FY25 delivered another year of meeting or exceeding guidance

Group financial performance continues to set new records.

- Several consecutive years of revenue and EBIT(A) growth at or better than guidance.
- The improving quality of the business is evident in the EBIT(A) CAGR of 23.7% over the past four years², higher than revenue CAGR of 12.7%.
- The scale of the Group, balance sheet strength and strong free cash flow generated in FY25 set a foundation for future growth and consistent returns to shareholders.
- Leverage reduction in recent years will flow through to interest savings in FY26.
- As illustrated below, achieving mid-point of guidance will continue the growth trend of recent years.

1. Underlying EBIT(A) is before amortisation of Customer Related Intangibles.

3. FY26e represents the mid-point of the guidance range for both Revenue and EBIT(A)

Free cash generation supports long-term value creation

- Perenti is consistently delivering strong free cash flow¹, delivering another new record of $286 million in FY25.
- This result was assisted by the sale of equipment and inventory in Botswana of $92 million but, even on a normalised basis, underlying free cash flow of $195 million still represents record free cash flow.

- Efficient and disciplined allocation of capital is a key focus in generating long-term returns for shareholders.
- Successive years of effective capital allocation has built the foundation for the strong free cash flow that the business is delivering.
- The framework below outlines the options that are considered to ensure capital is allocated appropriately.

- The contract with NGM (Goldrush) is the first USA job for Barminto and is demonstrating of our underground capability.
- The opportunity to expand at the Goldrush project and other North American underground projects remains significant.

Drilling Activity Upside

- The market for production drilling performed by Swick, Ausdrill and Ranger continues to exhibit strong demand.
- Exploration activity for gold and copper has increased in recent months and is expected to rise further in 2026.
- As a global leader, Perenti's drilling businesses are positioned to benefit from increasing activity.
