1.11 Jurisdiction

The courts having jurisdiction in the state of New South Wales have non-exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute arising out of or in connection with this constitution and each member irrevocably submits to the jurisdiction of those courts

2 Powers and responsibilities of the board

2.1 Management of the business of the Company

The business of the Company is to be managed by the board, which may exercise all the powers of the Company that are not under the Corporations Act or by this constitution required to be exercised by the Company in general meeting including the powers of the Company to borrow or raise money, to issue debentures, to charge any business or assets of the Company or all or any of its uncalled capital and to give any other security for any debt, liability or obligation of the Company or of any other person.

2.2 Delegation by the board

The board may:

- (a) delegate any of its powers, authorities and discretions to a committee of the board consisting of one or more directors, to a director or to any other person in each case to such extent, by such means (including by power of attorney) and on such terms and conditions as the directors think fit;
- (b) authorise any person or committee to whom powers, authorities and discretions are delegated under this rule 2.2 to further delegate some or all of those powers, authorities and discretions; and
- (c) at any time revoke any delegation made under this rule 2.2 in whole or in part or vary its terms and conditions.

2.3 Committees

A committee to which any powers, authorities and discretions have been delegated under rule 2.2 must exercise those powers, authorities and discretions in accordance with the terms of the delegation and any other regulations that may be imposed by the board on that committee. The proceedings of a committee of the board must be conducted in accordance with any regulations imposed by the board, and, subject to any such regulations, to the rules of this constitution dealing with proceedings of the board.

3 Proceedings of the board

3.1 Board meetings

The board may meet together to attend to business and adjourn and otherwise regulate its meetings as the directors think fit. A board meeting at which a quorum is present is competent to exercise all powers, authorities and discretions for the time being vested in or exercisable by the board.

3.2 Convening board meetings

A director may at any time, and the secretary must on the written request of a director, convene a meeting of the board. Notice of a board meeting must specify the time and place of the board meeting and must be given to each director, other than a director on leave of absence approved by the board, and to each alternate director, by any of the means specified in rule 22.4. A director or alternate director for another director may waive the right to receive notice of any board meeting by giving notice to that effect to the Company either before or within 7 days after the board meeting has occurred.

3.3 Failure to give notice

A director or alternate director for another director who attends any board meeting waives any objection that he or she may have to any failure to give notice of that meeting. The accidental failure to give notice of a board meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice by, any person entitled to receive notice of that meeting does not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting or any resolution passed at that meeting.

3.4 Conduct of board meetings

The board may conduct meetings if sufficient directors to constitute a quorum are able to participate in the business of the meeting directly, by telephone or by any other means which enables each director:

- (a) to hear (or otherwise receive real time communications made by) each of the other directors participating in the meeting; and
- (b) to address (or otherwise communicate in real time with) all of the other directors participating in the meeting simultaneously, even if all of the directors are not physically present in the same place. A board meeting held in this manner is taken to be held at the place where the chairman of the meeting is physically present or at such other place where at least one director is physically present for the duration of the meeting as the chairman of the meeting may determine.

3.5 Quorum for board meeting

Unless otherwise determined by the board, a quorum for a board meeting is the number equal to a majority of all directors who are entitled to vote on any resolution that may be proposed at that meeting. In determining whether a quorum is present, each individual participating as a director or as an alternate director for another director is to be counted except that an individual participating in more than one capacity is to be counted only once.

3.6 Chairman and deputy chairman of the board

The board may elect one of its number as chairman of the board and may also determine the period for which the person elected as chairman is to hold that office. The board may also elect one of its number as deputy chairman of the board and may determine the period for which the person elected as deputy chairman is to hold that office. The board may replace the chairman or deputy chairman at any time by electing another member of the board to that office.

3.7 Chairman of board meeting

If the board has elected one of its number as chairman, that person is entitled to preside as chairman at a board meeting. If a chairman of the board has not been elected or if the chairman of the board is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the board meeting or is unable or unwilling to act for all or any part of the meeting then the chairman for that board meeting (or for that part of that meeting) will be chosen from the following persons, in order of precedence:

- (a) first, any person elected by the board as deputy chairman of the board, if that person is present and willing and able to act as chairman; and
- (b) second, any other director present chosen by a majority of the directors present, or, if only one other director is present, that director, if that director is willing and able to act as chairman.

3.8 How board resolutions are decided

A resolution of the board is passed if more votes are cast in favour of the resolution than against it by directors present and entitled to vote on the resolution. If there is an equality of votes in favour and against any resolution at a board meeting and there are at least 2 directors present and entitled to vote on the resolution, the chairman of the meeting is not entitled to a casting vote.

3.9 Voting rights of alternate directors

A person who is present at a meeting of directors as an alternate director has one vote for each director who would be entitled to vote if present at the meeting and for whom that person is an alternate director and, if that person is also a director, has one vote as a director in that capacity.

3.10 Written resolutions

The board may pass a resolution without a meeting being held if:

- (a) notice in writing of the proposed resolution is given to each director, other than a director on leave of absence approved by the board, and to each alternate director appointed by a director on such leave of absence, by any of the means specified in rule 22.4;

- (b) a two-thirds majority of the directors who are entitled to vote on the resolution assent to the resolution; and
- (c) the directors who assent to the resolution would have constituted a quorum at a board meeting held to consider that resolution, and the resolution is passed when the last of the directors constituting the requisite majority has assented to the document.

4 Appointment, retirement and removal of Directors

4.1 Number of directors

The minimum number of directors is 3. The maximum number of directors is 10 unless otherwise resolved by the Company in general meeting.

4.2 Board may act despite vacancy

The board may act despite any vacancy in the office of director but if the number of directors is below the minimum fixed by rule 4.1, the board may act only for the purpose of filling vacancies to the extent necessary to bring the number of directors up to that minimum, to convene a general meeting or in an emergency.

4.3 Appointment of directors by the board

The board may at any time appoint any person to be a director provided that the total number of directors does not exceed the maximum number determined in accordance with rule 4.1.

4.4 Election of directors at general meeting

Subject to rule 4.5, the Company may by resolution at a general meeting elect or re-elect a person as a director provided that the total number of directors does not exceed the maximum number determined in accordance with rule 4.1.

4.5 Eligibility for election at general meeting

No person may be elected as a director at a general meeting unless:

- (a) the person is eligible to stand for election or re-election at that meeting under rule 4.7;
- (b) the person has been nominated by the board for election at that meeting; or
- (c) at least 35 Business Days before the meeting (or in the case of a meeting that members have requested the directors to call in accordance with the Corporations Act, at least 30 Business Days before the meeting) a member has given the Company a notice signed by the member stating the member's intention to nominate that person for election as a director and a notice signed by the person consenting to the nomination and to act as a director; or
- (d) the person is eligible to stand for election or re-election at that meeting under rule 4.8.

4.6 Restriction on term

Subject to rule 4.8, no director may hold office without re-election beyond the third annual general meeting at which the director was last elected or re-elected.

4.7 Retirement of directors at annual general meeting

Subject to rule 4.8, at each annual general meeting of the Company:

- (a) each director appointed by the board under rule 4.3 since the date of the previous annual general meeting (and who has not been re-elected at a subsequent general meeting) must retire but is eligible to stand for election as a director at that meeting;
- (b) each director who is required to retire because of rule 4.6 must retire but is eligible to stand for re-election as a director at that meeting; and
- (c) if no directors are required to retire under rules 4.7(a) and 4.7(b) then the director who has held office longest without re-election must retire but is eligible to stand for re-election as a director at that meeting and if 2 or more directors have held office for the same period of time, the director to retire must be determined by agreement, or failing agreement, by lot.

