

SEEK appoints new CIO

SEEK Limited (ASX: SEK) today announced the appointment of David Gibbons as Chief Information Officer (CIO), effective October 2011.

David brings to the role over 20 years of IT experience gained across Europe, the USA, Asia and Australia. He has held senior roles with high-profile organisations including Nike, GAP and GE and is currently CIO of GE Capital Asia.

David commences the role on 1 October 2011. In the interim, the division is being led by SEEK's Managing Director of Employment, Joe Powell, with support from senior IT management.
