Tabcorp signs new agreement for Data and Content

Highlights

- Tabcorp signs new agreement for RAS to provide Domestic Data and Content for a four-year term, reinforcing the strength of the long-standing partnership between the two businesses
- Contract value over the four-year term is $9.1 million plus indexation[1]
- The agreement is expanded from the initial agreement signed in May 2023 to include RAS's Fast Form service

RAS Technology Holdings Limited (ASX: RTH) ("RAS" or the "Company"), a leading independent provider of fully integrated premium data and enhanced content, Operator Managed Trading Platform and Managed Trading Services and digital, publications and media services to the global racing and wagering industries, is pleased to announce it has entered into a new agreement with Tabcorp to supply market-leading data and content, including RAS' Fast Form service.

The agreement value is $9.1 million plus indexation over the four-year term. Under the agreement, RAS supplies content, analytics, and predictive models to Tabcorp to support their digital, retail and vision assets. RAS signed an agreement with Tabcorp in May 2023 to provide its market-leading analytics, predictive models, retail, Sky and other premium content, such as RAS' visual Fast Form product.

RAS Technology Managing Director and CEO, Stephen Crispe, said:

"The new agreement reflects Tabcorp's continued confidence in RAS's data and technology capabilities. Our relationship with Tabcorp spans more than 15 years, and it is pleasing to see it continue to grow in both scale and scope. The addition of the Fast Form service is a further example of how we are strengthening this partnership and delivering high-quality products and experiences that enhance customer engagement and drive turnover."

Tabcorp Chief Wagering Officer, Michael Fitzsimons, said:

"We're pleased to be extending our partnership with Racing and Sports, a relationship we've invested in over many years and one that continues to deliver. Their data and content are best-in-class, and this new agreement is a reflection of the importance our punters place on their detailed form, analysis and tips. We're looking forward to what we can build together as we continue to evolve and innovate the customer experience."

This announcement was authorised for release by the Board of RAS.

[1] Subject to the termination rights set out in Annexure A

Annexure A

EFFECTIVE DATE

There are no material conditions that need to be satisfied before Tabcorp becomes legally bound to proceed with the contract. The contract commencement date is 1 July 2026.

TERM

The term of the contract is four (4) years.

SERVICES TO BE PROVIDED

Tabcorp has engaged the Company to provide licensed racing data and content to Tabcorp including the addition of Fast Form infographics.

The licence granted to Tabcorp is non-exclusive. RAS retains the right to license the same data and content to other parties, including other wagering operators.

CONSIDERATION

$2.27 million per annum (excluding GST) over the term of the contract. Fees are subject to annual CPI indexation, capped at 5% per annum. RAS may also pass through, on a cost-recovery basis, any increases in the cost of provision arising from third-party service provider cost changes.

TERMINATION

Either party may terminate the agreement on 30 days' written notice in specified circumstances, including where a change in relevant law prevents performance or a government agency requires or recommends termination. Either party may also terminate on 30 days' written notice if a force majeure event continues for more than 20 Business Days. After the first 12 months of the term, either party may terminate the agreement for convenience by giving 6 months' prior written notice. The agreement also contains customary termination for unremedied default provisions and customary post-termination obligations, with certain clauses surviving termination, including accrued rights, dispute resolution and other provisions intended to survive by their nature.