4.8 Vacation of office at a spill meeting

At a spill meeting convened in accordance with the Corporations Act, each director who is required to vacate office at that meeting is eligible to stand for re-election at the meeting.

4.9 CEO exempt

The CEO appointed by the board is exempt from rule 4.6 and from retirement under rule 4.7. If more than one CEO Director has been appointed by the board then the CEO to whom this rule 4.8 applies must be nominated by the board.

4.10 Time at which retirement, election or re-election takes effect

A retiring director holds office until the conclusion of the meeting at which that director retires and the election or re-election of a person as a director at a general meeting takes effect at the conclusion of the meeting at which that election or re-election occurs.

4.11 Other circumstances in which director ceases to hold office

A director ceases to hold office as a director in the circumstances set out in rule 7.5 or if the director:

- (a) resigns as a director by giving notice in writing to the Company;
- (b) is removed from office by resolution under the Corporations Act;
- (c) is or becomes disqualified from being a director or from managing a corporation under the Corporations Act;
- (d) is not present personally or represented by an alternate director at meetings of the board for a continuous period of 6 months without leave of absence from the board;
- (e) is or becomes of unsound mind or a person whose assets are liable to be dealt with in any way under the law relating to mental health;
- (f) is or becomes bankrupt or insolvent.

4.12 Alternate directors

Subject to the Corporations Act, any director who was nominated by a shareholder with at least a 30% shareholding in the Company (Nominee Director) may by notice in writing to the Company appoint another Nominee Director to be his or her alternate director for such period as the appointor thinks fit and may by notice in writing to the Company terminate such appointment at any time even if the period of appointment of the alternate director has not expired. The appointment of an alternate director terminates automatically if the appointor ceases to be a director. An alternate director:

- (a) must be a Nominee Director;
- (b) is entitled to notice of all board meetings and, if the appointor does not attend a board meeting, is entitled to participate and vote in the appointor's place;
- (c) may exercise all the powers of the appointor except the power to appoint an alternate director and, subject to the Corporations Act, may perform all the duties of the appointor except to the extent that the appointor has exercised or performed them; and
- (d) is, whilst acting as an alternate director, an officer of the Company and not the agent of the appointor and is responsible to the exclusion of the appointor for the alternate director's own acts and defaults.

For the avoidance of doubt, a director who is also an alternate director may vote separately in both capacities.

5 Payments to Directors

5.1 Directors' fees

The Company may pay to each director for his or her services as a director such fees (excluding the salaries of executive directors) as the board may decide, provided that the aggregate of such fees does not in any financial year exceed $250,000 (as may be varied by ordinary resolution of the shareholders in a general meeting). Any fees payable under this rule 5.1 are in addition to any remuneration or other benefit payable or provided to a director under any other rule of this constitution and any such remuneration or other benefit does not form part of the director's fees for the purposes of this rule 5.1.

5.2 Manner of payment of fees

Any fees paid to a director under rule 5.1 may be paid in cash or provided in any other manner agreed between the Company and the relevant director (including by way of contribution to a superannuation fund on behalf of the director) and if any part of the fees of any director is to be provided other than in cash the board may determine the manner in which the non-cash component of the fees is to be valued.

5.3 Additional or special services

If a director at the request of the board performs additional or special services for the Company, the Company may pay or provide to that director such remuneration or other benefits as the board determines having regard to the value to the Company of the additional or special services provided.

5.4 Expenses

A director is entitled to be reimbursed out of the funds of the Company for such reasonable travelling, accommodation, secretarial and other expenses as the director may properly incur in travelling to, attending and returning from board meetings, meetings of a committee of the board and general meetings of the Company or otherwise in attending to the business of the Company.

5.5 Incentive schemes

Subject to the Corporations Act and the Listing Rules the Company may establish and maintain any share, option or other incentive scheme for the benefit of directors or in which directors are permitted to participate, and may grant to the directors benefits under any such scheme.

5.6 Remuneration and expenses

An alternate director is not entitled to receive any remuneration from the Company in their capacity as an alternate director but is entitled to such reasonable travelling, accommodation and other expenses as the alternate director may properly incur in travelling to, attending and returning from board meetings or meetings of a committee of the board at which the appointor is not present.

6 Interests of Directors

6.1 Disclosure of interests

Each director must disclose that director's interests to the Company in accordance with the Corporations Act.

6.2 Permitted interests

Subject to complying with rule 6.1, a director may, despite holding the office of director and despite the fiduciary obligations arising from that office, do any of the following without any liability to account to the Company or a related body corporate of the Company for any direct or indirect benefit accruing to the director and without affecting the validity of any contract or arrangement:

- (a) hold any office or position in the Company or a related body corporate of the Company, except that of auditor;
- (b) hold any office or position in any other company, body corporate, trust or entity promoted by the Company or a related body corporate of the Company or in which the Company or a related body corporate of the Company has an interest of any kind;
- (c) enter into any contract or arrangement with the Company or a related body corporate of the Company;
- (d) participate in any association, institution, fund, trust or scheme for past or present employees or directors of the Company or a related body corporate of the Company or persons dependent on or connected with them; and/or
- (e) act in a professional capacity (or be a member of a firm which acts in a professional capacity) for the Company or a related body corporate of the Company, except as auditor.

6.3 Director with material personal interest

A director who has a material personal interest in a matter that is being considered at a board meeting must not be present while the matter is being considered at the meeting or vote on that matter except where permitted by the Corporations Act.

6.4 Participation despite interest

Subject to rule 6.3, if a director has an interest in a matter then, despite that interest, the director:

- (a) may be counted in the quorum at the board meeting that considers matters relating to that interest and may participate in and vote on matters relating to that interest; and
- (b) may sign or participate in the execution of any document relating to that matter by or on behalf of the Company or a related body corporate of the Company.

7 Executive officers

7.1 Appointment of the CEO and executive directors

The board may appoint one or more of the directors to the office of CEO or other executive office of the Company for such period and on such terms as the directors think fit and, without prejudice to any claim for breach of any service contract between the director and the Company, may revoke or terminate any appointment so made. The CEO or other executive director so appointed may be referred to by any title that the directors think fit.

7.2 Powers of the CEO and executive directors

The board may confer on the CEO or an executive director such of the powers, authorities and discretions exercisable by the board as the directors think fit, on such terms and conditions and with such restrictions as the directors think fit, and may withdraw or vary any of the powers conferred on the CEO or an executive director.

7.3 Remuneration of the CEO and executive directors

The remuneration of the CEO or an executive director may be fixed by the board and may be by way of salary or commission or participation in profits or all of these, but may not be by a commission on or percentage of operating revenue.

7.4 Where the CEO ceases to be a director

Without prejudice to any claim for breach of any service contract between the CEO and the Company, the CEO automatically ceases to hold that office if he or she ceases to be a director.

7.5 Where the CEO or an executive director ceases to be an employee

Unless the board determines otherwise, the CEO or executive director appointed under rule 7.1 who is employed by the Company or a related body corporate of the Company automatically ceases to hold office as a director if that employment is terminated for any reason.

7.6 Secretaries

The Company must have at least one secretary who is to be appointed by the board. The board may appoint more than one secretary and may appoint one or more assistant secretaries. A secretary or assistant secretary holds office on such terms and conditions and with such powers and duties as the board decides and may be paid such remuneration as the board decides. The board may at any time terminate the appointment of a secretary or assistant secretary.

8 Convening general meetings

8.1 Annual general meetings

Annual general meetings of the Company must be held in accordance with the Corporations Act.

8.2 Convening a general meeting

The board may convene and arrange to hold a general meeting of the Company whenever the directors think fit and must do so if required to do so under the Corporations Act. No member may convene a general meeting except where permitted by the Corporations Act.

