

ASX ANNOUNCEMENT

10 February 2026

Proposed Name Change to Turnstone Resources Ltd

Highlights

- South Harz Potash Ltd proposes to change its name to TURNSTONE RESOURCES LTD subject to shareholder approval
- Name change reflects substantial diversification of portfolio aligned with the European critical minerals growth strategy announced in mid-2025
- Five copper - gold exploration licences secured in prospective and underexplored Värmland Province in central Sweden. Further two license applications remain pending
- The Glava-Klinten and Torsby West projects offer immediate discovery potential hosting outcropping mineralisation. First drilling targeted for June 2026 quarter
- The demand and price of copper have increased steadily over recent years and reflects the focus on global supply chains and the energy transition

Executive Chairman Len Jubber, commented:

"We have over the past nine months, through the addition of a copper-gold exploration footprint in Sweden, substantially diversified and strengthened our leverage to the demand for critical minerals in Europe.

The proposed name change to Turnstone Resources reflects our transition into a multi-asset European critical minerals company. We are committed to systematically exploring the potential of our assets, both in Germany and in Sweden, while continuing to evaluate complementary opportunities to further strengthen the portfolio."

South Harz Potash Limited (ASX:SHP) is pleased to advise that it proposes to change its name to TURNSTONE RESOURCES LTD, subject to shareholder approval at an upcoming General Meeting (GM).

The GM of Shareholders to approve the change will be held on Monday 16 March 2026 at 10 am WST.

This ASX release has been approved by the Board of Directors.
