Super Retail Group Limited (SUL) announce changes to Executive responsibilities

Super Retail Group announced today that Chris Wilesmith will be appointed to the position of Supercheap Auto Managing Director on 1 July. In this role, Chris will continue to report to David Ajala, Managing Director Auto and Commercial Retailing Division.

Chris Wilesmith has held the position of General Manager Merchandise Auto Retailing for the last 6 years during which time he has made a significant contribution in leading the division's merchandise strategies. He has been particularly instrumental in delivering improvements in the division's product range and quality, building long term partnerships with trade partners and consistently striking a successful balance between growth in like for like sales and gross margin.

Chris' promotion reflects his contribution and potential and will enable David Ajala to continue to oversee the Supercheap Auto business whilst driving the growth of the Group's fledgling businesses Auto Trade Direct and Super Retail Commercial.