8.3 Length and form of notice

Notice of a general meeting must be given in accordance with the requirements of the Corporations Act and this constitution and otherwise in such form and manner as the directors think fit. In calculating the number of days' notice required to be given for any general meeting, both the day on which the notice is given or taken to be given and the day of the meeting convened by it are to be disregarded.

8.4 Persons to whom notice must be given

Notice of a general meeting must be given to each person who, at the time that the notice is given, is a member, director or auditor of the Company or is entitled to attend and vote at the general meeting as a result of a Transmission Event, unless that person waives the right to receive notice by written notice to the Company.

8.5 Irregularities in giving notice

A person who attends any general meeting waives any objection that the person may have to any failure to give notice or any other irregularity in the notice of that meeting unless that person objects to the holding of the meeting at the start of the meeting. The accidental failure to give notice of a general meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice by, any person entitled to receive notice of that meeting does not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting or any resolution passed at that meeting.

8.6 Change of place, postponement or cancellation

Subject to rule 8.7, the Corporations Act and the Listing Rules, the board may change the place for, postpone or cancel (or may change the place for and postpone) a general meeting at any time before the date on which the meeting is due to be held by publishing in a daily newspaper circulating in Australia, releasing to ASX or making available in any other manner as the directors think fit the following information:

- (a) the reason for the change of place, postponement or cancellation (or the change of place and postponement);
- (b) if the place for the meeting is being changed, the new place for the holding of the meeting and, if the meeting is to be held in two or more places, the technology that will be used to facilitate the holding of the meeting in that manner; and

- (c) if the meeting is being postponed, the new date and time for the holding of the meeting.

8.7 Consent required for postponement or cancellation

Rule 8.6 does not permit the board to postpone or cancel a meeting convened in accordance with the Corporations Act by a single director, by members, by the board on the request of members or a meeting convened by a court unless that director, those members or the court, as the case may be, has or have consented in writing to the postponement or cancellation.

8.8 Business at postponed meeting

The only business that may be transacted at a general meeting the holding of which is postponed is the business specified in the original notice convening the meeting.

9 Proceedings at general meetings

9.1 Admission to general meetings

The chairman of a general meeting may take any action he or she considers appropriate for the orderly conduct of the meeting and the safety of persons attending the meeting including:

- (a) requesting any person who is not a member to attend the meeting and inviting any such person to speak at the meeting;
- (b) refusing admission to, or requiring to leave and remain out the meeting any person who:
 - (i) is not entitled to attend the meeting under the Corporations Act or this constitution;
 - (ii) has an audio or visual recording or broadcasting device, a placard or banner or any article that the chairman considers dangerous, offensive or liable to cause disruption;
 - (iii) refuses to produce or permit the inspection of any article, or the contents of any article in the person's possession;
 - (iv) behaves or threatens to behave in a dangerous, offensive or disruptive way; or
 - (v) does not comply with the reasonable directions of the chairman; or
- (c) arranging for any persons attending the meeting who the chairman considers cannot reasonably be accommodated in the place where the meeting is to take place to attend or observe the meeting from a separate place using any technology that gives members present at the meeting as a whole a reasonable opportunity to participate in the meeting, and may delegate any of the powers given by this rule 9.1 to any person. Nothing in this rule 9.1 limits the powers conferred on the chairman by law.

9.2 Requirement for a quorum

No item of business may be transacted at a general meeting except for the election of a chairman and the adjournment of the meeting unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to consider it. If a quorum is present at the time when the first item of business is considered, a quorum is taken to be present when the meeting proceeds to consider each subsequent item of business unless the chairman of the meeting (on the chairman's own motion or at the request of a member present) declares otherwise.

9.3 Number for a quorum

Subject to rule 9.5, a quorum is 5 members present and entitled to vote. In determining whether a quorum is present, each individual attending as a corporate representative, proxy or attorney is to be counted, except that:

- (a) an individual attending in more than one capacity is to be counted only once; and
- (b) if a member has appointed more than one corporate representative, proxy or attorney, only one is to be counted.

9.4 If quorum not present

If within 30 minutes after the time appointed for a general meeting a quorum is not present:

- (a) if the meeting was convened by a director or at the request of members, the meeting is dissolved; and
- (b) in any other case, the meeting is adjourned to the same day in the next week and the same time and place, or to such other day, time and place as the directors present at the meeting determine.

9.5 Quorum for adjourned meeting

At a meeting adjourned under rule 9.4(b), a quorum is 2 members present and entitled to vote and the provisions of rule 9.3 apply in determining whether that quorum is present. If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for the adjourned meeting, the meeting is dissolved.

9.6 Chairman of general meeting

If the board has elected one of its number as chairman of the board, that person is entitled to preside as chairman at a general meeting. If a chairman of the board has not been elected or if the chairman of the board is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for a general meeting or is unable or unwilling to act as chairman for all or any part of the meeting, then the chairman of the meeting (or for that part of the meeting) will be chosen from the following persons, in order of precedence:

- (a) first, any person elected by the board as deputy chairman of the board, if that person is present and willing and able to act as chairman;
- (b) second, any other director present chosen by a majority of the directors present, or if only one other director is present, that director, if that director is willing and able to act as chairman; and
- (c) third, a member present chosen by a majority of the members present and who is willing and able to act as chairman.

9.7 Conduct of general meeting

Subject to the Corporations Act, the chairman of a general meeting:

- (a) has charge of the general conduct of the meeting and the procedures to be adopted at the meeting;
- (b) may require the adoption of any procedure which is in the chairman's opinion necessary or desirable for proper and orderly debate or discussion including limiting the time for which members present may speak on any motion or item of business;
- (c) may terminate discussion or debate on any matter and may make rulings without putting any question to the vote whenever the chairman considers it necessary or desirable for the proper conduct of the meeting;
- (d) may adjourn any matter being considered or remaining to be considered by the meeting to a later time at the same meeting; and
- (e) may require the adoption of any procedure which is in the chairman's opinion necessary or desirable for the proper and orderly casting or recording of votes at the general meeting including the appointment of scrutineers, and a decision by the chairman under this rule 9.7 is final and conclusive.

9.8 Amendments to resolutions

No amendment may be proposed to a resolution to be considered at a general meeting unless:

- (a) in the case of an amendment to a resolution set out in the notice of meeting, either:
 - (i) notice of the intention to move the amendment and a copy of the resolution as proposed to be amended are received at the registered office of the Company at least 10 days before the time appointed for the holding of the meeting; or
 - (ii) the chairman of the meeting in his or her absolute discretion decides that the amendment may properly be considered and voted on; or
- (b) in any other case, the chairman of the meeting in his absolute discretion decides that the amendment may properly be considered and voted on.

Nothing in this rule 9.8 nor the giving of any notice referred to in rule 9.8(a)(i) prejudices the power of the chairman of the meeting to rule any proposed amendment unacceptable or out of order. Any ruling by the chairman of the meeting in relation to a resolution or an amendment to a resolution is final and conclusive.

9.9 Adjournment of general meeting

The chairman of a general meeting may at any time during the meeting adjourn the meeting to such day, time and place as the chairman determines, but only unfinished business is to be transacted at a meeting resumed after an adjournment. No person other than the chairman of a general meeting may adjourn the meeting and members are not entitled to direct that the chairman adjourn any meeting or to vote on any motion to adjourn the meeting unless the chairman determines that a vote should be taken.

9.10 Notice of adjourned meeting

If a general meeting is adjourned under rule 9.4(b) or rule 9.9 notice of the adjournment must be given to ASX but no other notice of the adjournment is required to be given to any person unless the meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more. If a general meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting must be given in the same manner as the original notice of that meeting.

