Metals of Africa Expands African Footprint Company completes acquisition of five Copper-Gold Projects in Tanzania

Metals of Africa Limited (ASX: MTA) (the Company) is pleased to announce that it has completed the acquisition initially contemplated by the Heads of Agreement signed with Select Exploration Limited (ASX: SLT) and announced in detail to the ASX on 21 January 2014.

In summary, MTA has acquired 100% equity in five (5) copper-gold projects by issuing 5,000,000 fully paid ordinary MTA shares to SLT. These shares are subject to a voluntary escrow agreement, involving a restriction on trading for a period of 12 months from the date of issue of those shares.

The Company advises that it is continuing to explore its options in relation to the Option Agreement to establish a Joint Venture with SLT over a suite of exploration projects in Gabon, and expects to advise the ASX in relation to this in due course.

Please refer to the announcements made to the ASX on 21 January and 3 February 2014 for further information in relation to both the five (5) projects acquired and the potential Gabon JV.

An Appendix 3B is enclosed in relation to the issue of the securities.
