Managing Director update

PepinNini Minerals Ltd (PepinNini, the Company) advises that Rebecca Holland-Kennedy has resigned today as Managing Director and filled a casual vacancy as a Non-executive Director, a position she will hold until the AGM. At the AGM she will stand for re-election as a Director of the Company.

The Company will commence the search for a new managing director with appropriate skills to manage the diverse company that is PepinNini.

Rebecca Holland-Kennedy stepped into the role of Managing Director on the death of her husband Norman Kennedy. Norman and Rebecca founded PepinNini in 2002 and listed the Company 2005. They ran the Company together till Norman's untimely death in 2013.

The Company has had success with different commodities, uranium in 2008 and lithium in 2017 and again in 2021. The addition of kaolin-halloysite is an exciting new direction for PepinNini.

The Board of PepinNini would like to thank Rebecca for her diligence, good management, vision and strong commitment to shareholders and the communities in which PepinNini operates.

David Turvey, the Company's Chairman, said, "The Company acknowledges Ms Holland-Kennedy's commitment and contribution to PepinNini, and will work with her to ensure an effective transition of essential Company knowledge."