9.11 Directors entitled to attend and speak at general meeting

The directors are entitled to attend and speak at a general meeting of the Company.

10 Voting at general meetings

10.1 How resolutions are decided

Subject to the requirements of the Corporations Act, a resolution is taken to be carried if a majority of the votes cast on the resolution are in favour of it. If there is an equality of votes on any proposed resolution of members, the chairman of the meeting is entitled to a casting vote, in addition to any votes to which the chairman is entitled to cast a member, corporate representative, proxy or attorney.

10.2 Voting on show of hands

At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is demanded in accordance with rules 10.3 and 10.4 and the demand is not withdrawn. A declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been carried on a show of hands or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Company, is conclusive evidence of the fact. Neither the chairman nor the minutes need state, and it is not necessary to prove, the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

10.3 When a poll may be demanded

A poll may only be demanded on a resolution:

- (a) before the show of hands on that resolution is taken;
- (b) before the result of the show of hands on that resolution is declared; or
- (c) immediately after the result of the show of hands on that resolution is declared.

10.4 Who may demand a poll

A poll may only be demanded on a resolution by:

- (a) at least 5 members entitled to vote on the resolution;
- (b) members with at least 5% of the votes that may be cast on the resolution; or
- (c) the chairman of the meeting.

10.5 Voting on a poll

If a poll is properly demanded:

- (a) the poll must be taken at the time and place that the chairman of the meeting directs;
- (b) the poll must be taken in the manner directed by the chairman;

- (c) the result of the poll is a resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded; and
- (d) the demand does not prevent the continuance of the meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll has been demanded.

10.6 Direct voting

The board may determine that a member who is entitled to attend and vote at a general meeting may vote at that meeting without being present at that meeting by communicating the member's voting intentions to the Company directly by post, fax, email or other electronic means approved by the board. If the board makes such a determination in respect of a general meeting:

- (a) the board may also make rules about the manner in which a direct vote may be cast at that meeting, the circumstances in which a direct vote is taken to be valid and any other matter relating to the exercise of direct votes at that meeting as the directors think fit; and
- (b) any direct vote cast in accordance with those rules by a member entitled to vote at that meeting is taken to have been cast by that member at that meeting.

10.7 Rights to vote

Subject to this constitution and to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares:

- (a) on a show of hands, each member present has one vote except that if a person is entitled to vote in more than one capacity, that person is only entitled to one vote;
- (b) on a poll, each member present has one vote for each fully paid share held by the member at the Record Time and the number of votes determined in accordance with rule 10.8 in respect of any partly paid shares held by the member at the Record Time; and
- (c) where the board has determined other means for the casting and recording of votes by members on any resolution to be put to a general meeting, every member having the right to vote on the resolution has one vote for each fully paid share held by the member at the Record Time and the number of votes determined in accordance with rule 10.8 in respect of any partly paid shares held by the member at the Record Time.

10.8 Voting rights of holders of partly paid shares on a poll

Subject to this constitution and to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares, on a poll:

- (a) in respect of any share that is not fully paid a member is entitled to the fraction of one vote equal to the amount paid up on the share divided by the total of all amounts paid and payable on the share;
- (b) for the purposes of rule 10.8(a) no amount credited as paid on a share without payment in money or other valuable consideration being made to the Company is taken to be paid up on the share and no amount paid on a share in advance of a call is taken to be paid up on the share until the due date for payment of the call; and

- (c) the total number of votes that a member has in respect of all shares that are not fully paid is the aggregate of all fractions arising from the application of rule 10.8(a) rounded down to the nearest whole number.

10.9 Voting by joint holders

If a share is held jointly and more than one of the joint holders votes in respect of that share, only the vote of the joint holder whose name appears first in the Register in respect of that share counts.

10.10 Voting by member of unsound mind

If a member is of unsound mind or is a person whose assets are liable to be dealt with in any way under the law relating to mental health then any person who properly has the management of the member's estate may exercise the member's rights in relation to a general meeting as if the person were the member.

10.11 Voting by persons entitled by transmission

A person entitled to a share as the result of a Transmission Event may vote at a general meeting in respect of that share as if the person were registered as the holder of that share at the Record Time if at least 48 hours before the meeting the board determines that the person is entitled to the share. Any vote exercised by the person so entitled must be accepted and the Company must disregard any vote of the registered holder of those shares.

10.12 Restrictions on voting rights

A member is not entitled to vote on a resolution at a general meeting:

- (a) in respect of any share on which a call is due and payable and has not been paid; or
- (b) if prevented from doing so by the Corporations Act or the Listing Rules or any rule of this constitution.

The Company must disregard any vote purported to be cast on a resolution by a member or a corporate representative, proxy or attorney of a member in breach of this rule 10.12.

10.13 Objection to voting qualification

An objection to the right of a person to attend or vote at a general meeting or adjourned general meeting:

- (a) may not be raised except at that meeting or adjourned meeting; and
- (b) must be referred to the chairman of the meeting, whose decision is final.

If any objection is raised to the right of a person to vote and the chairman disallows the objection then the vote cast by that person is valid for all purposes.

11 Representation of members at general meetings

11.1 How members may attend and vote

Subject to this constitution, each member entitled to vote at a general meeting may attend and vote at that general meeting:

- (a) in person or, where a member is a body corporate, by its corporate representative; or
- (b) by not more than 2 proxies or attorneys.

A corporate representative, proxy or attorney may, but need not, be a member of the Company.

11.2 Corporate representatives

The chairman of a meeting may request a person claiming to be a corporate representative to provide evidence satisfactory to the chairman that he or she has been validly appointed. If such evidence is not provided the chairman may nevertheless permit that person to exercise the powers of a corporate representative at that meeting but may make it a condition of the exercise of any voting rights by that person that the person produce such evidence within a time after the conclusion of the meeting set by the chairman. If the chairman attaches such a condition to the exercise of any voting rights then that condition may be waived by notice in writing to the relevant member at any time before the time specified by the chairman.

11.3 Form of proxy appointments

The appointment of a proxy for a general meeting must be:

- (a) in the form approved by the board for the purposes of that meeting and sent or otherwise made available to members by or on behalf of the Company; or
- (b) in any other form which complies with the Corporations Act.

11.4 Signature or authentication of proxy appointments

The appointment of a proxy for a general meeting must be:

- (a) signed by the member making the appointment or a duly authorised agent of the member or, in the case of a member that is a body corporate, executed by the member in accordance with the Corporations Act or signed by an officer or agent authorised for that purpose; or
- (b) authenticated by the member in any manner approved by the board and specified in the notice convening that meeting or in any other manner permitted by the Corporations Act.

11.5 Name of proxy not completed

If the name or office of the proxy in a proxy appointment has not been completed then the proxy appointed under that appointment is:

- (a) in the case of a proxy appointment in a form made available to members by or on behalf of the Company, the person specified in that form of proxy appointment as the proxy to be appointed if the member does not nominate a proxy, if any; or
- (b) in any other case, the chairman of the meeting.

11.6 Time for receipt of proxy appointment

Subject to rule 11.7, for the appointment of a proxy to be effective:

- (a) for a general meeting, the Company must receive the proxy appointment, together with an original or certified copy of any authority under which the appointment was signed, executed or authenticated, at least 48 hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting; and

- (b) for an adjourned general meeting, the Company must receive the proxy appointment and other documents referred to in rule 11.6(a) at least 24 hours before the time appointed for the resumption of the adjourned meeting.

A document referred to in this rule 11.6 is taken to be received by the Company if it is received at any of the places or by any of the means specified in the Corporations Act for the receipt of proxy documents.

