China Revenue Update - October

Further to the Quarterly Report released on 31 October 2012 and having laid the foundations for its operations in China, SmartTrans is happy to announce further growth in revenue in China.

Whilst in the early stage of generating revenue from the provision of its online and mobile payment projects, SmartTrans is pleased to report billings in October of approximately CNY457,000 (AUD70,300) from its activities in China.

SmartTrans continues to expand its range of products and services delivering internet and mobile payment services, lottery and sports wagering and mobile applications in the PRC.
