EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

This Explanatory Statement has been prepared for the information of Shareholders in relation to the business to be conducted at the Company's 2017 General Meeting.

The purpose of this Explanatory Statement is to provide Shareholders with all information known to the Company which is material to a decision on how to vote on the Resolutions in the preceding Notice of General Meeting.

This Explanatory Statement should be read in conjunction with the Notice of General Meeting. Capitalised terms in this Explanatory Statement are defined in the Glossary.

RESOLUTION 1: APPROVAL TO ISSUE SHARES TO CHINA AUTOMATIVE HOLDINGS LIMITED

1.2 Background

CAHL has offered to subscribe for up to 4,935,002 Shares with a value of up to $1.48 million at an issue price of $0.30 per share each (CAHL Shares) to be used by the Company to continue the development of its current sales strategy and for general working capital purposes.

The issue of the CAHL Shares by the Company will not increase the interest of CAHL in the Company in excess of 62.81% of the Company's share capital. CAHL will be in compliance with the Corporations Act and in particular, the 3% creep exemption in item 9 of section 611 of the Corporations Act.

1.3 Listing Rules

Listing Rule 10.11 provides that, unless a specified exception applies, a company must not issue or agree to issue securities to a related party without the approval of ordinary shareholders. A "related party", for the purposes of the Listing Rules, has the meaning given to it in the Corporations Act, and includes the directors of a company and any entity controlled by a director of the company (unless the entity is also controlled by the Company).

As such, Shareholder approval is sought under Listing Rule 10.11 as Resolution 1 proposes the issue of securities to China Automotive Holdings Limited (CAHL), who is a related party of the Company by virtue of it being an entity controlled by Mr Richard John Siemens, the Non-Executive Chairman of the Company.

As Shareholder approval is being sought under Listing Rule 10.11, approval is not also required under Listing Rule 7.1.

1.4 Listing Rule 10.13

In compliance with the information requirements of Listing Rule 10.13, Shareholders are advised of the following information:

(a) Name of person to receive securities

China Automotive Holdings Limited, a company associated with Mr Richard John Siemens, the Non-executive Chairman of the Company.

(b) Maximum number of securities to be issued

The maximum number of CAHL Shares that may be acquired by CAHL under Resolution 1 is 4,935,002.

(c) Date of issue

The Company anticipates that the CAHL Shares will be issued on or about 25 May 2017 and in any event not later than 1 month after the date of the General Meeting (or such later date as permitted by ASX waiver or modification of the Listing Rules).

(d) Relationship with the Company

The CAHL Shares are proposed to be issued to CAHL. CAHL is controlled by Mr Richard John Siemens, the Non-Executive Chairman of the Company, and is, as such, a related party of the Company.

(e) Issue price

The price per CAHL Share acquired is $0.30 per share.

(f) Terms of issue

The CAHL Shares will be fully paid ordinary shares in the capital of the Company on the same terms and conditions as the Company's existing Shares and rank equally in all respects with the existing Shares.

The Company will apply to ASX for official quotation of the CAHL Shares.

(g) Intended use of the funds raised

The purpose of the issue is to raise up to $1.48 million for the Company. The intended use of the funds raised under the issue is intended to allow the Company to continue the development of its current sales strategy and for general working capital purposes.

(h) Voting exclusion statement

A voting exclusion statement for Resolution 1 is included in the Notice of General Meeting preceding this Explanatory Statement.

1.5 Regulatory Requirements: Corporations Act

Chapter 2E of the Corporations Act regulates the provision of "financial benefits" to "related parties" by a public company. Chapter 2E prohibits a public company from giving a financial benefit to a related party of the public company unless either:

- (a) the giving of the financial benefit falls within one of the nominated exceptions to the provisions; or
- (b) prior shareholder approval is obtained to the giving of the financial benefit.

A "related party" is widely defined under the Corporations Act, and includes the directors of the company and any entity controlled by the directors of the company (unless that entity is also controlled by the company). As such, CAHL is a related party of the Company for the purposes of Section 208 of the Corporations Act.

A "financial benefit" is construed widely and in determining whether a financial benefit is being given, Section 229 of the Corporations Act requires that any consideration that is given is disregarded, even if the consideration is adequate. It is necessary to look at the economic and commercial substance and the effect of the transaction in determining the financial benefit. Section 229 of the Corporations Act includes as an example of a financial benefit, the issuing of securities or the granting of an option to a related party.

The issue of the CAHL Shares under Resolution 1 constitutes the provision of a financial benefit to a related party.

One of the nominated exceptions to the requirement to obtain shareholder approval under Chapter 2E of the Corporations Act is where the provision of the financial benefit is on terms that would be reasonable in the circumstances if the Company and the related party were dealing at arm's length (or on terms less favourable than arm's length).

Approval is not being sought under Chapter 2E of the Corporations Act in this Resolution 1 as it is the view of the Directors that the issue of the CAHL Shares by the Company to CAHL is being made on an arm's length basis.

1.6 Board Recommendation

The Directors do not consider that from an economic and commercial point of view, there are any costs or detriments, including opportunity costs or taxation consequences for the Company or benefits foregone by the Company in granting the CAHL Shares to CAHL pursuant to this Resolution 1.

The Directors, other than Mr Richard John Siemens who has a material personal interest in the outcome of Resolution 1 and Mr Raymond Lau, who is associated with Mr Siemens, recommend that Shareholders vote in favour of Resolution 1 on the basis that the grant of the CAHL Shares will allow the Company to continue the development of its current sales strategy and for general working capital purposes.

If you do not mark any of the boxes on a given Resolution, your proxy may vote as he or she chooses. If you mark more than one box on a Resolution your vote on that Resolution will be invalid.

If you direct your proxy how to vote validly in accordance with these instructions and your proxy fails to either attend the Meeting or vote on any directed Resolution, the Chairman of the Meeting is taken to have been appointed as the proxy for the purposes of voting on that Resolution at the Meeting and must vote in accordance with your proxy.

4 Voting entitlements

In accordance with the Corporations Act, the Company has determined that the Shareholding of each person for the purpose of determining entitlements to attend and vote at the Meeting will be the entitlement of that person set out in the Company's share register as at 10:00am (WST) on 17 May 2017. Accordingly, transactions registered after that time will be disregarded in determining entitlements to attend and vote at the Meeting.

5 Voting in person