11.7 Incomplete proxy appointment

If a proxy appointment has been received by the Company within the period specified in rule 11.6(a) (in relation to a general meeting) or rule 11.6(b) (in relation to an adjourned general meeting) and the board considers that the proxy appointment has not been properly signed, executed or authenticated or is otherwise incomplete (other than by reason only that the name or office of the proxy has not been completed), the board, in its discretion, may direct that the proxy appointment be returned to the member appointing the proxy and may request that the member:

- (a) take such steps as the board requires to complete, sign, execute or authenticate the proxy appointment; and
- (b) return the proxy appointment as completed, signed, executed or authenticated in accordance with rule 11.7(a) to the Company within the time period notified to the member.

A proxy appointment which is received by the Company in accordance with rule 11.7(b) is effective.

11.8 Attorneys

An attorney may not attend a general meeting or exercise any of the rights of the appointing member:

- (a) at a general meeting, unless the Company receives the original or a certified copy of the power of attorney, together with an original or certified copy of any authority under which the power of attorney was signed or executed, at least 48 hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting; or
- (b) at an adjourned general meeting, unless the Company receives the documents referred to in rule 11.8(a) at least 24 hours before the time appointed for the resumption of the adjourned meeting.

A document referred to in this rule 11.8 is taken to be received by the Company if it is received by any of the means specified in the Corporations Act for the receipt of proxy documents.

11.9 Rights of corporate representatives, proxies and attorneys

Subject to rules 11.10 to 11.15, unless the terms of appointment of a corporate representative, proxy or attorney provide otherwise, the corporate representative, proxy or attorney:

- (a) has the same rights to speak, demand a poll, join in demanding a poll or act generally at the meeting as the appointing member would have had if the member had been present;
- (b) is taken to have the authority to vote on any amendment moved to the proposed resolutions, any motion that the proposed resolutions not be put or any similar motion and any procedural resolution, including any resolution for the election of a chairman or the adjournment of a general meeting; and
- (c) may attend and vote at any postponed or adjourned meeting unless the appointing member gives the Company notice in writing to the contrary not less than 48 hours before the time to which the holding of the meeting has been postponed or adjourned.

This rule 11.9 applies even if the terms of appointment of a corporate representative, proxy or attorney refers to specific resolutions or to a specific meeting to be held at a specific time.

11.10 Validity of votes cast by proxy or attorney

Subject to the Corporations Act and this constitution, a vote cast by a person as proxy or attorney at a general meeting is valid:

- (a) despite the transfer of the shares in respect of which the proxy or attorney is appointed if the transfer is not registered or given effect to before the Record Time for that meeting;
- (b) despite the occurrence of a Transmission Event in respect of the member that appointed the proxy or attorney unless the board has determined in accordance with rule 10.11 that a person other than the member appointing the proxy or attorney is entitled to the share; and
- (c) despite the revocation of the appointment of the proxy or attorney or the authority under which a third party appointed the proxy or attorney, unless the Company has received written notice of the revocation at least 48 hours before the start of the meeting (or, in the case of an adjourned meeting, at least 24 hours before the resumption of the meeting).

11.11 No right to speak or vote if appointing member present

The appointment of a proxy or attorney is not revoked if the appointing member is present in person or by corporate representative at a general meeting, but the proxy or attorney must not speak or vote at the meeting while the appointing member is so present.

11.12 Rights where 2 proxies or attorneys are appointed

Where a member appoints 2 proxies or attorneys to vote at the same general meeting:

- (a) if the appointment does not specify the proportion or number of the member's votes each proxy or attorney may exercise, each may exercise half the member's votes;
- (b) on a show of hands, if more than one proxy or attorney attends, neither may vote; and
- (c) on a poll, each proxy or attorney may only exercise votes in respect of those shares or voting rights the proxy or attorney represents.

11.13 More than one corporate representative present

If more than one corporate representative appointed by a member (and in respect of whose appointment the Company has not received notice of revocation) is present at a general meeting then:

- (a) a corporate representative appointed for that particular meeting may act to the exclusion of a corporate representative whose appointment is a standing appointment; and
- (b) subject to rule 11.13(a), the corporate representative appointed most recently in time may act to the exclusion of a corporate representative appointed earlier.

11.14 More than 2 proxies or attorneys appointed

If the Company receives notice of the appointment of a proxy or attorney in accordance with this constitution that results in more than 2 proxies or attorneys being entitled to act at a general meeting then in determining which proxies or attorneys may act at that meeting:

- (a) a proxy or attorney appointed for that particular meeting may act ahead of any proxy or attorney whose appointment is a standing appointment; and
- (b) subject to rule 11.14(a), the proxies or attorneys whose appointments are received by the Company most recently in time may act.

11.15 Identity of person acting as corporate representative, proxy or attorney

The chairman of a meeting may require a person acting as a corporate representative, proxy or attorney to establish to the chairman's satisfaction that the person is the person duly appointed to act and, if the person fails to do so, may exclude the person from attending or voting at the meeting.

- (b) rounding up each fractional entitlement to a whole share by capitalising any amount available for capitalisation under rule 16.3 (even though not all members may participate in that capitalisation); or

- (b) the provisions of this constitution relating to convening general meetings of the Company, proceedings at general meetings, voting at general meetings and representation at general meetings apply to every separate meeting of the holders of a class of shares except that:

12.11 Uncertificated shares

The directors may permit any class of shares to be held in uncertificated form and may take all steps necessary or desirable to facilitate the holding of shares in, and the transfer of shares held in, uncertificated form. In relation to any shares which are for the time being held in uncertificated form the Company:

 - (i) has been signed by or on behalf of both the transferor or transferee (unless the transfer relates only to fully paid shares and the board has resolved that signature by the transferee is not required); or
 - (ii) is a document that is, or is comprised of documents that together constitute, a sufficient transfer of that share under the Corporations Act; or
- (c) by any other method of transfer permitted by the Corporations Act.

13.2 Written instrument of transfer

A written instrument of transfer used to transfer a share in accordance with rule 13.1 must be:

- (f) the Company is otherwise permitted to do so under the Corporations Act, the Listing Rules or the terms of issue of the shares.

13.6 Notice of refusal to register transfer

If the board refuses to register a transfer of shares it must give written notice of the refusal to the registered holder of the shares, the transferee named on the transfer and the broker lodging the transfer, if any, within 5 Business Days after the transfer was lodged. Failure to give such notice does not invalidate the decision of the board to refuse to register that transfer.

13.7 Holding lock

The board may request the operator of any relevant prescribed clearing and settlement facility to apply a holding lock to prevent a transfer of shares from being registered in any circumstances where:

- (a) the board is obliged or entitled to refuse to register a transfer of shares under rule 13.4 or rule 13.5; and
- (b) the applicable Operating Rules permit a holding lock to be applied.

The board must give notice of any request made under this rule 13.7 to the registered holder of the shares within 5 Business Days after the date on which the request is made. Failure to give such notice does not invalidate the decision of the board to request the application of the holding lock, or the subsequent application of any holding lock.

If a member dies, the only person or persons that the Company will recognise as having any title to or interest in that member's shares are:

- (a) if the member was a joint holder, the survivor; and
- (b) if the member was a sole or the only surviving holder, the personal representative of that member,

but nothing in this constitution releases the estate of a deceased member from any liability in respect of any share held by that member solely or jointly.

14.3 Rights of personal representative

A personal representative entitled to shares by reason of rule 14.2(b) is, on giving to the board such information as the board requires to prove the personal representative's entitlement to the shares, entitled to the same rights as the deceased member whether or not registered as the holder of the shares.

