TREASURY WINE ESTATES LIMITED DIRECTOR SHARE ACQUISITION PLAN

Treasury Wine Estates Limited (TWE) has established a regular share purchase plan to enable non-executive directors to build up their shareholding in the Company. The plan operates by applying a portion of directors' after-tax fees to regularly acquire the Company's shares on the ASX at the prevailing market rate.

To create greater alignment with the interests of shareholders, under TWE's Board-approved non-executive director remuneration guidelines, non-executive directors are encouraged to hold shares in the Company and are expected to build their shareholding to the equivalent of one year's base fees over a reasonable period of time. This plan enables non-executive directors to increase their shareholding in the Company over time, through regular purchases of shares on market.

This plan is not an incentive scheme and provides no discount from the market price for the Company's shares acquired on the ASX. The plan also does not operate to allow income tax deferral for the directors and the shares are acquired with after-tax fees.

The Company has established an arrangement with Computershare Plan Managers, as agent of the plan trustee, to acquire shares on a quarterly basis (except during the black-out periods applicable under the Company's Share Trading Policy) through an independent broker. The first purchase for participants under the plan occurred in March 2013. The Company pays the brokerage costs for these transactions.

Appropriate 'Chinese wall' arrangements have been established by both the Company and Computershare Plan Managers that are designed to ensure that the people executing the purchases are quarantined from price sensitive non-public information regarding the Company.

The Board strongly endorses this program and the directors' commitment to acquiring the Company's shares using their after tax fees.

Yours faithfully

Paul Conroy
General Counsel & Company Secretary
