Cancellation of Share Options

Leading e-health company Pro Medicus (ASX: PME) advises that the 1,450,000 share options granted to Board members under the Employee Share Option Scheme as announced on 26 August 2010 have been cancelled with the agreement of each relevant director. The issue of securities, including share options, to directors requires the approval of shareholders in accordance with the ASX Listing Rules. Attached are Appendices 3Y in respect of directors' interests and an updated Appendix 3B which reflect this.

PME proposes that, subject to shareholder approval, the same number of options be issued to Board members on the same terms as that described in the 26 August announcement (exercise price $1.15, 5 year vesting period, 10 years expiration). It is expected that the company will seek the approval at the 2010 AGM of the company, expected to be held 19 November 2010. Further details in relation to the proposed issue will be provided to shareholders as part of the notice of AGM.