14.4 Election by persons entitled on transmission

Subject to rule 14.6, if a person becomes entitled to a share as a result of:

The provisions of this constitution applying to the transfer of shares generally apply to a transfer executed in accordance with this rule 14.5 as if that transfer were a transfer effected by the person from whom the person making the election derives their entitlement to the share and as if the event giving rise to the transmission of the share had not occurred.

14.6 Transfer executed before occurrence of Transmission Event

The directors may register or give effect to a transfer of a share executed before the occurrence of a Transmission Event even if they have notice of the Transmission Event.

Subject to the Corporations Act, this constitution and any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares:

- (a) the board may cause to be paid any dividend required to be paid under the terms of issue of any share;
- (b) the board may decide to pay any other interim or final dividend that appears to the board to be justified by the financial position of the Company and may decide that a dividend be paid on shares of one class but not another class, or at different rates for shares of different classes;
- (c) if the board decides to pay a dividend, it may fix the amount of the dividend, the time for determining entitlements to the dividend and the time for and method of payment of the dividend; and

- (d) the board may revoke a decision to pay a dividend if it appears to the board at any time before the dividend is paid that payment of the dividend is no longer justified by the financial position of the Company.

15.2 Entitlements of fully paid and partly paid shares

Subject to this constitution and any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares on which a dividend is paid:

- (a) each share that is fully paid confers an entitlement to the full amount of the dividend decided by the board;
- (b) any share that is not fully paid confers an entitlement only to the proportion of the dividend decided by the board equal to the amount paid up on the share divided by the total of all amounts paid and payable on the share;
- (c) for the purposes of rule 15.2(b), no amount credited as paid on a share without payment in money or other valuable consideration being made to the Company is taken to be paid up on the share and no amount paid on a share in advance of a call is taken to be paid up on the share until the due date for payment of the call; and
- (d) if an amount is paid on a share during the period to which the dividend relates, the amount paid up on that share for the purposes of rule 15.2(b) is taken to be the amount paid up on the share at the start of the period plus such proportion of the additional amount paid up during that period as is equal to the proportion of that period during which that additional amount was paid up.

15.3 Payment of dividends

Subject to this constitution, a dividend in respect of a share is payable to the person registered as the holder of that share:

- (a) if the board has fixed a time for determining entitlements to the dividend, at that time; and
- (b) in any other case, on the date on which the dividend is paid. The provisions of rule 21 apply to the payment of any dividend.

15.4 No interest on dividends

No interest is payable by the Company on a dividend.

15.5 Deductions from dividends

The board may deduct from any dividend payable to a member all sums presently payable by that member to the Company on account of calls or otherwise in relation to shares in the Company and may apply the amount deducted against the amount so payable.

15.6 Dividend satisfied by the distribution of specific assets

When deciding to pay a dividend, the board may resolve that the dividend be satisfied wholly or in part by the distribution of specific assets including fully paid shares or other securities of the Company or of any other body corporate either generally or to specific members. The provisions of rules 17.1 and 17.2 apply to any such distribution.

15.7 Scrip dividend

Subject to the Listing Rules, when deciding to pay a dividend, the board may determine to offer members entitled to the dividend the right to elect to forego all or part of that dividend and to receive instead new shares credited as fully paid on such terms as the directors think fit. If the board makes such a determination, it may decide at any time before such new shares are issued to withdraw the right to receive shares and to pay the dividend in cash instead. Any such decision may be made before or after any election has been made by any member in respect of that dividend.

15.8 Dividend reinvestment plan

- (a) Subject to the Listing Rules, the board may establish a plan on such terms and conditions as the directors think fit under which members participating in the plan may elect to apply all or part of a dividend payable by the Company in subscribing for or otherwise acquiring shares or other securities of the Company or a related body corporate of the Company. If the board establishes such a plan it may determine which members are eligible to participate in the plan and may amend, suspend or terminate the operation of the plan.
- (b) If a cheque for an amount payable is not presented for payment for 3 calendar months after issue or an amount is held in an account, for 3 calendar months, the board may reinvest the amount, after deducting reasonable expenses, into shares in the Company on behalf of, and in the name of, the member concerned and may stop payment on the cheque. The shares may be acquired on market or by way of new issue at a price the board determines as market price at the time. Any residual sum which arises from the reinvestment described in this rule 15.8 may be carried forward or donated to charity on behalf of the member, as the board decides. The Company's liability to pay the relevant amount is discharged by an application under this rule 15.8.

16 Reserves and profits

16.1 Reserves

The board may set aside out of the profits of the Company such amounts as the directors think proper as a reserve, to be applied for any purpose for which the profits of the Company may be properly applied, and may appropriate to the Company's profits any amount previously set aside as a reserve. Any amount set aside as a reserve is not required to be held separately from the Company's other assets and may be used by company or invested as the board thinks fit.

16.2 Carry forward of profits

The board may carry forward any part of the profits of the Company that it decides not to distribute as dividends without transferring those profits to a reserve.

16.3 Capitalisation of reserves and profits

Subject to the Listing Rules and any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares:

- (a) the board may resolve to capitalise all or part of any amount standing to the credit of any reserve account or the profit and loss account or otherwise available for distribution to members;

- (b) the board may resolve to apply all or part of any amount so capitalised for the benefit of members in the proportions to which those members would have been entitled in a distribution of that sum by way of dividend in paying up any amounts unpaid on shares held by members or in paying up in full unissued shares or other securities to be issued to members as fully paid; and
- (c) if the board resolves to apply any amount for the benefit of members under rule 16.3(b):
 - (i) the board must fix the time for determining entitlements to the application of that amount;
 - (ii) if securities other than shares are to be issued to members under that resolution then rule 12.3 applies as if references in that rule to shares included references to those other securities; and
 - (iii) the board may do all other things necessary to give effect to that resolution.

16.4 Agreement on behalf of members

If any amount is applied for the benefit of members pursuant to a resolution under rule 16.3(b), the Company may make, as agent of those members, or the board may authorise any other person to make, as agent of those members, an agreement with the Company under which those members accept either or both of the payment by the Company on their behalf of all or part of the amount unpaid on their existing shares or the issue to them of new shares or other securities under the capitalisation. Any agreement made under this rule 16.4 is effective and binding on all the members concerned.

17 Distribution of assets

17.1 Distribution by way of dividend or return of capital

If the board resolves to pay any dividend or return any capital to members by way of reduction of capital or share buy-back or otherwise wholly or in part by way of distribution of specific assets (including fully paid shares or other securities of the Company or of any other body corporate) either generally or to specific members, the board may:

- (a) value the assets to be distributed in such manner as the directors think fit;
- (b) vest the assets in such trustees and on such trusts for the benefit of the members entitled to the distribution of those assets as the directors think fit;
- (c) if the distribution of specific assets to a particular member or members is illegal or impracticable, determine to make cash payments in lieu of that distribution;
- (d) if members are entitled to fractions of a share or other security by reason of the distribution, determine to ignore fractional entitlements or to make cash payments in lieu of fractional entitlements; and
- (e) settle any other matter regarding the distribution as the directors think fit.

17.2 Agreement on behalf of members

If the Company distributes specific assets to any members the Company may make, as agent of those members, or the board may authorise any other person to make, as agent of those members, an agreement with the Company or any other person under which those members accept the transfer of those assets and, in the case of a distribution of shares of a body corporate or securities of a trust, agree to become members of that body corporate or holders of securities in that trust.

17.3 Distribution of assets on a winding up

Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares, on a winding up of the Company, the liquidator may with the sanction of a special resolution of the Company distribute among the members the whole or any part of the assets of the Company and may for that purpose:

- (a) decide how the assets are to be distributed as between the members or different classes of members;
- (b) value the assets to be distributed in such manner as the liquidator thinks fit; and
- (c) vest the whole or any part of any assets in such trustees and on such trusts for the benefit of the members entitled to the distribution of those assets as the liquidator thinks fit.

