The Company advises the appointment of Lawrence (Lawrie) Litzow to the Board.

Lawrie brings a broad range of skills and experience to the Board. He has many years experience in public and corporate fields ranging from being a member of the Small Business Council advising the federal Minister for Small Business of the day, to public company directorships in diverse industries. He is a chartered accountant by profession, but has spent the last 14 years in the corporate arena.

The Company looks forward to working with Lawrie as part of its change from start up company to an emerging commercial enterprise.
