to be considered at a meeting without the need to physically attend the meeting or appoint a proxy. Even if the Directors decide to introduce direct voting, the proposed new rules preserve Shareholders' entitlement to appoint proxies or attorneys if they wish. It is not currently the Company's intention to introduce this form of voting but the New Constitution provides the flexibility to do so.
Proportional takeover provisions	The New Constitution contains proportional takeover approval provisions in rule 5. The Company's current Constitution currently contains, in a schedule to the Constitution, proportional takeover approval provisions requiring Shareholders to approve any takeover offer for only a proportion of each Shareholder's Shares that have no force or effect until approved in accordance with section 648G of the Corporations Act. The resolution to adopt the New Constitution does not include the approval of the proposed new rule 5. Instead, the new proportional takeover approval provisions will require a separate approval which is the subject of Resolution 6. The explanatory notes associated with that resolution are set out below.
Indemnity and insurance	The New Constitution's indemnity and insurance provisions will extend to directors and secretaries of subsidiaries of the Company, in addition to directors and secretaries of the Company itself.
General	Relevant definitions have been updated to reflect current terminology and the various changes to the Corporations Act and Listing Rules. Where possible the New Constitution relies on terms defined in the Corporations Act, Listing Rules and ASX Settlement Operating Rules.

6.3 Board Recommendation

The Board unanimously recommends that Shareholders vote in favour of approving the New Constitution in Item 6.

The Chair intends to vote undirected proxies in favour of Item 6.

7. Resolution 6: Approval of Proportional Takeover Provisions

7.1 Background

As a part of the proposal to adopt the New Constitution pursuant to Resolution 5, it is intended to insert into the New Constitution the proposed rule 5 (as set out in Schedule 1 to this Explanatory Statement), which contains proportional takeover provisions. Consideration and approval of Resolution 6 is conditional on approval of Item 5. These provisions are designed to assist Shareholders to receive proper value for their Shares if a proportional takeover bid is made for the Company.

Approval of the proposed proportional takeover provisions must be approved by a special resolution, requiring approval of 75% of the votes cast by Shareholders present and eligible to vote (in person, by proxy, by attorney or, in the case of a corporate Shareholder, by a corporate representative). If approved, the proposed proportional takeover provisions will be in exactly the same terms as rule 5 of the New Constitution and will have effect for a three year period commencing on 26 July 2022. Rule 5 is set out in full in Schedule 1 of this Notice.

7.2 Effect

If a proportional takeover bid is made, the Directors must:

- convene a general meeting no less than 14 days before the end of the bid period; and
- allow Shareholders to vote on a resolution to approve the proportional takeover bid.

The bidder and its associates are not allowed to vote on the resolution.

If the bid is rejected, binding acceptances are required to be rescinded, and all unaccepted offers and offers failing to result in binding contracts are taken to have been withdrawn.

If the bid is approved, the transfers resulting from the bid may be registered provided they comply with other provisions of the Corporations Act and the New Constitution.

If no resolution is voted on by the above deadline, a resolution approving the bid is taken to have been passed.

The proportional takeover provisions do not apply to full takeover bids and will only apply until 26 July 2025, unless renewed by Shareholders.

7.3 Reasons for Adoption

As a proportional takeover bid involves an offer for only a proportion of each Shareholder's Shares, a bidder may acquire control of the Company:

- without Shareholders having the chance to sell all their Shares, leaving them as part of a minority interest in the Company; and
- without payment of an adequate control premium.

The Board considers that the proportional takeover provisions should be approved as they lessen the risk of a bidder obtaining control without adequately compensating existing Shareholders as they allow Shareholders to decide collectively whether a proportional takeover bid is acceptable and appropriately priced.

7.4 Potential Advantages and Disadvantages

Advantages	Disadvantages
Proportional takeover provisions provide Shareholders:	Proportional takeover provisions may:
the right to decide whether a proportional takeover bid should proceed;	discourage proportional takeover bids;
protection from being locked in as a minority Shareholder;	reduce Shareholders' opportunities to sell Shares at a premium;
increased bargaining power; and	restrict the ability of individual Shareholders to deal with their Shares as they see fit; and the view of majority of Shareholders which may assist individual Shareholders to decide whether to accept or reject an offer under proportional takeover bid.	reduce the likelihood of a proportional takeover bid succeeding.

The Board considers that the potential advantages for Shareholders of the proportional takeover approval provisions outweigh the potential disadvantages.

7.5 Knowledge of Acquisition Proposals

As at the date of this Notice, no Director is aware of any proposal by any person to acquire, or to increase the extent of, a substantial interest in the Company.

7.6 Board Recommendation

The Board unanimously recommends that Shareholders vote in favour of the approval of the proportional takeover provisions.

The Chair intends to vote undirected proxies in favour of Item 7.
