ASX Announcement

20 February 2013

Entitlement Issue of Options – Shortfall and Delay in Allotment

The Company advises that it has received applications for 19,683,152 options out of a maximum 1,183,399,439 leaving a shortfall of 1,163,716,287 options.

At this stage, the Company has not received applications from a sufficient number of applicants for the securities to be quoted on ASX. The Company will proceed with the shortfall offer and will allot the securities when it has sufficient applications to apply for quotation.

Application funds will be held in trust until such time as the options are allotted or the company withdraws the offer.
