- ✓ Geographic alignment
- ✓ Unified ownership of the Trutex Brand
- ✓ Presence in new International Markets
- ✓ Strong Synergy Potential
- ✓ High Calibre executive team to continue running the business

- > Global Uniform Solutions has entered into an exclusive, non-binding agreement to acquire 100% of Trutex Group subject to conditions including confirmatory due diligence
- > Trutex Group is a UK-headquartered, global schoolwear supplier with its own brand “Trutex” and established international presence in China, Middle East, Canada and Europe
- > Schoolblazer’s team and operations are highly complementary to Trutex Group and its international markets are long-term opportunities for Schoolblazer model rollouts
- > Mountcastle has had a long history with Trutex Group, acquiring the Trutex schoolwear brand IP from them in 2010 which it continues to supply to Australian schools
- > The offer values Trutex Group at c. 5x CY25 estimated EBITDA of 2.5 million pounds (remains subject to due diligence)
- > H&G expects to fund the consideration from its balance sheet, GUS cashflows and banking facilities
- > Transaction timeline anticipates completion in July 2025, H&G will update shareholders as it progresses

Total - GUS	46	45	3.8%

- GUS EBITDA is weighted to 2nd half due to Schoolblazer seasonal earnings
- GUS schoolwear sales growth of ~7% with strong margins
- Continued expansion of Schoolblazer up 15% on H1 FY24 (ex. FX impact) with 19 new school contracts secured for FY25 back to school
- Australian schoolwear sales up 8% to $20m, underpinned by robust demand after a weaker FY24
- Mountcastle and Schoolblazer business unit EBITDA in line with pro-forma expectations
- Deliberate short-term investment at corporate level in integration (systems, personnel changes, travel) and the establishment of new business in Schoolblazer Australia which has delivered a maiden school contract win

H1FY25 represents the 6 months ended 31 March 2025. All figures are unaudited. Mountcastle’s historical audited financial year end has been 30 June and Schoolblazer’s 30 September. Alignment of financial year ends and consolidation of accounts is underway to present consolidated (into H&G) audited accounts from 1 October 2025.

¹ Mountcastle sales exclude historical discontinued low-margin wholesale contract, $670k in H1 FY24 and $20k in H1 FY25 | Australian business unit of Mountcastle reported on a post AASB16 basis

² Schoolblazer earnings are heavily weighted to the 2nd half - see seasonality table. Percentage in Seasonality table reflected H1 FY24 as a percentage of full year FY24 financial results

³ Pro-Forma normalised FY24 (Schoolblazer acquisition completed in October 2024) as previously reported. Unaudited on a consolidated basis due to differing financial year ends

GUS FINANCIALS

Strong combined balance sheet with funding capacity for growth

GUS - 31 March 25	AUD$'000
Cash	3,753
Inventory	51,125
Debtors and other assets	16,854
Current Assets	71,732
Property, Plant & Equipment	7,005

Bank Loans	24,213
Other non-current liabilities	8,897
Non - Current Liabilities	45,350
Total Liabilities	60,101
Net Assets	39,775

Balance sheet strength:

- GUS remains well-capitalised to support investment and growth, with H&G’s balance sheet sitting behind it

Global financing facility with a supportive bank:

- Mountcastle’s existing bank has committed expanded global banking facilities for GUS
- Core leverage at 1.5x Debt/EBITDA - room to increase for acquisitions and amortise back to that level
- Expanded facilities provide flexible trade finance arrangements to manage inventory peaks in both hemispheres - trade finance expected to reduce to zero annually

Inventory build for contracted school base:

- Balance largely reflects the Schoolblazer stock build towards its key back-to-school period in July/August for its 250+ exclusive contracted schools

Strong cash conversion and dividends:

- Strong cashflow conversion through Mountcastle’s back to school period (Dec-Feb)
- $3.4m dividends paid to H&G

Note: Unaudited accounts. Mountcastle’s historical audited financial year end has been 30 June and Schoolblazer’s 30 September. Alignment of financial year ends and consolidation of accounts is underway to present consolidated (into H&G) audited accounts from 1 October 2025. Balances may change as prior consolidated audited balance dates are updated.

H&G Investment Portfolio and Reported Financials

Portfolio excluding GUS as at 31 March (gross assets)¹

Completion of HCF transaction

- H&G completed the acquisition of H&G High Conviction Fund (HCF)'s assets in exchange for shares in H&G at an issue price of $0.30 per share on 17 April 2025
- The transaction strengthened the balance sheet adding $3.4m cash and $12.1m listed securities on a 31 March Pro-Forma basis

Continued Simplification and Strong Liquidity

- $35m cash and liquid investments pro-forma HCF as at 31 March 2025 - flexibility to support GUS M&A and growth
- $5.3m cash realised from listed and fixed income investments
- Wind-down of funds management activities
- Continued focus on realisation of remaining non-core assets

Growth of Disruptive Packaging

Disruptive Packaging (DP) remains H&G key unlisted asset:

- DP is a founder led, high growth business with global potential
- DP expects to end FY25 with c. $40m revenue despite tariff volatility slowing sales in the 2nd half
- DP was a $5m revenue business in FY22 around the time of H&G's investment and rapidly grown in each year since
- The company is assessing opportunities to further accelerate its push into the US$7 billion North American packaging market
- H&G has an interest of c. 15% of DP through its $8.2m balance sheet position and c. $5m through a managed syndicate

¹ Includes $15.5m impact to net assets as a result of the High Conviction Fund scrip acquisition (completed post H1 FY25 period end)