No member is obliged to accept any shares, securities or other assets in respect of which there is any liability.

18 Indemnity and insurance

18.1 Indemnity

To the maximum extent permitted by law, the Company must indemnify each person who is or has been a director, secretary or other officer of the Company or a subsidiary of the Company against:

- (a) any liability incurred by the person in that capacity, other than a liability for legal costs;
- (b) all legal costs incurred in connection with, any civil, criminal, administrative or judicial proceedings or investigation in which that person becomes involved as a result of holding that office; and
- (c) all legal costs incurred in good faith in obtaining legal advice on issues relevant to the performance of that person's functions and the discharge of that person's duties as an officer of the Company or a subsidiary of the Company, provided that expenditure has been approved in accordance with the Company's policy, except to the extent that the person is otherwise entitled to be indemnified and is actually indemnified by another person including under any insurance policy.

18.2 Extent of indemnity

The indemnity in rule 18.1 applies to liabilities and legal costs incurred both before and after adoption of this constitution and is enforceable by a person:

- (a) without that person first having to first incur any expense or make any payment; and
- (b) even though the person may have ceased to be an officer of the Company or a subsidiary of the Company.

18.3 Insurance

To the extent permitted by law, the Company may:

- (a) pay or agree to pay a premium for a contract insuring a person who is or has been a director, secretary or other officer of the Company or a subsidiary of the Company against liability incurred by the person in that capacity, including a liability for legal costs; and
- (b) bind itself in any contract or deed with any director, secretary or other officer to make payments on such terms as the directors think fit which are not inconsistent with this rule 18.

18.4 Company may enter into contracts

The Company may enter into a contract with a person who is or has been a director, secretary or other officer of the Company or a subsidiary of the Company setting out the rights and obligations of that person and the Company with respect to the matters referred to in rules 18.1 to 18.3. A contract entered into pursuant to this rule 18.4 may also include provisions requiring the Company to make payments to that person by way of advance or loan of legal costs and to give that person access to the accounting records and other books and documents of the Company.

19 Seals and execution of documents

19.1 Common seal

The Company may have a common seal. If the Company has a common seal:

- (a) it may also have a duplicate common seal; and
- (b) rule 19.2 applies in respect of the common seal and any duplicate common seal (and references in that rule to the common seal include references to any duplicate common seal).

19.2 Use of common seal

The common seal may only be used with the authority of the board, or of a committee of the board which is authorised by the board to authorise the use of the common seal. Every document to which the common seal is affixed must be signed by:

- (a) 2 directors;
- (b) a director and a secretary; or
- (c) a director and another person appointed by the board to countersign that document or a class of documents in which that document is included.

19.3 Execution of documents

- (a) 2 directors;

- (b) a director and a secretary; or
- (c) any person or persons authorised by the board for the purposes of executing that document or the class of document to which that document belongs (including any person or persons so authorised under a power of attorney given by the Company in accordance with this constitution).

19.4 Signing of cheques and receipts

The board may determine how cheques, promissory notes, bankers' drafts, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments must be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed or otherwise executed on behalf of the Company and how receipts for money paid to the Company must be signed or otherwise executed.

20.1 Inspection by members

Subject to the Corporations Act, the board may determine whether and to what extent, and at what time and places and under what conditions, the accounting records and other books and documents of the Company or any of them will be open to the inspection of members. A member does not have the right to inspect any document of the Company except as provided by law or this constitution or as authorised by the board or by the Company in general meeting.

20.2 Inspection by current and former officers

In addition to any rights given by law, each person who is or has been a director, secretary or other officer of the Company may access the accounting records and other books and documents of the Company in accordance with the terms of any contract entered into under rule 18.4.

21 Payments by the Company

21.1 Method of payment

The Company may pay any dividend or other amount payable to a member in respect of a share:

- (a) by cheque payable to the member (or in the case of joint holders, payable to the joint holder first named in the Register) or to any other person that the member (or in the case of joint holders, all joint holders) may nominate by giving notice in writing to the Company for this purpose;
- (b) by any electronic funds transfer system to any account that the member (or in the case of joint holders, all joint holders) may nominate by giving notice in writing to the Company for this purpose; or

The Company may send any cheque referred to in rule 21.1(a) by post to the address of the member shown in the Register (or in the case of joint holders, to the address in the Register of the joint holder first named in the Register) or to any other address that the member (or in the case of joint holders, all joint holders) may nominate by giving notice in writing to the Company for this purpose.

21.2 Persons entitled by transmission

21.4 Currency of payments

The board:

- (a) may determine to pay any dividend or other amount payable in respect of a share in a currency other than Australian dollars and to convert the amount payable from Australian dollars to the currency of payment in such manner and at such exchange rate as the directors think fit; and
- (b) in making any determination under rule 21.4(a) may differentiate between members as to the currency in which any payment referred to in that rule is to be paid and may have regard to the registered addresses of members, any subregister or branch register on which shares are registered and any other matters that they consider appropriate.

21.5 Company unable to make payment

If at the time that any dividend or other amount becomes payable to a member:

- (a) the member does not have an address in the Register and has not nominated another address under rule 21.1; or
- (b) the directors have reason to believe that the member is not known at the address for that member in the Register or at any other address nominated by the member under rule 21.1, then unless the member has nominated an account under rule 21.1(b), the Company may pay the dividend or other amount into an account of the Company to be held until the member notifies the Company in writing of an address to which the payment may be sent by cheque or an account into which the payment may be made by electronic funds transfer.

21.6 Payment returned or rejected

If any cheque sent under rule 21.1(a) is returned to the Company or if any electronic funds transfer made under rule 21.1(b) is refunded or rejected, the Company may pay the dividend or other amount into an account of the Company to be held until the member notifies the Company in writing of an alternative address to which the payment may be sent by cheque or an alternative account into which the payment may be made by electronic funds transfer.

21.7 Terms on which amounts held

The Company is not a trustee of any amount paid into an account of the Company under rule 21.5 or rule 21.6 and no member is entitled to any interest on any such amount. Any amount paid into such an account may be used by company or invested as the directors think fit.

- (b) which ranks for payment in priority to the payment of any dividend on the ordinary shares;
- (c) which ranks for payment in relation to the payment of any dividend on the shares in any other class of shares as decided by the board under the terms of issue; and
- (d) which is cumulative only if and to the extent the board decides under the terms of issue, and which is otherwise non-cumulative.

2 Further rights to participate in profits

In addition to the rights to receive a dividend, each preference share may participate with the ordinary shares in the distribution of profits of the Company if and to the extent that the board decides under the terms of issue.

3 Rights to accrued dividends on winding up or redemption

Each preference share gives its holder the right in a winding up or, in the case of a redeemable preference share, on redemption, to payment of the amount of any dividend accrued but unpaid on the share at the date of winding up or redemption, as applicable, in priority to the ordinary shares and with the same priority in relation to shares in any other class of shares as applies in relation to payment of the dividend.

4 Rights to additional amounts on winding up or redemption

Each preference share gives its holder the right in a winding up or, in the case of a redeemable preference share, on redemption, to payment of any amount decided by the board under the terms of issue (which may include repayment of some or all of the amount paid or taken to be paid on issue of the share):

- (a) which ranks for payment in priority to payments on the ordinary shares; and
- (b) which ranks for payment in relation to payments on the shares in any other class of shares as decided by the board under the terms of issue.

5 Rights to bonus issue or capitalisation of profits

If and to the extent the board decides under the terms of issue, a preference share may give its holder a right to a bonus issue or capitalisation of profits in favour of holders of that class of shares only.

