Agreement with Telstra Corporation Limited for the supply of mobile games

July 12, 2004: Healthpoint Technologies Limited (ASX Code: HLT) today announced that its subsidiary, TelcoGames Australia Limited ('TelcoGames'), has entered into an agreement with Telstra Corporation Limited ('Telstra') for the supply of Java mobile games for its mobile customers.

TelcoGames will supply Telstra with java games from its catalogue for resale to Telstra mobile customers. These games will be offered to Telstra mobile customers via the Telstra WAP portal, which customers can access via their WAP capable mobile phone.

Telcogames will receive a percentage of revenue derived from each game downloaded by a Telstra mobile customer.

The terms of the agreement remain otherwise confidential between the parties.
