Dear Sir or Madam

SEC deregistration

Telstra confirms its intention to terminate its United States Securities Exchange Act of 1934 registration and reporting obligations regarding each class of its securities under section 12(g) and section 15(d) of that Act. Telstra intends to file its application with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission as soon as possible after the final rules are released, which is expected to be in mid December 2006.

Yours sincerely