6 No other rights to participate in profits or assets of the Company

Unless otherwise decided by the board under the terms of issue, a preference share does not give its holder any right to participate in the profits or assets of the Company except as set out in this Schedule 1.

7 Voting rights

Each preference shares gives its holder the right to vote at any general meeting of the Company in the following circumstances:

- (a) on any proposal:

 - (ii) that affects rights attached to the share;

 - (iv) for the disposal of the whole of the property, business and undertaking of the Company;
- (b) on a resolution to approve the terms of a buy-back agreement;
- (c) during a period in which a dividend or part of a dividend on the share is in arrears; or
- (d) during the winding up of the Company;

but does give any right to vote at any general meeting of the Company in any other circumstances unless otherwise decided by the board at the time of issue. The holder of a preference share who is entitled to vote in respect of that share under this Schedule 1 is, on a poll, entitled to the greater of one vote per share or such other number of votes specified in, or determined in accordance with, the terms of issue for the share.

8 Information

Each preference share gives its holder the same rights as the holders of ordinary shares to receive notices, reports and accounts and to attend and speak at general meetings of the Company.

9 Redeemable preference shares

In the case of a redeemable preference share, the Company must, at the time and place for redemption specified in, or determined in accordance with, the terms of issue for the share, redeem the share and, on receiving a redemption request under the terms of issue, must pay to or at the direction of the holder the amount payable on redemption of the share.

10 Convertible shares

Any ordinary shares arising on the conversion of a convertible preference share in accordance with the terms of its issue will, at the time of conversion and without any further act, have the same rights as, and rank equally with all other fully paid ordinary shares on issue, except to the extent that the terms of issue of the preference share provide otherwise in relation to dividends paid on ordinary shares after conversion

Schedule 2 CALLS ON SHARES

1 Terms of issue

The board may, when the Company issues shares, determine that calls on shares issued to members are to be payable at different times and in different amounts.

2 Board's power to make calls

Subject to the terms on which any shares are issued and the Listing Rules, the board may:

- (a) make calls on the members in respect of any amount unpaid on their shares which is not by the terms of issue of those shares made payable at fixed times;
- (b) require a call to be paid by instalments; or
- (c) revoke or postpone a call.

3 Time of call

A call is taken to be made at the time specified in the resolution of the board authorising the call or, if no such time is specified, at the time that the resolution is passed.

4 Notice of calls

The Company must give notice of a call to each member upon whom the call is made at least 30 Business Days (or any longer period required by the Listing Rules) before the amount called is due to be paid specifying the amount of the call and the time and place for payment. The non-receipt of a notice of a call by, or the accidental omission to give notice of a call to, any member does not invalidate the call.

5 Liability for calls

Each member must pay to the Company at the time and place specified in the notice of call the amount called on the member's shares. The joint holders of a share are jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect of the share.

6 Fixed instalments taken to be calls

If the terms of issue of a share require an amount to be paid in respect of the share at a fixed date, the amount so payable must be treated under this constitution as if a call for that amount had been made in accordance with this constitution in such a way that the call is payable on that fixed date (and all provisions of this constitution relating to non-payment of calls apply equally to any non-payment of the amount required to be paid on that date).

7 Reimbursement of payments

A member must pay to the Company on demand the amount of all payments that the Company makes to any government or taxation authority in respect of the member, the death of a member, the member's shares or any dividends or other distributions on the member's shares in circumstances where the Company is either:

- (a) obliged by law; or
- (b) advised by a lawyer qualified to practice in the jurisdiction of the relevant government or taxation authority that the Company is obliged by law, to make those payments, and whether or not the Company has notified the member of its intention to make those payments before doing so. Any amount payable to the Company under this paragraph 7 is taken to be a debt due to the Company and must be treated as if a call for that amount had been made in accordance with this constitution in such a way that the call is payable on the date on which the demand for payment under this paragraph 7 is made by the Company (and all provisions of this constitution relating to non-payment of calls apply equally to the debt).

8 Interest, cost and expenses

If any amount called or otherwise payable to the Company in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment, then unless the board determines otherwise, the person from whom the amount is due must pay:

- (a) interest on the amount from the day appointed for its payment to the time of actual payment at the rate of 3% above the Reference Rate, or such lower rate as may be fixed by the board; and
- (b) all reasonable costs and expenses incurred by the Company by reason of non-payment or late payment of the sum.

Any interest payable under this paragraph 8 accrues daily and may be capitalised monthly or at such other intervals as the board decides.

9 Prepayments of calls

The board may accept from a member the whole or a part of the amount unpaid on a share even if that amount has not been called and may authorise payment by the Company of interest on the whole or any part of an amount so accepted until the amount becomes payable, at a rate, not exceeding the Reference Rate, as may be agreed between the board and the member paying the amount.

Schedule 3 LIENS ON SHARES

1 Lien on shares generally

The Company has a first and paramount lien on every share for:

- (a) all amounts payable in respect of the share which have been called or which are payable at a fixed time and have become due (including all interest payable to the Company in respect of the unpaid amount under the terms of this constitution);
- (b) all amounts that the Company has been called on by law to pay and has paid in respect of the share; and
- (c) all reasonable costs and expenses incurred by the Company in respect of such amounts.

2 Lien in respect of loans under employee incentive scheme

To the extent permitted by the Corporations Act, the Company has a first and paramount lien on every share registered in the name of a member for all amounts which remain payable to the Company by that member under loans made to the member to acquire shares under an employee incentive scheme.

3 Lien on dividends and distributions

The Company's lien on a share extends to all dividends and other distributions payable in respect of the share. The directors may retain those dividends or distributions and may apply them in or towards satisfaction of all amounts due to the Company in respect of which the lien exists.

4 Exemption and release from lien

The directors may determine either generally or in any particular case to exempt a share from the provision of this Schedule 3. The Company's lien on a share is released if a transfer of that share is registered without the Company giving notice of the lien to the transferee.

5 Enforcement of lien

If an amount is due and payable by a member in respect of a share on which the Company has a lien then:

- (a) the Company may give notice to the member (or any other person entitled to the share by reason of the death or bankruptcy of the member) demanding payment of that amount and giving notice of intention to sell the share if such payment is not made; and

3 Notice of forfeiture

If any share is forfeited, notice of the forfeiture must be given to the member in whose name the share was registered immediately before the forfeiture and the fact of the forfeiture and the date of forfeiture must be entered immediately in the Register. Failure by the Company to give such notice or to enter the forfeiture on the Register does not invalidate the forfeiture.

4 Consequences of forfeiture

- (b) execute a transfer of the shares and execute all other documents and take all other steps necessary or desirable to transfer or dispose of those shares to the relevant transferee; and
- (c) receive any consideration given for the shares sold or disposed of.

The transferee of the shares is not bound to see to the application of any consideration provided for the shares nor will the transferee's title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in connection with the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the shares.

7 Application of proceeds of sale or disposal

The proceeds of a sale or disposal made after forfeiture must be applied by the Company in payment of, first, the expenses of the sale or disposal, and, second, the satisfaction of any liability to the Company in respect of the forfeited shares, and any residue must be paid to the person entitled to the shares immediately before forfeiture in accordance with the provisions of rule 21.

8 Evidence of forfeiture

A statement in writing by a director or a secretary of the Company to the effect that a share in the Company has been forfeited on a date specified in the statement is conclusive evidence of the forfeiture of that share as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share, and of the right of the Company to sell, dispose of or reissue that share.

9 Surrender of shares

The directors may accept the surrender of any share which they are entitled to forfeit on any terms that they think fit and any share so surrendered may be dealt with in the same manner as a forfeited share.
