EU Securitisation Regulation, UK Securitisation Regulation and Japanese Risk Retention Rules

It is confirmed that, as at the date of this report:

- Macquarie Bank Limited continues to retain, as an originator, on an ongoing basis, a material net economic interest of not less than 5% in the PUMA Series 2024-1 Trust securitisation transaction determined in accordance with Article 6(1) of the EU Securitisation Regulation and Article 6(1) of the UK Securitisation Regulation (the Retention), as required for the purposes of Article 5(1)(d) of the EU Securitisation Regulation (which does not take into account any relevant national measures) (the EU Retention) and determined in accordance with Article 6(1) of the UK Securitisation Regulation (the UK Retention), and, collectively with the EU Retention, the Retention) (but solely as such articles are interpreted and applied on the Closing Date);
- the Retention is comprised of an interest in the first loss tranche (being the Class B Notes) in accordance with Article 6(3)(d) of the EU Securitisation Regulation and Article 6(3)(d) of the UK Securitisation Regulation (but solely as such articles are interpreted and applied on the Closing Date);
- Macquarie Bank Limited has not changed the manner in which it retains the Retention, except as permitted under the EU Securitisation Regulation and UK Securitisation Regulation (but solely as such articles are interpreted and applied on the Closing Date);
- Macquarie Bank Limited has not disposed of, assigned, transferred or created or caused to exist any lien over its interest in the Retention, except as permitted by the EU Securitisation Regulation and UK Securitisation Regulation (but solely as such articles are interpreted and applied on the Closing Date); and
- Macquarie Bank Limited has not utilised or entered into credit risk mitigation techniques, any short positions or any other hedge against the credit risk of its interest in the Retention, except as permitted under the EU Securitisation Regulation and UK Securitisation Regulation (but solely as such articles are interpreted and applied on the Closing Date).

For the avoidance of doubt, Macquarie Bank Limited is under no obligation to comply with any amendments to EU or UK technical standards, guidance or policy statements introduced in relation to the EU Risk Retention Requirements or the UK Risk Retention Requirements after the Closing Date. Investors should note that the obligation of Macquarie Bank Limited to comply with the EU Risk Retention Requirements and the UK Risk Retention Requirements is strictly contractual pursuant to the terms of the Securitisation Regulation Undertaking and solely as such EU Risk Retention Requirements and the UK Risk Retention Requirements are interpreted and applied on the Closing Date.

While the retention referred to above is being implemented for the purpose of Article 6 of the EU Securitisation Regulation, it may also satisfy some or all of the requirements of the rules and regulatory capital requirements with respect to the investment by certain Japanese financial institutions in securitisations transactions as published on 15 March 2019 by the Japanese Financial Services Agency (the Japanese Risk Retention Rule). However, none of Macquarie Bank Limited, Macquarie Securitisation Limited, the Manager, the Issuer, Trustee, the Security Trustee, the Arranger, any Joint Lead Manager or any other person makes any statement or representation in relation to the application of the Japanese Risk Retention Rule to the PUMA Series 2024-1 transaction and in particular the regulatory capital consequences under the Japanese Risk Retention Rule for any person who invests in or holds any interest in any Notes, and investors (or prospective investors) should make their own independent investigation and seek their own independent advice (i) as to the scope and applicability of the Japanese Risk Retention Rule; (ii) as to the sufficiency of the information described in this report and the Information Memorandum for the PUMA Series 2024-1 transaction and (iii) as to the compliance with the Japanese Risk Retention Rule in respect of any transaction contemplated by this report or the Information Memorandum for the PUMA Series 2024-1 transaction.
