oOh!'s Chair, Tony Faure, welcomed Mr Miles, who was appointed following an extensive search for an additional independent Non-Executive Director, on behalf of the Board.

"We are delighted that Tim is joining our Board. His significant experience, both internationally and in New Zealand, notably in technology and digital development, will be a much-valued addition to the existing skills and experience of his fellow Directors," Mr Faure said.

Mr Miles has also held senior roles at IBM, Data General Corporation and Unisys Corporation and will bring to the Board and Company insights into technology, sales and marketing.

The Board intends to appoint an additional suitable independent Non-Executive Director in the near future.
