

TCI Appoints Stephe Wilks as Non-Executive Director

29 September 2005

The Directors of Total Communications Infrastructure Limited (TCI) are pleased to announce that Mr Stephe Wilks has been appointed a Non Executive Director of the Company.

He is currently a Non Executive Director of Longreach Group Limited (ASX:LRX) and an Advisory Board member of the Network Insight group, and consults to a number of companies, offering advice in relation to the telecommunications, media and technology industries.

Mr Wilks has previously held senior executive positions with global telecommunication carriers including BT Asia Pacific, Optus and Hong Kong Telecom, as well as aggressive 'start up' competitors such as Optus' XYZed, Nextgen Networks, and Personal Broadband Australia. He has also worked as a Consulting Director with investment bank, NM Rothschild.

Mr Wilks will work closely with senior management as the Company enters into its next phase of growth – building on the existing clients and services, and taking the Company's strengths into closely related industries and activities.

Mr Wilks brings to the Board specialised and relevant telecommunication experience and expertise which should be of significant value to the Company as the business enters the next phase of its growth and development.

Mr Wilks holds Science and Law degrees from Macquarie University and a Master of Laws from the University of Sydney.

On behalf of the Board
