MONADELPHOUS SECURES $100M IN OIL AND GAS CONTRACT EXTENSIONS

Leading engineering group Monadelphous Group Limited (ASX:MND) ("Monadelphous" or "the Company") today announced it has secured a contract renewal, and a contract extension, for the provision of oil and gas services in Papua New Guinea and the Northern Territory, valued at approximately $100 million.

In Papua New Guinea, Monadelphous's contract with Oil Search Limited for field construction services at its oil and gas production and support facilities in the Southern Highlands Province has been renewed for a further three years.

In the Northern Territory, the contract to provide onshore maintenance and shutdown services at the ConocoPhillips-operated Darwin LNG facility has been extended for two years.

"These contract extensions reflect the emphasis we place on maintaining our relationships with our customers and our experience in working on key oil and gas projects in Australia and overseas," Monadelphous Managing Director Rob Velletri said.
