

ASX AND MEDIA ANNOUNCEMENT

15 January 2016

MINREX & HELLO CALL OFF RTO

MinRex Resources NL (MinRex) (ASX:MRR) and Hello Real Estate Limited (Hello) advise that the RTO they were pursuing has been called off after acknowledging that the state of market is very volatile and is not conducive to raising the capital required to go forward with the RTO.

Accordingly, MinRex and the shareholders of Hello have agreed that the Share Purchase Agreement they had entered into, has today come to an end.

MinRex is consulting with the ASX to resume quotation of its shares as soon as possible and will continue with its current exploration portfolio.
